He is at the head of seven of our Western agencies. Now that prospects of service in China appear to have faded from the horizon, Oregon's National Guardsmen head of seven of our western agencies. He has been a practical miner himself, having worked underground in the mines of Colorado, and for this reason I think he is the best man to have charge of the work we have undertaken. He under-stands the miners and knows how to handle them.

Mr. Pinkerton was uncommunicative last night regarding the charges which have been brought against the officials of the Western Federation of Miners. He said he had been closely following the the mid he had been closely following the developments but had nothing to give out. dition, will not have to pay it. The note was executed in favor of R. H. Dunn, a real estate agent, and was signed by Gove and John Bruchler. Dunn sued to ecover on the note and a jury in Judge George's Court yesterday returned a ver-dict in favor of Mr. Gove. As a matter of defense Mr. Gove, who is 77 years of age and a pioneer resident of Portland, testified that he was bunceed by Dunn and Bruchler. He said Bruchler bargained with him to buy the Portland Heights Addition property, and agreed to pay $300 down. When the time for payment arrived Bruchler did not have the amount, but asserted he could borrow it if Mr. Gove would sign his note. Mr

Gove thought this was a very irregular proceeding and demurred, when Bruchler reassured him with the remark: "Why, old man, it's all right; you get the money, don't you see?"

Gove, continuing his testimony Mr stated that he affixed his signature to th note, but never received any money, and Bruchler did not buy the property. The allegation was that Dunn made a loan of $390 to Bruchler and Gove. Dunn, however, did not take the witness-stand, and Bruchler did not appear. It was stated that he was sick, and his deposition was read. The principal feature of it was that he did not desire Gove to pay any money for him, and he would pay when able to do so. The trial was postponed before because of the illness of Bruchler. Dan J. He explained that he had been under the impression that the sum-mons was for today, and after a reprimand from Judge Wolverton the excuse was accepted. Mr. Kadderly is a hardware merchant, with a store on First street. H. N. Anderson, a Gillam Coun-ty farmer, and Ewen McLennon, a Wasco County sheepman, also failed to appear when the jury was impaneled, and bench warrants have been issued for their arrest. A warrant was also issued for the arrest of N. E. Ayer. of Portland, but it was suspended, as it was learned that he had left for California prior to the mailing of the summons.

Infringement of Patent Charged.

Erik Mannula, of Astoria, yesterday filed a complaint in equity in the Federal Court against Kaleb Sunell, a followtownsman, for alleged infringement of patent. It is asserted in the complaint that Mannula purchased from Eprahem Haataja, of Roseburg, a patent upon an improved net leader machine. It is also improved net leader machine. It is also alleged that the defendant has been man-ufacturing these machines, thereby in-fringing upon the right of the owner of the patent. Judge Wolverton has cited Sunell to appear March 19 and show cause why an injunction should not be issued why an injunction should not be issued restraining him from manufacturing the machines mentioned.
