MALLEY IS OUT FOR SHERIFF

Hopes to Beat Tom Word for Nomination at the Primaries.

WILL MAKE STRONG RUN

Word Adherents Try to Coax Him Not to Enter Race, but Malley Refuses to Budge, and Will File Petition.

M. J. Malley came out yesterday as the rival of Tom Word for the Democratic on for Sheriff, on an anti-gambling, law-enforcement, business-method

RIVAL CANDIDATES FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION AS SHERIFF

M. J. Malley

Malley insisting that, since Word had tion for member of the Legislature come out first, the party should give him. He pledges himself to vote for the peocome out first, the party should give him an open field, and that all the brethren should try to boost him along instead of bringing out another candidate. But Malley refused to budge, and when five of the eight warhorses—A. E. Beam, E. Ver-steeg, William Foley, Charles Petrain and General Edward Kilifeather—called on him at his grocery store on Third atrect, Candidate Malley said;

Announces His Candidacy.

"Gentlemen I shall be a candidate, and should I be nominated and elected I shall give the Sheriff's office the very best addistration that I know how. I shall as close attention to business details as I conduct my own affairs in this store. There will be no open gambling while I am Sheriff, and I shall enforce the laws with all the energy that I possess. For a long time I was averse to entering this contest, but I have been urged by so many persons to make the run and so many of my fellow-Democrata hold it up to me as my duty to the Democratic party, that I have consented to make the Thomas Not a Candidate.

He said: "A month ago I made this same statement at an open meeting of the same statement at an open meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club. As a grand juror I supported Mr. Word's administration, and I purpose voting for him in the primaries," referring by this remark to the famous grand jury which found an indictment against Mayor Williams for failure to enforce the law against gambling, an indictment which was dismissed.

Thus far Mr. Thomas' remarks could be interpreted as favoring Mr. Word, but half an hour later, when he spoke for publication, they had a chilliness about th none other to enter the primaries.

Yes, Mr. Thomas had heard of Mr. Van Zante's refusal.

'Mr. Word's boomers think it is unfair for the clubs to appoint a committee to seek out additional candidates for Sher-iff, since Mr. Word declared his candidacy Is this contention borne out by universal proceeding, and is the proeding of this committee irregular?" "No; when I was a candidate one year ago for the Democratic nomination for Mayor, the clubs appointed a like committee, ostensibly to fill out the ticket, but really to encourage Dr. Lane to enter the primaries against me." "Do you recall the members of that

"Yes, as I remember, the Multnomah Club was represented by John Van Zante. Thomas Greene and Mark O'Neill, and the Young Men's Club by L. T. Peery, S. C. Armitage and W. H. Grafton."

Van Zante, as now, was chairman of the County Central Committee, yet did not, as now, refuse to serve. Thomas Greene and L. T. Peery are now members of Mayor Lane's Executive Board. Mark O'Neill is a member of the committee this year, as he was last; likewise S. C. Ar-mitage. W. H. Grafton is Word's jaller. "If it was proper for a committee to undertake such a mission at that time," Mr. Thomas was asked, "do you think It proper for a like committee to do the same thing now?" But Mr. Thomas answered not.

W. H. Grindstaff's Refusal.

W. H. Grindstaff was next on the calling list of the committee, and the five warhorses thereof besought him to run also. But Mr. Grindstaff declined, saying that his business would not permit.

Thus ended the committee's labors for the day. It could now report to the whole.

CHILD BURNED' TO DEATH

Daughter of Henry Schultz, of Brower, Plays With Fire.

The 3-year-old daughter of Henry Schultz, living at Brower, east of the Sandy River, was burned to death Friday. as the result of an unfortunate accident Mr. and Mrs. Schultz were out doing the milking in the morning, and when left alone the little child began playing with fire, with the result that her clothes caught. She then ran, with the flames caught. She then ran, with the flames enveloping her and jumped into bed, which also was set on fire. The timely arrival of the parents saved the house from being destroyed. The child lived only about three hours after having been burned.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, and the interment was at Mountain View.

Charged With Murder While Committing Robbery of Barroom.

PROSECUTOR'S STATEMENT

Defense Will Try to Prove That Rassman and a Confederate Have Tried to Place Blame

D. C. Kelly is on trial for his life in Judge Cicland's court on a charge of having shot and killed Thomas Flemmings, an old man, on the night of December 15 last, at the Centennial Hotel. 61 Sherlock street. The murder was the culmination of a robbery, and Henry Rassman, a youth, 13 years old, has confessed that he was one of the participants, and that Kelly fired the fatal shot. Rassman was arrested in Tacoma and brought back to Portland, and he will appear as a witness against Kelly. Under the statute, both, if guilty of robbery which taking of a human life, can be hanged, taking of his having guilty of robbery which resulted in the but Rassman, in view of his he agreed to testify for the state, will be permitted to escape with a penitentiary

Kelly is 22 years old, of medium build, ar' having followed the sea for a living, is known as "Sailor Kelly." and because the backs of his hands are heavily tattooed he is also called "Tattoo Kelly" by acquaintances. Letters written by him show that he is possessed of a good education. During the proceedings yesterday his actions were cool and commonplace, and one could not detect the slightest emotion in his countenance. He is of medium height and build, dark hair and mustache. He was well and neatly

The jury selected to try the case is sons; David L. Ambier, R. D. Depue, J. O. Downing, J. P. Coulter, Alex. Altkin, A. Munson, P. A. Eddy, W. C. Griebel, A. K. Watson, Edgar Allen, H. W. Park-er, J. K. Manning.

District Attorney Manning is conducting the prosecution, assisted by his deputy, Mr. Adams. John A. Jeffrey, an attorney, formerly of Ashland and Salem, appears as counsel for the defense.

Mr. Adams made the opening statement to the jury for the state. He stated that Rassman had confessed, and would testify that Kelly fired the shot which killed Flemmings. Kelly wore gloves to conceal the tattoo marks on his hands. These gloves belonged to Rassman, and one finper was turned back and sewed up be-cause Rassman was minus a finger on of his hands. The gloves, Mr. Adams said, were found in Kelly's room, also other articles, which will be used as evidence against him. Mr. Adams further stated that Kelly, since his arrest, told an offithat Kelly, since his arrest, told an other cer that the man who stood by the doof wore the gloves and did the shooting, which statement the attorney said shows Kelly was present when the murder was was a conspiracy on the part of Rassman, a self-confessed murderer, and detectives. "It was time for the officers to make a record. Somebody had to be convicted, and they got this boy, 15 years old, to and they got this boy. Is years on, to come in here and tell this story." Mr. Jeffrey further asserted that Kelly was indisposed on the night of the robbery, and retired to bed early. "The guilty man is the witness who will appear before you and some one else, and the officers taid Kelly so," counsel said, in concluding his remarks.

At the time of the robbery Flemmings ran out of the barroom to the street, and struck at one of the robbers as he emerged from the place after the robberyhad been completed. The robber then she Flemmings. S. L. Rousch, who resisted in the barroom, was shot through the John Kingsley, a laborer, and W. A. Whitten, the bartender, testified or whitten, the bartender, testined concern-ing the affair. Trial of Kern and Semler.

At the trial yesterday of A. E. Kern and Dr. Paul J. A. Semler for attempting to extort $500 from Meler & Frank Co., Judge George refused to allow the prose-cution to call witnesses to testify that Kern and Semier had been guilty of similar conduct toward others. The court decided, however, that witnesses might testify that the reputation of the defants for truth and veracity was bad, it such witnesses could be found. The de-fendants will also be permitted to call witnesses who will testify that their rep-utation is good.

Witnesses examined yesterday for the defense were: H. Loeding, Otto Doehring, W. P. Keller, C. J. Schnabel, Miss E. Meacham, Lulu Webb, Anna Moore and Rev. C. Beuchler, The last-named scored Rev. C.
