LANGFITT'S STRONG CASE

River and Harbor Committee Will Report to House Today—Hitchcock Limits Area of Homesteads on Irrigated Land.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, April 9.—The rivers and harbors sub-committee of the House devoted more than two hours today to hearing Major Langfitt in behalf of Senator Fulton's bill appropriating $400,000 for the jetty at the mouth of the Columbia River. Major Langfitt was subjected to a continuous flow of questions from members of the committee and made a strong case in support of the bill. He readily convinced all five members of the sub-committee that this proposition is an entirely meritorious and deserving of immediate and favorable consideration in the House.

If the farm unit is 40 acres, the homesteader must relinquish 120 acres; he cannot sell it to another party or turn it over to the Water-users' Association; if the farm unit is 80 acres, he must relinquish an equal area.

IT'S ALL OFF WITH MRS. DOWIE

Propriet Cuts Off Wife—Claims Special Divine Protection.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 9.—Dr. John Alexander Dowie will never again live with his wife. This disclosure he made this afternoon to a representative of the Associated Press, for whom he sent. His final determination to separate from Mrs. Dowie was made after he had received and read the Chicago papers of last Friday.

A story to the effect that he had intended to establish a harm in his Mexican colony, which he ascribed to Mrs. Dowie and his son Gladstone, caused him great anguish.

"How could they be so cruel? How could they cause to be published such a thing?" he said over and over again.

When he had regained his composure, he told of his irrevocable decision never to live with Mrs. Dowie again.

CAUSE OF ALL HIS TROUBLE

"She is the cause of most of my trouble," he reiterated. "She was spurred on by Voliva and the others until this dreadful trouble came and my persecution was complete. For years I tried to shield her, but her strange conduct has now passed beyond the point of human endurance. Money and jealousy were at the bottom of it all. I offered her 24 per cent of the vast estate. It should have satisfied her, for it would have provided amply for her wants. As for her jealousy, who can account for that? I only know before my God that my life has been pure and blameless. These stories about polygamy are more than cruel—they are shocking."

Deacons James Peters and John A. Lewis were present during the interview, and both were deeply affected. They said: "It is a dreadful thing to do, but Dr.

DOWIE IS IN THE RIGHT

There is nothing new possible but separation. For him to live with Mrs. Dowie would be a sin before God."

Reach Zion Noon Today.

Mr. Peters, master of transportation, wired to St. Louis this afternoon, asking that the regular train be held that Dowie's private car could be attached and so the journey could be made to Zion without a stop. The Mexican special, over which Dowie and his party are traveling, will arrive in St. Louis over four hours late. The train with which it was hoped to make connections is scheduled to leave about midnight, but as the special will arrive in St. Louis at 12:30 A. M., it is believed Mr. Peters' request to hold the train will be granted. This will land the party in Zion on Tuesday afternoon.

THINKS GOD INTERPOSED

Dowie passed through Little Rock at 2 o'clock. The train was more than five hours late. When the train approached a bridge across the Saline River, it was seen that the structure was ablaze. As the train was late, the engineer determined not to take any chances on a further tie-up, and ran straight across the bridge. Had the train been 20 minutes later the burning bridge must have collapsed.

Dowie, learning of the incident, declared that this was a most favorable omen for him. He said that the Lord had purposely delayed the destruction of the bridge to enable him to cross it. He said the Lord had willed that he should proceed in safety to Chicago and that he would therefore win out in the fight to prove that he is the reincarnation of Elijah II.

DREAD OF ASSASSINATION

During the entire trip Dowie was closely guarded by a giant negro. This negro was picked up in Jamaica, and he has been carried along by Dowie as his bodyguard through Mexico and on the present trip. On the train this negro sleeps in front of Dowie's apartment. This, it is said, is done because Dowie is in constant fear of being assassinated. Dowie has given it out publicly that he believes his enemies are plotting to take his life and have hired assassins to kill him before he reaches Chicago.

Mr. Lewis acted as spokesman for the First Apostle at Little Rock, and said that when Dowie left Texas he felt discouraged, but that recent developments have greatly encouraged him. He has received a telegram from Chicago assuring him that his following would be with him as a whole.

Dowie also says he has received a divine inspiration that he will triumph over his enemies and will be established in supreme authority at Zion.

British Government Faces a New Trouble on Education Bill.

LONDON, April 9.—The education bill, the main measure of the Liberal programme for the present session, is introduced in the House today by Mr. Birrell, president of the Board of Education. The difficulty in completely satisfying any religious group and the possibility of framing a measure acceptable to all the political parties speedily became apparent as Mr. Birrell unfolded his efforts to arrange a compromise. At the outset he recognized his difficulties by a reference to the "icy blasts of sectarian tenets" which prevented progress and peace.

Russian Reaction Party Badly Stunned by Elections.

TWO PROVINCES EXCEPTED

Discussion About Fusion Deal Defeats Democrats in Moscow Province, but They Sweep Moscow City.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 9.—Belated returns today only increase the magnitude of the opposition's victory. Kuznetsov returned a solid Progressive vote. Kuznetsov, headed by Prince Peter Dolgoroukoff, M. Sherkoff, one of the members elected to the lower house of parliament, is now in prison. Vitebsk elected two Poles, a Catholic priest, one progressive, two Constitutional Democrats and two peasants. Vladimir, one of the old capitals of Russia, where the orthodox faith is particularly strong, chose a Monarchist, but the Electoral College elected five Constitutional Democrats. Tula is the only province but Moscow which elected a majority of Conservatives.

Moscow Province an Exception.

The result in Moscow province constitutes an anomaly in the elections. All the Constitutional Democrats went down, but the result was engendered through a deal with the reactionists and a portion of the "Octobrists," who bought the support of the peasants in the Electoral College by offering them to name an additional member. The bargain was so distasteful to M. Shirkoff, the prominent Zemstvo leader, and M. Chetvickoff that they declined to be parties to it, withdrew their candidature and also induced the Constitutional Democrats to withdraw their ticket, which included Prince Paul Dolgoroukoff, Prince Galitzin, M. Kokotoff, Professor Mourontseff and M. Golovin. As a net result the Province of Moscow, the real heart of Russia, sends to Parliament comparatively unknown men—two peasants, a workman, Prince Gagarin, M. Bakhoff, M. Krudner and Peter Struve. The latter is the most prominent, being the president of the Moscow Bourne.

Educated Peasants Elected.

With the single exception of Tula, in every province where the peasant class was in the majority in the Electoral College, the Constitutional Democrats captured the majority of the members. Most of them, however, although belonging to the peasant class, are actually peasants in name only and have risen far above their station. For example, a peasant of St. Petersburg province is principal of a middle school.

"Foolish Dreams" Realized.

The Reich, organ of the Constitutional Democrats, celebrates it as a splendid victory, and referring to the election of men like Petrunkovich and M. Boditsch, who first demanded a constitution for Russia, and Prince Suakowski, who gave a fortune to aid the liberation movement, the paper points out that these are "the very people whose ideas the Emperor 12 years ago called foolish dreams." The Reich then issues a solemn warning as follows:

Soldier Who Slew Czar's Slanderer Rewarded by His General.

WARSAW, April 9.—Emperor Nicholas has granted full pardon to Pavloff, the soldier of General Bogdanovsky's regiment, who murdered a civilian, and two accomplices on his Majesty. The civil court attempted to take jurisdiction of the case, but the military authorities carried the case to the Emperor, who acquitted the accused soldier, whereupon General Bogdanovsky made the following speech to the regiment, which was ordered distributed to all the troops: "You see, brothers, from whom you must take an example, from the brave Pavloff, whose loyalty to the Emperor was greater than his fear of responsibility. I order that he be given 12 and two months' vacation. Hurrah for Pavloff!"

CONDITIONS OF RUSSIAN LOAN

ST. PETERSBURG, April 9.—At the Ministry of Finance today it was stated that the conditions of the big loan had not been absolutely fixed, but they were regarded as practically settled. The Finance Minister Kokotoff, who went to Paris to conclude the final negotiations, was empowered to sign the conditions. The Minister of Finance, however, asserted, will also participate with the French, English and Dutch. The German bankers also will participate. One of the conditions of the loan laid down by the foreign bankers is understood, is the flotation of a considerable portion of the bonds in Russia.

REFORM IN CHINESE EXCLUSION

Sargent Tells House Committee the Evils and Their Remedy.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Commissioner-General Sargent of the Immigration Bureau was before the House committee on foreign affairs, relative to the proposed amendments to the Chinese exclusion act. The Commissioner reviewed at length the difficulties in the way of enforcing the present law. The greatest cause of complaint arose, in his opinion, from the fact that what are known as "section 6 certificates," which are in reality passports for Chinese men privileged to enter the country, were made out in blank by United States Consular officers in China and were bartered for a consideration. The remedy he suggested was to have officers in China who should investigate the certificate issued to every Chinaman, and who should send with the steamer in which he sailed proper papers to the immigration authorities at the port of destination, the means of readily identifying the Chinaman and the certificates.

DECAYED STARCH

A Food Problem.

An Asheville man told how right food did that which medicine had failed to accomplish: "For more than 15 years," he says, "I was afflicted with stomach trouble and intestinal indigestion, gas forming in stomach and bowels and giving me great distress. The conditions were undoubtedly due to the starchy food I ate—white bread, potatoes, etc., and didn't digest. I grew worse with time, till two years ago, I had an attack which the doctor diagnosed as appendicitis. When the surgeon operated on me, however, it was found that my trouble was ulcer of the pancreas instead of appendicitis.

"Since that time I have had several such attacks, suffering three months. The last attack was about three months ago, and I endured untold agonies.

"The doctor then said that I would have to eat less starchy stuff, so I began the use of Grape-Nuts food for I knew it to be pre-digested, and have continued same with most gratifying results. It has built me up wonderfully. I gained 15 pounds in the first eight weeks that I used Grape-Nuts, my general health is better than ever before, my brain is clearer, and my nerves stronger.

"For breakfast and dinner, each I take four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts with cream, a small slice of dry toast, an egg soft boiled, and a cup of Postum; and I make the evening meal on Grape-Nuts and cream alone—this gives me a good night's rest and I am well again." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason. Read the little book "The Road to Well-being" in package.

FIERY ACIDS IN THE BLOOD

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

All skin diseases are due to the same cause—an excess of acid in the blood caused by faulty assimilation of food and poor bowel action; this fiery acid matter is forced to the surface through the pores and glands. Pusules are formed, discharging a sticky fluid which dries and makes a crust, causing intense itching. When the crusts or scabs are scratched off the skin is left raw and bleeding.
