LONDON, March 12 .- The correspondent Chairman Tawney, of the appropriation committee, estimates it will take ten days to dispose of the bill. Its consideration of the Tribune at Hongkong says that Captain Ward, commanding a detachment of 40 artillerymen, will proceed to Pekin at the end of the month to guard the will begin Tuesday, Monday being the District of Columbia day, with nine local bilis to be disposed of. Aside from the main question of diversion of appro Taotal Wen, confidential secretary of priations, the bill carries a provision for the Viceroy of Canton, in an interview, said he did not think the anti-foreign movement in the south was serious, and decreasing the pay of Government clerks when they reach 65 years of age, and, further, that after 1913 no clerk shall be dismissed the idea of trouble at Pekin. ALLOT COLVILLE RESERVE

Bill Will Pass Opening Remainder of South Half to Settler#.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash-ington, March 11.-There is every reason to believe that Congress will pass the bill may be provided by the Secretary of the ington, March II.-There is every reason to believe that Congress will pass the bill now pending before both houses authoriz-ing the opening to settlement of the un-allotted lands of the south half of the Colville Indian reservation. In Eastern Washington. A bill for this purpose was pressed in the last Congress, but was han-dicapped by a provision that the Colvilles should be paid $1,500,000 for land which they had previously relinquished in the north half of their reservation. The pend-ing bill does not contain this provision they had previously relinquished in the north half of their reservation. The pend-ing bill does not contain this provision, though a special bill has been introduced to pay this claim. There is less prospect of its passage. The bill most likely to pass provides for the survey of the lands, and, when the survey is completed, that so acres shall be allotted to each man, woman and child. The remainder of the lands, shall be classified under the direc-tion of the Secretary of the Interior as irrigable lands, grazing lands, timber lands, mineral lands or arid lands, and the bill provides for the lands classed as min-eral lands, which need not be appraised. The timber lands are to be disposed of yo its be disposed of under the general pro-visions of the mineral selection shall be permitted upon any lands allotted in sec-tion provided for in the bill is to be con-sidered as only prima facle evidence to be disposed of under the general pro-visions of the inflians, and the classifies that no mineral selection shall be permitted upon any lands allotted in sec-tion provided for in the bill is to be con-sidered as only prima facle evidence of the lands. The other lands are to be disposed of under the bomestead laws at not less that the bill in this reservation should be opened. There are nearly 1500,000 acres of land in the north central part of the state of Washington, and this land is not being utilized by any one except for general grazing purposes. In making this charge he bo expended for their benefit, by direc-tion of the Secretary of the Interior, in "iberalism. In making this charge he assumes that our religious life is deca-dent, and implies that it is more so here than in those sections where liberalism does not predominate. Each of these assumptions is open to question, but granting their accuracy it does not fol-low that this decadence is due to liber. the education and improvement of said Indians and in the purchase of stock cat-tic, horse teams harness, wagons, mow-ing machines, horserakes, threshing machines and agricultural implements for issue to said Indians and for the pur-chase of material for the construction of low that this decadency is due to liber-alism. Other causes may have been at work. The present conditions may be largely due to reaction from oppresive authority and the domination of theolog-feal falsehood. This reaction may have gone too far and created a looseness in place of a genuine liberality. It has been so in all ages. The reformation under Luther went too far, and made the great reformer tremble lest he had let loose a devastating whirtwind of license and crime. The French revolution is another illustration, and every forward move-ment is marked in greater or less de-
