Only 5000 Bales of Hops Left in the State, According to McNeff.

Jack McNeff, the hopman who came from Tacoma yesterday, says there are only but the quality of the remaining lote is poor the quantity of unsold stock in Oregon, but few of them believe it exceeds 20,000 balcs.

The market was moderately active yester day for a Monday, with a number of lots pass being reported from the country, eaying that as soon as the weather clears and the agents of the big houses have a hance to get out among their customers he expects to see a more favorable condition of the op market. "I was talking just yesterday with a man from San Francisco, and he takes the same view that I do," said Mr. Flint, ce, but I believe that there will be a move Pebruary that will greatly benefit the producers of hops. According to the present idea it is likely to come before the middle

the Market Opens. ere was no poultry market to speak of yesterday. A little stock had been carried over from Saturday, but the demand was light. Dealers hope for a better movement this week than last.

The egg market was steady with the demand and supply equal.

Butter was unchanged, top grades moving freely at former prices, but other kinds were not so readily taken and were quoted weak. Some storage butter is said to be offering on the street at low prices.

The violent advances in one or two stocks recurring frequently for some time past have given rise to a feeling of anxiety over the possibility of a corner which might bring the advance to an abrupt end. Anaconda Reading are pointed to by the conjectures of this kind. When they fell back during the morning dealings the effect was beneficial on the rost of the list. United States Steel seems to be restrained by the uncertainty over the company's policy regarding an early resump-tion of dividends. Amaigamated Copper and Union Pacific were the notable centers of profit-taking. St. Paul continued an aggressive advance begun Saturday and reports were in circulation that the plans for financing its Pacific Coast extension would soon be an-

Railroad officials were strikingly unanimou In their report of an easing off of the car estuation all over the country. The change was attributed more to the remarkably favorable weather for operating them than to any decline in traffic Foreign exchange today was strong. The sub-Treasury continued to yield large sums to the money market and rates were easy. The news of the coming redemption of $50,000,000 of the Japanese loan is of future consequence to the money markets in which large amounts of Japanese funds are on deposit, including New York. in this city. Britt has informed Gans that he desires first of all to meet Nelson again and will not take on another man until he has had another try at the Dane.

It will be remembered that Britt and Gans met in this city a year ago and the decision went to Gans on a foul, after Britt had all but put him out. Since then it has come to be generally agreed that the match was a fage. Britt's refusal to meet Gans is taken to mean that Britt considers the negro too shifty.

Those who watched Gans make a monkey of Sullivan last Friday say that Britt would not last more tnan a few minutes with the black man from a few minutes with the black man from Baltimore. Gans offered every inducement to Britt, including a 133-pound weight agreement, but the San Francisco; Mrs. P. Basty. Sweeney. Milwaukee; W. F. Butcher. Baker City; J. W. Morsbach. Chicago; E.
