MAY FIND FLORIDA BRIDE

Farmer Who Inquired at Women's Exchange for Wife Given Letter.

There is a romance hovering over the Portland Women's Exchange. It is not impossible, indeed, that the Exchange may develop into a sort of bureau for bringing together bachelors in search of wives and women looking for homes. Not long ago a farmer went to the Exchange one day asking if he could get a wife there—"one willing to live on a farm and not afraid of work, one who could cook."

His story was told in the Jacksonville (Fla.) Metropolis, of April 27, and it fell under the eye of a widow with one little girl now living in that city. This woman addressed the following letter to the ladies of the Exchange:

"Dear Ladies—If the enclosed is true, will you please send me the gentleman's name? I am a widow with one little girl; have no home, good cook, clean and neat in house; can sew and fit dresses, and I always wanted to go to Oregon. So if you will help me to get a home, I know God will bless you, for I need it. Thanking you for your kindness, I remain, yours respectfully," In a postscript she adds: "I am 45 years of age, good health."

It happened that the farmer left his address at the Exchange and the ladies have learned that he is in every way a fine fellow; that he has a good farm and would undoubtedly provide well for a wife and be kind to her. The letter from Jacksonville has been forwarded to him, and the ladies at the Exchange are awaiting developments.

Socialist Nominations Filled.

Nominations have been filed with the County Clerk by Joseph Meindl and Joseph Ehalainen, both Socialists. Meindl is candidate for Joint Representative, and Ehalainen for Joint Senator, for Multnomah and Clackamas Counties. Certificates were filed showing that they were regularly nominated at a convention of the Socialist party in this city, March 12.

CHARGE OF UNDUE HASTE

Woman Arrested, Who Proves That It Was Due to Misapprehension.

On a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses sworn out before Municipal Judge Cameron yesterday, Mrs. Katherine Huntsman was arrested at her apartment at the home of Dr. L. A. Kent by Detective Murphy and taken before Captain Slover last evening. The complaint was sworn to by H. L. Eckerson, who alleged that Mrs. Huntsman purchased some furniture from him which was installed in a house occupied by her on the East Side, from which place she recently moved, and her creditor, acting under the misapprehension that she had disposed of the furniture which had not been paid for in full, secured a warrant for her arrest.

Mrs. Huntsman explained to Captain Slover that she had to vacate the premises occupied by her, and on taking up her residence at the home of Dr. Kent stored the furniture until she could secure another residence. As the bail had been fixed to cover the value of the chattels, the police were unable to do anything toward relieving the situation without the consent of the District Attorney's office, and Dr. Kent secured a talk with District Attorney Manning which resulted in the release of Mrs. Huntsman on her own recognizance.

Mr. Manning taking the same view of the case as the police, which was that undue haste had been used in swearing to the complaint. An investigation on the part of the complainants would have shown that the debtor had paid interest on the furniture and had not disposed of it, is the claim of the friends of Mrs. Huntsman. The tangle will probably be straightened out this morning.

Several Dozen Refugees Arrive.

Several dozen refugees arrived in Portland yesterday, and all who were in desperate circumstances were provided for by the Travelers' Aid Department of the Y. W. C. A. The refugees who are now coming to Portland are in much better circumstances than the first arrivals. Those who apply are still furnished with requisitions for meals and lodging. The work of meeting the refugees has all been turned over to the Travelers' Aid by the local relief committee.

Croup Quickly Cured. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy bring surprising results when a child shows symptoms of croup. There is no cause for alarm when this medicine is in the house as it rarely takes more than three or four doses to bring about a complete cure. It has never failed, even in the most severe and dangerous cases, and no home where there are small children can afford to be without it. For sale by all druggists.
