

NO CHANGE IN HOPS

Market Holds Its Own, With Fair Business Passing.

GROWERS NOT CULTIVATING

Light Stocks Carried in Germany and England and Prices Firm, With an Upward Tendency.

Good Spring Demand.

HOPS—Prices steady with most trading between dealers.

WHEAT—Farmers holding for an advance.

FRUIT—Strong demand for fancy apples.

VEGETABLES—Advance expected in celery.

BUTTER—Top grades firm, others steady.

EGGS—Receipts temporarily lighter.

POULTRY—Big retailers not buying.

MEATS—Demand for pork, veal and mutton exceeds supply.

The hop market shows no change. It is neither stronger nor weaker than it was last week, and former prices are consequently maintained.

A private wire from San Francisco yesterday said the California market was lifeless, and reports from New York were also of a gloomy nature.

Business in the Borough has not been fully revived since the holidays, but the general tone of our market is quiet, and we anticipate little revival of activity until the conclusion of the approaching election.

AMERICAN HOMES AND GARDENS

No house, however well built, is absolutely proof against fire.

WHAT FIRST TO DO WHEN THE BLAZE BREAKS OUT.

When a fire breaks out in a house, the first thing to do is to get out.
