ISLANDS SWEEP BY TIDAL WAVE

About 150 Lives and Much Property Lost in the South Seas.

VESSELS DRIVEN ASHORE

Steamer Mariposa Brings Details of the Disastrous Storm in the Tropics North of Last February.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1—The great storm in the South Seas, which claimed the lives of at least 150 persons, swept ashore yesterday with such violence as to fling the vessels that were docked or berthed near the south end of the harbor completely overboard.

The steamer Mariposa, which arrived here last night, brought details of the disaster, which was centered in the Lagoon of Tuamotu, where the French vessel Alcyon, the American schooner Ashong, the French schooner Arooga and the American schooner Adventurer, were all swept ashore.
