Valuable MSS. Found in Old Shoes.

Harper's.

Fragments of manuscripts to the number of 800 have recently been found in Turfan, in Chinese Turkestan, which are Turisn, in Chiasse Turkestan, which are remnants of the long-lost Manichean literature, the lithic written by Mani, who is associated with Jesus in the religion known as Manicheism. Some of these fragments were written on paper, one on silk, and a few on white kid. Those on kid were found in old shoes, in which they had been used as inner soles. The work on the MSS, included miniatures, and was done with exquisite skill. The and was done with exquisite skill. The find is a very important one. Professor Bloomfield gives extracts from the MSS, which are similar in import to the text of the Christian Bible.
