MR. E. V. CARTER, Candidate for State Treasurer:

Dear Sir—As you have established the precedent in this campaign of writing open letters to the other candidates for the office which you seek, I take this opportunity of returning the compliment by presenting some queries to you.

Do you carry in your pocket two letters, both addressed "To Whom It May Concern," signed by A. L. Mills and J. C. Ainsworth respectively, supporting your candidacy?

Did you not come to Portland last week for the express purpose of seeking the support of the brewing and liquor interests?

Did you not personally visit them and ask for their support on the ground that you had succeeded finally in getting your home town, Ashland, "wet"?

Did not these gentlemen tell you that the State Treasurer's office had no connection with their business and that they did not propose to get into a fight which was none of their affairs?

Did you not say that if you could not get the organized support of these interests that you would seek the organized support of the Anti-Saloon League and certain political preachers?

Is it not a fact that Mr. A. L. Mills has written many letters to the correspondents of the First National Bank throughout the state, asking that they support your candidacy?

I regret that you have seen fit to introduce personalities into this campaign, but I do not propose to sit idly by and let you mislead the public. Yours respectfully,

Respectfully,
E. V. Carter
Candidate for State Treasurer.

get ready some speeches he intended to deliver in this country, and in the meantime the trouble over his companion would abate.

Commissioner Robert Watchorn, when seen at the Hotel Chelsea yesterday, said the case was no longer in the hands of the local immigration bureau. As the case now stands, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, at Washington, he said.

"If Gorky is, as he says, married to the actress named today at Cooper place, on the Dry Creek road, near Napa, Voss and Johnson have been working there as woodchoppers.

Habit-forming Medicines.

Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as largely published in some journals of more or less influence, this publicity has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject.
