SHIP A SMUGGLER

Dutiable Goods Worth $750 .-000 Brought on the Oregon.

LANDED AT THE BAY CITY

News That Customs Inspectors Would Visit Battleship at Bremerton Is Said to Have Caused Quick Action.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.-The Even SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—The Evening Fost publishes a story today to the effect that a strong belief exists that dutiable goods valued at about $750,000 were snuggled ashore in launches from the battleship Oregon just before she departed for the Bremerton navy-yard. It says that an order has been issued instructing the inspectors at Bremerton to delay every man of the battleship until the whole matter has been sifted to the bottom and the customs authorities throughout the country are notified to find and examine the questionable packages if possible.

throughout the country are notified to find and examine the questionable packages if possible.

The battleship was scheduled to get away for Bremerton Saturday morning, but was delayed on account of not having received sailing orders.

"At noon, however," says the Post, "a telegram was received from the Navy Department stating that officers and men must have their heigage in reaonness for inspection by the customs officers when the Oregon reaches Bremerton. This notice was posted in the mesarcom and the news finshed over the ship like lightning. It was then, according to those who watched the whole scene, that the goods were hurried ashore."

The Post says that "Wells, Fargo & Co."s recards show that they gave receipts on 250 packages taken from the Oregon. The Santa Fe Railroad gave shipping bills for 1600 trunks and casea, many of which weighed several hundred pounda." Acting Inspector of Customs Hamilton, when asked regarding the matter, said that the statement regarding the alleged smuggling had been conveyed to the cus-that the statement regarding the alleged snuggling had been conveyed to the customs officials, who had at once proceeded to verify the report, sending out the orders referred to, and making an investigation here, but as yet nothing definite had been established.

Washington Has No Word.

SAN FRANCISCO. April 3.—Neither Secretary Shaw, of the Treasury Department nor Assistant Secretary Newberry, of the Navy Department, has so far been informed of any alleged lilegal importations from the battleship Oregon, which recently reached San Francisco from the Orient. Such action as may have been taken by customs officers at San Francisco regarding the inspection of baggage from the Oregon was taken, it is said, on their own initiative.

As far as can be learned the matter as not referred to Washington for my suggestion or action.

Body of Iron Mountain Miner Found When Snow Melted.

WEISER, Idaho, April 9.—(Special.)
-The bedy of John W. Johnson, a miner, who was employed as watch-man at the camp of the Iron Mountain Mining Company, near Mineral, this county, was found yesterday. Johnson disappeared February 18. On that date he went to Mineral, to procure supplies for the camp. He left Mineral about P. M. to return to the camp. At a nt about two miles from Mineral he had to put on snowshoes, as from that place to the camp the snow was very deep. He never appeared at the camp and search was made for him but withous success until yesterday, when the body was discovered by Joe Wesver, a resident of Mineral, who was searching for him.

The body was found at the foot of a steep declivity, near which the trail ran, over which he was compelled to pass in order to reach the camp. His neck was broken by the fall. A henvy snow had fallen immediately after his disappearance, which had hidden the body. Johnson was about 34 years of age, a Swede and unmarried. His parents live in Illinois. They have been notified. Harry March, a member of the Iron Mountain Mining Company, left the city this afternoon to look after the body. The body was discovered about 100 yards from the camp. The face had been eaten by cats and was in a bad state of decomposition. ran, over which he was compelled to Steamboat Captains Say Law Is Being Observed on Columbia.

ASTORIA. Or., April 9.—(Special.)—According to the reports from steamboat captains who ply on the Columbia River, there is little if any illegal fishing in progress, although, as the season will open at noon on next Sunday, it is expected that some of the fishermen will be out during the last few days of the present week. Those who pretend to know say there are but few salmon in the river, but the presence of large numbers of scale about the mouth of the river and inside the heads indicates that the schools of fish are entering.

On account of the flood in the river tery few of the seiners are expected to out their gear in the water before June It is also said that only a small num her of traps will operate early in the reason, so the fishing during the first few weeks will be almost exclusively by the gillnetters.

continue at the same rate it has the past year or two, and the second is how to keep them employed.

At present a jute mill, for the manufacture of grain sacks and kindred articles, of 70 looms, is in operation, and furnishes employment for 20 of the prisoners. Until last year several hundred more were employed in a brickyard, but a boycott declared by the labor unions of Walla Walla on the output forced the abandonment of that class of work.

While no announcement has been made by the State Board of Control, it is generally known that the next Legislature will be asked to pass some laws for the relief of the present situation at the penlientiary. It has been demonstrated that the manufacture of grain sacks is both profitable and practical, and it is quite probable that an appropriation will be requested for the purpose of increasing the facilities of the jute mill. The officers of the institution believe that 100 more looms could be operated with ease and safety.

The second phase to be considered by the next session of the Legislature will be some plan by which the convicts may be used in building good, permanent roads in any part of the state. This will probably be taken up by the State Good Roads Association and worked out according to the methods employed in a number of other states.

The County of Walla Walla is preparing to build several miles of macadam roads this Summer, and the state has offered the convicts to the county for use in building the roads, if the county will stand the expense of guards, trans-

The principal question for solution in such an undertaking is the transportation of the prisoners to and from the penitentiary should the quarry be located at some distance. In other states temporary wooden shacks and a crew of guards at night serve the purpose very well, and promises to be the method used in Walla Walla County this year.

Mention has been made of asking the Legislature to make an appropriation for the equipment of a special state good roads train for the transportation of convicts and their accommodation while away from the penitentiary engaged in work on the roads.
