Lee Chung Shoots Mah Shue Through Jealousy Over a Woman.

HE STABS THE GIRL ALSO

Murderer Is Captured and Wounded Woman Is Sent to Hospital, Where Her Injuries Are Pronounced Slight.

Mah Shue, a well-to-do Chinese, about 28 years of age, was murdered at 6:30 o'clock last evening by a fellow-countryman named Look Fung Cheng, also known as Lee Chung, and his companion, a pretty Chinese girl, was stabbed but not fatally injured by the murderer. Lee Chung was captured by Watchman Childress and lodged in the City Prison. According to the girl, who was present when the shooting occurred, the murdered man and his murderer became involved in a quarrel over her affections, and Chung pulled a revolver and fired three shots, two of which took effect in Mah Shue's body, penetrating the right breast just below the nipple, and passing through the lungs, lodged in the back. One of the bullets is believed to have pierced the heart, for death was almost instantaneous. After shooting Shue, Chung turned his attention to the girl, and stabbed her in the right breast with an eight-inch bowie knife, and after throwing his weapons in the adjoining bedroom, fled down stairs and into the street.

TRIES TO KILL GARDNER

W. N. Matlock Takes Two Shots at Him.

Clayton Gardner, of 47 1/2 Third street, ejected W. N. Matlock from the New Rosamond House, located at that number, at 2:35 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and Matlock hurried to the Reliable Loan Office, secured a loaded revolver, returned to the house and began firing at Gardner. He had but time to shoot twice when Patrol Driver Isaacs, attached to man named Look Fung Cheng, also known as Lee Chung, and his companion, a pretty Chinese girl, was stabbed but not fatally injured by the murderer. Lee Chung was captured by Watchman Childress and lodged in the City Prison. According to the girl, who was present when the shooting occurred, the murdered man and his murderer became involved in a quarrel over her affections, and Chung pulled a revolver and fired three shots, two of which took effect in Mah Shue's body, penetrating the right breast just below the nipple, and passing through the lungs, lodged in the back. One of the bullets is believed to have pierced the heart, for death was almost instantaneous. After shooting Shue, Chung turned his attention to the girl, and stabbed her in the right breast with an eight-inch bowie knife, and after throwing his weapons in the adjoining bedroom, fled down stairs and into the street.

the first relief of police, rushed in and took both men to headquarters. Matlock was locked up on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, and spent the night in jail, as he could not furnish bail of $200. Gardner was not injured, but considers his escape miraculous. He thinks he missed death by a very narrow margin. As soon as he saw Matlock approaching him with the weapon, he closed in on him and tried to wrench it from Matlock's hand. This he was unable to do until two shots had been fired. Driver Isaacs changed to be passing, and without waiting to draw his revolver rushed in and placed both men under arrest. His act was praised by his superior officers and those who witnessed it. Matlock was drinking yesterday, and was said to be quarrelsome. He persisted in remaining in the hotel and causing a disturbance, and Mrs. Levin had Gardner eject him. This was what angered Matlock. Late last night Mrs. Matlock called at police headquarters and talked with her husband, after which she called on Mayor W. F. Matlock, of Pendleton, in an effort to secure bail. The case will come up this morning in the Municipal Court.

Quong Gee Follows Murderer.

Quong Gee, a friend of the dead man having rooms up stairs, heard the shooting and rushed down stairs, and seeing Chung running, gave chase and was almost abreast of the murderer when Clarence Childress intercepted the fleeing man, Quong told Childress of the shooting, and that Chung was probably the man who had done it, and the watchman escorted both to the station, where Chung was searched and locked up. Jailer Robeson notified the prisoner in an effort to wipe his left hand, and seeing him by that wrist, examined the hand, and found the palm to be powder-burned and to have several spots of blood on the fingers.

APPROPRIATE MUCH WATER

E. B. Colwell Files Notice for Electrical Corporation.

Notice of appropriation of 100,000 miners' inches of the waters of the Sandy River to furnish electrical power and energy for light and other purposes was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by E. B. Colwell. The appropriation is to take a continuous flow of 10,000 cubic feet of water a minute over and past a point near the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of section 25, township 1 south, range 4 east, in Clackamas County.

Victim Is Wealthy.

The dead man is supposed to have been wealthy, and is said to have owned several hog farms in the Willamette Valley. His slayer worked for the Chinese firm of Hop Sing Hong, at Second and Pine streets.

Two Criminal Informations Filed.

District Attorney Manning yesterday filed an information against Thomas Price in the State Circuit Court, charging him with holding up George McDonald at the muzzle of a revolver on the night of February 1, and taking from him $2. The extreme penalty for this offense is imprisonment in the penitentiary for 20 years.

Findings in Murder Case.

Watchman Clarence Childress, the man who effected the capture of the murderer, is a former special policeman, who was deposed by Mayor Lane in order to make room for his pet, the former gambler, Dan Wagon. Childress recently captured a burglar, who was found guilty and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.
