and a native of Sydney, N. S. W.

For three hours after midnight the forward hold of the big troopship was a rearing furnace, whence firemen were borne in an almost continuous stream. Relays of men promptly stepped forward to take the places of those who were carried out unconscious.

Tons of high explosives were loaded in the after part of the vessel, and the heroic firefighters worked with the possibility ever before them that the flames would reach this compartment. Had this occurred, the whole city would probably have been shaken by a terrific explosion and no man aboard would have escaped.

Owing probably to the fact that an infernal machine was found in the bunkers chine was found in the bunkers

Mrs. Ervay Believes Messages Delivered by Albert E. Hill, Calling for Money, Did Not Come From Dead Husband.

EVERETT, Wash., Feb. 1 .- (Special.)-A bogus spook, declares Mrs. Harriet A. Ervay, of Edmonds, was the power that separated her from $180, and now she is after the spook's scalp. The alleged fraud, Albert E. Hill, also of Edmonds, was first called upon to face a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, but the case yesterday resolved itself into a civil ac-

The complaint alleges that Hill obtained the cash while representing himself as a spiritualist medium, capable of conveying messages to Mrs. Ervay's late and lamented husband, Emanuel M. Ervay, who left his widow an estate valued at $14,000. The information further charges that shortly following the husband's death Hill represented himself as a medium and at a seance which Mrs. Ervay attended he claimed to receive a message from the plaintiff's husband, directing her to pay Hill $1200, which she did. Another spirit message, delivered, it is claimed, by Hill, message, delivered, it is claimed, by Hill, instructed her to give him a power of attorney conveying absolute control of her property and business.
