

HOW MANN MADE HIS EASY MONEY

Lords of Finance Lent to Town Topics.

REPAID IN COSTLY STOCK

CLARK ALONE NOT EASY

Montana Senator Only Promised

Draged Editor of "Fads and Fancies" Some Railroad Bonds—Schwab Worked.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Colonel W. D. Mann, editor of Town Topics, testified at the Hapgood criminal libel trial today that he had borrowed nearly $200,000 from J. P. Morgan, James B. Keene, W. K. Vanderbilt, William C. Whitney and other prominent financiers. Many of these loans never were repaid, so far as Colonel Mann could recall, and others were repaid in stock of Town Topics at $1000 a share. The largest single loan was obtained from James B. Keene, who loaned the Town Topics editor $50,000. From W. K. Vanderbilt Colonel Mann obtained $25,000 from J. P. Morgan $25,000, from W. C. Whitney $10,000, from Colonel C. P. Huntington $5,000, from John W. Gates $20,000, from Charles M. Schwab $10,000 and from Thomas F. Ryan $10,000.

When Colonel Mann testified that many of these loans were paid in Town Topics stock at $1000 a share, James W. Osborne, counsel for Mr. Hapgood, asked if the par value of the stock is not $10 per share. Colonel Mann replied that it was.

Paid Money for Nothing.

A contract was produced showing that $2500 was paid by William J. White of Cleveland, for a subscription to "Fads and Fancies," a book which was issued under Colonel Mann's direction. Mr. White's name was not in this book and Colonel Mann was asked why Mr. White paid the money. He replied that he did not know and that, learning that Mr. White was a prominent Cleveland man, he had approved his subscription. The price of a subscription to "Fads and Fancies" was $1500, and Colonel Mann was asked what Mr. White paid the extra $1000 for.

Gold Brick for Senator Clark.

Colonel Mann's dealings with United States Senator W. A. Clark of Montana were taken up by Mr. Osborne. The witness said he never received any money from the senator.

Schwab's Loan of $10,000.

"Did you ever borrow from Charles Schwab?" asked Mr. Osborne. "I applied for a loan of $10,000 from him on stock of the Alger-Sullivan Lumber Company and he agreed to take the stock and give me the $10,000."

Money from Vanderbilt.

Taking up the loan from W. K. Vanderbilt, which Colonel Mann said might have been $25,000, Mr. Osborne asked: "Is it not agreed that his name is never to be printed in Town Topics?" "No."

SHIP SUBSIDY HITS SNAGS.

At 2 o'clock the merchant marine bill was laid before the Senate and Gallinger asked the Senate to agree to vote on the bill on February 12, but the objection of the conservative party to the bill was not sufficiently considered by the Senate. He said that he had no purpose to prevent a vote on the bill.

PROPOSED LAND LAW REFORM.

Repeal of timber and stone act, appraisal of timber and sale at auction under rules to be made by Secretary of Interior.

No land chiefly valuable for timber to be patented under commutation clause of homestead act.

Desert land claimants to show that they take land for own benefit and have made no agreement to sell; claimants to plant for 200 acres, actual residence of at least two years, actual production of valuable crops on one-fourth of area and actual irrigation to be required.

Commutation clause of homestead law to be repealed or amended to become effective only after three years' actual residence.

Agricultural land within boundaries of forest reserves to be open to agricultural entry.

Grazing districts to be reserved by Presidential proclamation; Secretary of Interior to classify and appraise grazing lands, appoint officers in each district, collect fee for grazing permits and make regulations; regulations to aim at largest permanent occupation by actual settlers.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 22.—There is every reason to believe that important public land legislation will be enacted during the present session of Congress, but the situation has not yet fully developed and it is too early to predict what modifications will be made in the existing land laws. Any legislation that is enacted will follow, in general, the recommendations of the Public Land Commission, appointed two years ago by the President to investigate and report on the injurious and undesirable features of the present laws and to recommend such modifications as are required in the interest of the bona fide settler and the general public.

Repeat Timber and Desert Laws.

The Senate committee on public lands has already taken up the timber and stone act, and is devoting considerable time to its consideration. There appears to be little doubt that this law will be repealed, and in its stead some act passed authorizing the sale of public timber at not less than its appraised value. There will be opposition to the repeal, but apparently there are votes enough in view of the statute books, if it can ever be brought to a vote.

Break Lock on Courtroom Door.

Judge Hanna, who was hearing the case, created a mild sensation when court convened after the noon recess. During the noon recess Judge Hanna had instructed the bailiffs to clear the room and open wide the windows. This was done, but so eager were the people to get vantage seats that some one broke the lock on the door, and when it came time to take up the session there were not chairs enough for the attorneys. Women had crowded behind the railing and were even perched on the steps leading to the judge's desk.

Could Not Find Pocket-Book.

Dora did not find her father's pocket-book, and she denied on cross-examination that she had ever learned whether it had been found. She told the jury that the last words her father spoke to her were just before he had put out the lamp before retiring. He was in bed and said to her: "I did not know the folks were coming."

Colored Students on Strike.

TALLADEGA, Ala., Jan. 22.—Over 100 students left Talladeega College (colored) today because a Southern white man, I. G. Parks, of this county, was employed as superintendent of the college farm. The students demanded his discharge and the president refused.
