Ten weeks remain for aspirants for par ty nominations to file their signed pri-mary petitions. Several candidates already have begun preparing their peti-tions, among them being C. A. Johns, who is an aspirant for the Republican nomination for Governor, and George E. Chamberlain, who will be the Democratic minee for re-election to that office

Republican or Democrat since January 2, 2905

For example, Mr. Johns will need 2 per of the 51,096 Republican votes polled for Representatives to Congress in the two Congressional districts, which would be 1022, but the law makes 1009 the maximum required. Mr. Chamberlain will need 2 per cent of 29,800 Democratic votes olled in that election, or 550 signatures.

For State-at-Large Petitions.

The signers of a petition for a state-atlarge petition must represent at least counties in the state, and not less than one-tenth of the precincts in each of those counties. The signers of Congressional petitions must represent at least one-fourth of the counties in each district-that is, four counties, there being 17 counties in the First District, and 16 in the Second-and in each county at least one-tenth of the precincts.

In a judicial district of more than one county, or in a joint legislative district. two counties must be represented and at these points is as follows: If the nomination for a municipal office of office to be voted for in only one county

Senator Gearin must come nominee for re-election to that office. The number of signatures required by iaw on a primary petition is 2 per cent of the candidate's party vote in the election of Representative to Congress in June, 150t, but in no case does the law require more than 1900 signatures. Every elector who signs a petition must have registered Description of men versed in that law. The trip will take him away from his Sen-storied duties in Washington about ten trip will take him away from his Sen-atorial duties in Washington about ten-days, leaving Senator Fulton to repre-sent Oregon in that time alone. The direct primary law provides that only those men can be candidates for primary nomination who shall be reg-intered with the County Clerk Senator istered with the County Clerk. Senator Gearin departed for Washington before Christmas and the registration books were not open until January .2. Sec-tion 12 of the law says: "Any qualified elector who has filed his petition and is registered as here-in required, as a member of a political party, subject to the provisions of this act, shall have his name printed on the official nominating ballot of his party as a condidate for nomination for any office at any primary nominating elec-tion, held under the provisions of this act, if there shall be filed in als behalf a petition as herein required." At the last session of the legislature nn amendment to the law was offered to exempt members of Congress from this requirement, who at the time of registration should be performing their duties away from nome, but the amendieast one-eighth of the precincts in each in a single county, one-fifth of the pre-cincis must be represented. Section 14, of the primary law, covering ment was lost in the shuffle, Had it post in Washington.
