HIGH MASS AT CATHEDRAL

Decorations Elaborately Beautiful, and Musical Programme of Special Excellence—Services in Other Churches.

Pontifical high mass, celebrated for Easter at the Cathedral yesterday morning by Archbishop Christie, was an exceedingly impressive service, and in keeping with the solemnity of the day.

condones a large amount of human weakness, but has magnificent hopes for the race as a whole.

SCHEMAS BARREN OF RESULTS.

These are characteristic features of the system which promises to extract the gold of virtue from the sea of life.

Jesus Christ is the light of the world, it is his Gospel which has been the regeneration of society in the past, and it is only by getting back to Christ that we shall procure the spiritual well-being of the present and the future.

EASTER AT ST. DAVID'S.

Elaborate Musical Programme, Is Given at the Church.

Easter services at St. David's Church, Belmont and East Twelfth streets, yesterday morning and evening, were a great feast to all lovers of high-class music.

Religion Must Progress.

If every other department of thought has its storehouse of worn-out, disproved and antiquated notions, the same must be true of religion.

DAY IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES.

Easter Services at St. Patrick's and St. Lawrence's.

Was Quick to See That Coffee Poison Was Doing the Mischief.

A lady tells of a bad case of coffee poisoning and tells it in a way so simple and straightforward that literary skill could not improve it.

CORDIAL INVITATION

ADDRESSED TO WORKING GIRLS

Miss Barrows Tells How Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Helps Working Girls.

Girls who work are particularly susceptible to female diseases, especially those who are obliged to stand on their feet from morning until night in stores or factories.

Day in and day out the girl toils, and she is often the bread-winner of the family. Whether she is sick or well, whether it rains or shines, she must get to her place of employment, perform the duties exacted of her, smile and be agreeable.

I am in better health than I ever was, and I know it is all due to your medicine. I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer.

J. H. CASE was the director and Miss Mollie Reynolds was the organist.

Knights Templar Attend Church.

Oregon Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar, attended in a body the service of Taylor Street in the morning by the male choir, with Professor Goodrich as director.

Gives Easter Concert.
