WANT A COMMISSIONER.-At a meeting held in Estacada, F. J. Harkenrider was indersed for Commissioner from that part of Clackamas County. At this meeting there were present people from Spring-water, Eagle Creek, George and Estacada water, Eagle Creek, George and Estacada. Mr. Harkenrider, who received the indorsement of the people of that section, is well known there and popular enough to get a unanimous indorsement. He has lived in that neighborhood for the past 23 years and is familiar with the wants of that portion of the county. C. Schuebel, of Oregon City, was present at this citizens' meeting, and after its work was completed be made some remarks on the completed he made some remarks on the direct primary law. He urged that every voter should register and cast a ballot at the primaries. He said that this was the first trial of the new law in Oregon, and that the only way to find out whether it is what its verteal is for everyone to it is what is wanted is for everyone to register and vote at the nominating pri-maries and at the general election.

MASS MEETING MONDAY EVENING .- A mass meeting of the citizens of the Penin-sula has been called for Monday evening by the University Board of Trade to lay plans for the improvement campaign that is to be inaugurated in that portion of the city A committee is preparing a pro-gramme for that occasion, by which it is hoped to arouse enthusiasm in the movement. It is proposed to inaugurate a movement for the improvement of streets and for fire protection. The latter is not expected before streets are improved, and the improvement of streets will be one of the main subjects to be discussed at this meeting. W. J. Peddicord is president: R. R. EXPENSIVE DRAIN CULVERY.-The drain culvert under Grand avenue, between East Stark and Oak streets, to carry the water under the embankment, was completed yeaterday. It is over 200 feet long and in the clear is four feet square. It was built of timbers lixit, and resus on a solid foundation of piles to prevent settling under the great weight of the earth fill. In driving piles it was found that the solid bottom was some distance below the surface. Work has gone forward or this culvert for about a month, and it cost between $1200 and $1500. Everything is now ready for the Pacific Bridge Company to begin the fill. The fill on East Morrison street is practically completed, it only remaining to put on the finishing touches between East Water and First streets. The dump cars will be trans-ferred to the job on Grand avenue. This embankment will be a high one, and at the base it will spread out over 150 feet. Just how much time it will take to com-piete this embankment is not yet known, but it will not likely be under 69 days. Street cars will cease to be operated on Grand avenue north from East Morriso after today.

QUEER LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Prosecuting Attorney Wants Case Against Accused Woman Dismissed, but Judge Cameron Refuses the Request.

Captain H. W. Drohn, aged 54 years, is the price of a modest meal or the where withal to buy a night's lodging. Thre months ago he arrived here with $4300, and diamonds worth probably as much more.

Pascination for a woman brought about his plight, reducing him to ruin and poverty. He was formerly in the Government service in Alaska, and is widely known service in Alaska, and is widely known through the Northwest and in various parts of California. He is temporarily sojourning with an old friend, who is sheltering him in his time of trouble. When District Attorney Manning filed not a true bill in the Circuit Court, in the case of the State of Oregon against Laura.

Gassage, he struck a staggering blow to aged Captain Drohn, for the latter had caused the woman's arrest on the charge of larceny, he accusing her of robbing him of his money and jewels since he met her, last November, in a Seattle restaurant.

Proceedings in Court.

effort was made in the Municipal Court. Wednesday morning, to dismiss the case against Mrs. Gassage, who is also known as Williams, but Judge Cameron held her to the grand jury, in spite of a motion to the contrary, made by Deputy District Attorney Brand. His Honor de clared in the most emphatic manner that he believed the defendant guilty of robbing Captain Drohn, and took the extraor dinary course of binding her over, in the face of the motion of the District Attor-

District Attorney Manning heard the vidence in the case, as he had the witsesses before him in his office, and he de lared that the case would fail, if laid before a jury. Captain Drohn was represented by Attorney H. G. King, who acted as private prosecutor until Wednesday morning, at which time he left his client and said he would withdraw from the case because he and Deputy District Attorney Brand could not agree on the law, or reach a settle ent out of court. This left the old man without counsel, and when Mr. Brand moved to dismiss the criminal action, Captain Drohn was dumfounded. Judge Cameron, however, refused to grant the motion, as he said he was satisfied of the woman's guilt.

Claims Money as Fee.

John F. Watts, who insulted Judge Cam eron because he refused to become a party to the scheme to dismiss, represented Mrs. Gazzage. She was charged with the lar eny of $1100, given into her keeping for the purpose of buying a rooming-house. The agreement was that if she failed to purchase, she would return the money. She did not purchase, but kept the money Watts go! in ahead of a garnishment ac tion against $700 of the money that was in a safe, and claimed it as his "fee."

Attorney Watte also made all endeavor to secure from Clerk Honnessey, of the Municipal Court, $1250 of ball money, put up for the release of Mrs. Gassage, it is said, but Hennessey refused to give it to him, and turned him down. Yesterday the man who put up the ball had it returned to him, and Watts is out of it, Civil suits are pending in Justice Reid's court, but it is said that there is little hope of Captain Drohn getting back any

GO TO DALLAS, TEX.

Bishops of the Methodist Episcopa Church Are Urging Him to Accept Congregation's Offer.

A flattering offer has been extended Rev. T. B. Ford, now serving his second year as pastor of the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal Church. He has been invited to Dallas, Tex., where the pulpit of Taber-nacle Church is open to him. A salary of $2000 a year goes with the position, in case he accepts. He will make definite announcement as to his decision Sunday Bishops John M. Waldon and Henry

He is considering the matter, in connection with the memthe matter, if connection with the mem-bors of his present pastorate. He states he is rather inclined to reject the proposi-tion; in fact, he says, he thought some time ago that all overtures were past and the whole thing dropped, as he declined to think of leaving Portland. Yesterday morning, however, a telegram reached him, extending again the offer and saying $2000 a year would be his salary if he would come.

"I do not know what course to pursue," said Dr. Ford, yesterday. "It is a matter that requires careful consideration. It would involve an exchange of pulpits, as if I accepted the Dallas pastorate, the minister now in charge would have to

Dr. Ford is president of the Ministerial Association of Portland. He has been engaged in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Northwest many years, serving a large portion of the time in the capacity of presiding elder, a very important office. He is one of the most important office. He is one of the most widely known men in the denomination, and for years has been the acknowledged floor leader at the annual sessions of the the Oregon conference. It is said he would have been elected to the bishopric, in all probability, had he been present at the last general conference at Los Angeles. He was seriously injured, and could not attend.

EXECUTIVE BOARD PASSES UP-ON APPLICATION.

Contracts for Sewer Work Awarded Subject to Approval of the City Auditor.

Under a recent rule of the Executive Under a recent rule of the Executive Board touching upon the respective rights of the two rival local telephone companies, an agreement was reached whereby it became obligatory upon the part of the Home Telephone Company to serve notice a few days in advance on the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company of its intention to place poles and erect telephone wires on any of the streets occupied by the latter, and to file a man with the by the latter, and to file a map with the City Engineer showing the exact location of each pole.

In accordance with this idea, maps and plans were filed by the Home Telephone plans were filed by the Home Telephone Company, and the streets committee of the Executive Board yesterday reported to the body its approval thereof. Thomas G. Greene. C. A. Cogswell and other members raised the point, however, that the indorsement of the streets committee was not sufficient to carry with it the approval of every street designated, and suggested suspension of action on the report until it was determined whether the city had jurwas determined whether the city had jurissiction over some of the rights of way.

Mr. Greene stated that he was personally aware of instances where the municipality had consented to the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company and the Portland General Electric Company putting their poles on private property, with the result that civil suits were now pending against these corporations, and it was the result that civil suits were now penu-ing against these corporations, and it was with the view of avoiding litigation that he suggested the adoption of the report of the streets committee, subject to revision in cases where it was shown the city had no interest. The following resolution was thereupon, adoned:

thereupon adopted:

"That the report of the street committee respecting the maps and plans of the Home Telephone Company be approved and confirmed, provided that this approval and confirmation be limited to such streets and alleys as have been duly dedicated to public use, but shall not extend to any street or alley in any addition or subdi-vision of the city wherein the dedication does not anthorize or permit the dedication does not authorize or permit the use of any street or alley for the erection or construction of poles, wires or conduits."

Bids for sewers and street improvements were opened: Sewer in Washington street, J. B. Stemmons, $12,082.06; J. Keating, $11,204.20; Harry Howard, $11,006.02; K. G. Lundstrom, $10,388.15; Standard Construction Company, $2681.20.

City Engineer Taylor explained that, inasmuch as the present weather was propitious, it was advisable to award the bids for the Washington and Oak-street sewers without delay, in order that the contractors might go to work at once. The board thereupon decided to award the construction of the Washington-street sewer to the Standard Construction Company for 1895.19, and that of Oak street to J. Keating for 1806.40, providing the City Auditor pronounced the bids regular.

A resolution was also adopted requesting the Council to provide funds sufficient to install the chemical engine company, now at Highland, at Mississippi avenue and Shaver street, for the better protection of Multnomah Addition. This action was the culmination of a long fight that has been made by residents of the district to secure the desired relief.

Chief Campbell explained that no fire escapes had yet been installed on the Shaver school, for the reason that Director Wittenberg was now in San Francisco studying conditions relative to a cylindrical contrivance in service there which it was thought might be adopted locally.

W. G. McPherson, a member of the board, was given a 60 days' leave of absence.
