READY NOT FINED

He Was Willing to Plead Guilty.

LAW'S DELAY SAVES HIM

After a Wearisome Wait, He De manded His Cash Bail, Which Was Returned to Him by Clerk Hennessey.

gambling by selling pools on horse races, seems to have come off first best on the deal. As published yesterday morning, he got back his cash ball of $300, through Acting Chief of Police Grittmanner, and it now develops that Clerk Frank Hen-nessey "gave down" the coin without an order from Municipal Judge Cameron. An entirely new and very interesting feature developed because of this.

It now develops that Ready was willing to plead guilty to a charge of gambling, and was to have paid a fine of $25 or $30 into the Municipal Court. Arrangements had been made it is said, whereby this disposition was to be made of the case. Ready, however, wearled of waiting, de-manded his ball money when he learned the city had no ordinance to reach him, and Acting Chief Gritzmacher applied to Clerk Hennessey for the cash. Hennessey "forked it over," on the strength of the Chief's request, although, he now states, he felt he had no right to do so. Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald has been ill several days, and unable to attend to the duties of his office. This kept the Ready case tied up, which caused the under arrest to clamor for his bail. Mr. Fitzgerald was present in court yes-terday morning, and had not the cash been returned to Ready the previous day, the city probably would have been richer by

As the matter now stands. Portland is practically open for the selling of racing pools, the city having no ordinance to stop it, and the District Attorney not carring to interfere unless it becomes a nuisance.

Did Charles Stewart know that a pair of rubber boots belonging to Fred Brown were wrapped in three blankets that were sold by him to a second-hand dealer?
Upon the answer to this question depends whether Stewart will lose his liberty and have to serve a term in the County Jall. He was arrested by Detec-tive Snow, and arraigned yesterday. He swore that he did not steal the boots, and that he did not know they were wrapped in his blankets. The second-hand man present this morning to tell about

William Wrenn, charged with vagrancy was sentenced to 60 days in the City Jali. He was arrested by Detective Kerrigan. He served a term in the penitentiary for burglary and his presence is not desirable about the streets of the city.

R. W. Breyman, arrested by Patrolman Hoesiy, was released yesterday morning, there being no evidence to warrant the

C. A. Smith, proprietor of the Stafford Cafe, Thirteenth and Washington streets, was acquitted of violating the 1 o'clock closing ordinance. He was arrested by Patrolman Gittings, who, Judge Cameron gid, did his duty, but evidence sufficient

George Repp and Jack Peters, arrested by Patrolman Adams for violating the or-dinance prohibiting the shaughtering of animals in the corporate limits of the city, were arraigned and pleaded guilty. Repp was fined $16 and Peters was discharged, as it was his first offense, he declared

Francis Foss, charged with assault and battery was discharged, as the complain-ing witness, G. S. Brown, falled to ap-pear. The costs of $2.50 were taxed to him nd will be collected.

Must Not Drink or Smoke.

Captain of Detectives and Inspector of Police Bruin has issued an order to the members of the detective and plain-clothes staff, in which he warns all of the officers that they must keep themselves neat and presentable, must not drink or smoke and must not accept to-bacco or liquor gifts from saloonkeepers. The order goes on to state that in the members of the department have not de-ported themselves in the best possible manner, and that they must mend their ways. It also says that detectives must make full reports of progress on cases and that they must be gentlemanly in dealing with the public.
