POLICE MAKE A GRAVE BLUNDER

Had Northern Pacific Hold-Up in Custody for a Time in Portland.

ALLOWED THE MAN TO GO

Word Came From Tacoma Too Late, as the Prisoner Had Been Released and Had Disappeared.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 18 .- (Special.)-TACOMA, Wash, Feb. is.—(Special.)— Northern Pacific and Tacoma detectives are scouring the country for one of the men implicated in the recent Northern Pacific hold-up. It is believed he will be captured, although a big blunder, it is said here, was made by the Portland police department. One of the nien implicated in the hold-up was captured by Portland detectives Wednesday night, but was released because the authorities but was released because the authorities there thought there was no evidence against him. Two hours afterward, it is eid, absolute evidence was obtained that he right man had been captured. He was given a severe sweating, but was not "broken down." After his release he left the city and is said to be in this locality. On his re-lease from the Portland jall he is known to have gone to a railroad camp not far from the city and to have threatened to kill an alleged "stool pigeon," who he said had "peached." On information from Portland it was learned that the right rorisind it was learned that the fight man had been captured and word was sent to hold the man under all considerations. Realizing the blunder that had been made, detectives, it is said, were sent out in all directions in an effort to capture the man. He, however, had escaped.

It is believed that he will be captured. Three employes of the Northern Pacific here believe they have trace of the fugi-tive. Through a railroad man at one of the construction camps near Portland information has been obtained which will probably lead to the train robber's ar-rest. He has confessed to several so-"pals" that he was the leader of the gang who held up the train. His the arrest and were afterwards threat-ened with death because they had tried to have him "landed."

AT THE THEATERS What the Press Agents Say.

"WOODLAND" TONIGHT.

Pixley and Luder's Musical Forest Fantasy Offered at Marquam.

Beginning tonight at the Marquam Grand Theater, Henry W. Savage offers Pixley & Luders' musical forest fantasy, "Woodland." for an engagement of three nights. The company that appears at the Marquam tonight is the only one singing this opera. The story of "Woodland" deals with the birds of the forest and not a single specimen of the genus forest and not a single specimen of the genus home obtrudes his presence into the company of the feathered songsters. The spirit of the piece is one of dainty joyousness, and the pass, both manually and activitied by distinctly novel effects. The cast provided by Mr. Savage for the interpretation of this most quaint musical conceit is a strong one and includes such well-known players as Harry Butger, who has the principles of the principle of the princi cipal comedy role, that of a bibulous and bogus Lyre Bird, with a fondness for brandled cherries and a penchant for stealing thrones. Associated with him are dainty little Miss Helen Hale, Walter Lawrence, Sherman Wade, Louis Casavant, Charles W. Meyer, John Donohue, Miss Magda Dahl, Miss Ida Mulle, Miss Louise Toxler, Miss Greta Risley, Miss Bertyne Mortimer, Miss Mattie Nichols, Miss Eva Fallon and some three-score of young women who will be seen in score of young women who will be seen in the choruses and who, se they are all sup-posed to represent some feathered denizes of the forest, were selected because of their dain-tiness. heavity and good singing voices. Cur-tain at 8:15 o'clock. Carriages at 10:50.

Baker.

Tonight and all this week the attraction at the Baker will be the famous Baltimore Beau-ties' Burlesquers, who opened yesterday to two houses that were packed to the doors. Burlesque is indeed popular in Portland, and why not? For it appeals to all the lighter side of life, its nonsense, buffoonery and love for pretty things. There are beautiful musical and chorus numbers and pretty girls every where. The comedy is a scream and the Bal-timore Beauties at the Baker this week should do capacity business at every performance Remember the bargain-day matines Wedness

Empire.

People who attend the Empire this week will get a gilmpse of the real inside life of the noted moonshiners in the Kentucky moun-tains. The life is pictured as nearly true to nature as is possible to do on the stary, and this thrilling melodrama has always been a success largely for this reason. Filled with adventure and telling a romantic tale of love and treachery, it appeals to every one.

ADVANCE SALE TOMORROW

"Way Down East" at the Marquam Next Thursday, February 22.

Tomorrow (Tuesday) morning at 16 o'clock the advance sate of seats will open for the famous New England play. "Way Down East," which comes to the Marquam Grand Theater next Thursday, Friday. Saturday nights, February 22, 23, 24, with a special matinee Saturday. The simplicity of the story appeals to everybody, the broad fun of the inimitable Hi Holler and the comedy of the other characters, the realism of the various scenes, the wonderful simulation of the blizard, the strength of the company, and the power of the third-act scene—these things in some measure will tell why "Way Down Plast" fills the theaters season after season. Added to this is the fact that the cast is kept up to its original standard of excellence, while the preduction is made more elaborate each sucits original standard of excellence, while the production is made more elaborate each suc-

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS

This afternoon the Star will open a new list of vaudeville features, headed by that great wire act of the Haviland Trio. A human telephone is Del-a-phone. His imitations are marvelously realistic. Eddle Dontions are marvelously realistic. Eddie Don-lan, who has the reputation of having made the world laugh, will try some of his hest jokes and stories on Portlanders this week. De Rosetta and Excella, women gun spinners, have a novelty act with which they never fall to make a hit. John J. Welch, the man in white, is a storyteller and all the tales he tells and all the songs he sings are of his own manufacture. Will C. Hoyt with a ballad and the Staroscope with new motion pictures complete the bill.

the Grand this week. Foremost on the list is dainty Adele Purvin Ouri, the woman who originated the famous spherical dance. She is assisted by Flora Althorpe, as the ace of spades. There are two playlets on the list. The first is by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Young and is called "A Homespun Wooing"; the second is "Only a Joke," by Emmonds, Emerson and Edmunds. Another headliner is Tsuda, the balancing Jap. Miss Emily Nice will render catchy source and Master Harold will render catchy source and Master Harold. will resider catchy songs and Master Harold Hoff will sing a new polychrome ballad. The Grandiscope has a funny film. The new bill starts this afternoon.

Pantages.

A long programme, made up of the best available acts, is what Pantages will offer during the seven days commencing today. Pirst in line is Gilbert Saroni, the comedian, with his own company, in a roaring farce, Then there is another great comedy company, the Drakes, in the convulsing farce, "Mo-ning an Helress." Casear and Company are ning an Heiress." Casear and Company are premier magicians and contifers: La Bose, the Tyroisan yodier, has a pleasing act; Myrtie Franks, the winning southette, has made a big hit claewhere with her singing dog: Leo White has prepared a new illustrated ballad and the biograph will show two great pictures. "A Tragedy on a Train" and "Beware, My Father Comes."

BRITT CALLS GANS LIAR

DECLARES COLORED FIGHTER WANTS ANOTHER FIGHT.

The Allegation Made That the Two Pugilists Pulled Off Fake to Profit by Betting Pool.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.-Replying to SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Replying to the allegation of Joe Gans that the fight between himself and Jimmy Britt, in this city in October, 1994, was a fake affair, Britt says today:

"Gans' statement that the fight was fixed is nothing new, as he has many times before intimated that the go was a fake. I characterize such a statement as a lie, and a most contemptible lie at that.

world against Gans, and I ask the public to judge accordingly.

"I suppose that this open declaration from Gans is a move by him to force me to fight him again. I will never fight Joe Gans again. I might possibly have considered a return match before, but nownever. He has killed any chance he ever had for a return match."

According to a confession made by Joe Gans last night, the fight of October 21, 1994, between himself and Jimmy Britt was a pre-arranged take, which was accompanied by a betting pool, engineered, it is alleged, by Al Herford, the manager of Gans, and Willie Britt, brother of the San Francisco boxer. Gans said that at first the customary agreement was signed and he was working earnestly to get him-and he was working earnestly to get him-self in shape.

Game further elleges that four days be-fore the fight Herford came to him and told him he was to "lay down." Gams said he protested, and that Herford said:

"I have placed $000 on this match, and if you fall me, I am ruined. Furthermore, if you double-cross me you will get only 10 per cent of the receipts. That is the arrangement made between Willie Britt and myself."

Gans to win. The winnings, Gans alleged, were divided between Herford and the Britts. Gans' statement comes as the re-sult of some statements made by Britt reflecting on Gans and refusing to enter Flourishing a big revolver and threatening to shoot up the town, C. E. Gaddis was taken into custody at Third and Washington streets yesterday afternoon by a policeman, who heard the threats of the man while pedestrians scattered to get off the street. Gaddis was taken to the station, where a second revolver as large as the one he carried in his hand was found in his pockets. A physician was summoned, who pronounced Gaddis insane. He was turned over to the authorities at one of the city sanitariums.

PLANS MODEL CITY

Rev. H. S. Wallace Discusses His Project.

SAYS MONEY IS ASSURED

In Municipality of Co-operative Federation There will be no Drinking and Smoking Will Not Be Tolerated on Streets.

Rev. H. S. Wallace, founder of the Cooperative Christian Federation, is of the opinion that not the slightest difficulty will be experienced in the floating of the bouds which will be issued by the organization. He believes that within five years the ambition of his life will have been realized, which would mean that in the heart of the Willamette Valley would stand a perfect city with a population of 50.000. The establishment of several smaller towns in Eastern Oregon is also contemplated. It is his plan to have the city in the Willamette Valley connected with Ontario by an electric line.

with Ontario by an electric line.

To do all this will necessitate the expenditure of $50,000,000. About $15,000,000 of this would be consumed in the building of the line across the state. He says the latter amount has been practically secured. Negotiations have been entered into with New York parties and he says the deal is virtually closed.

Rev. Dr. Wallace stated Saturday that when he was in the East he talked with many of the most prominent men of wealth in the United States. He adds that one and all were greatly impressed with the merits of the proposed under-taking, and that the bonds will find a

declares that it would be just as easy to secure $100,000,000 as $50,000,000, so feasible is the project from the standpoint of an investor. He will return to New York the first part of next month to attend to business connected with the Federation. Rev. Dr. Wallace says that the line to Ontario will be completed within two years, but is not prepared to state just when actual work will begin. How Money Will Be Spent.

"We expect to provide employment for 10,000 men when the new city is built," said Rev. Dr. Wallace yesterday afternoon. "As most of these men will have families, this will give us from 40,000 to 50,000 persons. Only those who have accepted the ethics of Christianity will be given employment and allowed to live in

"But it must be understood that our federation is not sectarian. It does not matter what creed they believe or what church they belong to, those who believe and live the teachings of the Bible may become a part of our city. We shall have no saloons and smoking will not be per-mitted on the streets. The men, if they so desire, may smoke at their homes, but not in public "We propose to solve the solution of the differences between capital and labor. Those we employ will receive the cur rent wage, and if the city as a whole proves profitable, as it undoubtedly will. they will receive part of the surplus money. The bond owners will receive above the interest on their 5 per cent bonds one-fourth of the profits, and the workers will receive the rest. The surplus money will be equally divided among all those who live in the city but the all those who live in the city, but the wages received will not be alike. Some men are more profitable than others, and therefore deserve better wages."

ROW OVER "KID" MOHLER Seattle Signs Him, but San Francisco

The Seattle and San Francisco Clubs in the Pacific Coast League are likely to become involved in a wordy war, as were the Portland and Seattle Clubs over the services of Jay Hughes last year. The cause of the threatened year. The cause of the investence controversy is the signing of "Kid" Mohler by Manager Russ Hall. of the Siwash aggregation. Mohler, it seems, had a non-reserve contract with the Seals last season, and some time ago sent his terms to Henry Harris, which was just before that worthy retired from baseball. Since that time Russ Hall seems to have stolen a march on the San Francisco club by signing the second baseman, for he claims to have the dobuments in his possession.

Andy Clunie, the new owner of the Seals, claims that Seattle had no right to dicker with Mohier while he was in correspondence with the San Francisco Club

Manager McCredie stated Yesterday that no contract had been sent Donahue, and that the only claim the local cinb has on his services is the fact club has on his services is the fact that they purchased him from the Syracuse team of the New York State League.
