LEASE FOR RESTAURANT New York Man Wants to Secure It

for New Building.

Russell & Blyth have received a tele-gram from the projrietor of a large and fashionable restaurant in New York City who desires to lease the top floor of the pose of operating a restaurant. Negotia-tions will be entered into, and it is possi-ble that the Eastern man may be given the lease, as Russell & Blyth had already determined to arrange the upper floor for restaurant purposes. The name of the prospective lesses has been withheld, but he states that if he secures the privilege he will open in Portland one of the most high-class restaurants on the Coast. He high-class restaurants on the Coast. He wead the account of the Russell & Blyth building in last Sunday's Oregonian and immediately wired the local firm.
