

A HUNDRED SALES MAY COME AND GO, BUT THE FAME OF THIS GREAT SALE WILL STILL LIVE ON

THE CHICAGO

69, 71, 73 THIRD, BETWEEN OAK AND PINE STREETS

THE BIG STORE IN THE MIDDLE OF THE BLOCK

Has consummated arrangements with the United States National Bank for a line of general improvement to accommodate the growing business of the bank and the unparalleled rapid growth of THE CHICAGO. The loss has been determined upon, and upwards of $60,000 worth of medium and Spring weights, Men's Boys' and Children's Suits, Coats, Overcoats, Cravenettes, Pants, Hats, Shoes and Furnishing Goods will be placed on a Sacrifice Sale at an average reduction of 40c on the dollar, contract goods excepted. This includes all stock on hand and Spring goods which may arrive, even goods in process of manufacture will be placed on the sacrifice sale at an actual loss. The highest standard of goods to be found in the markets of America are included in this great stock. While the workmen are in possession of the premises our selling space will be reduced 2000 square feet—heroic and desperate measures—and believing the first loss is the best, tomorrow morning at 9 A. M. we will throw open our doors to the public to
