VIGOROUS ACTION

Moody Prepares to Prosecute Standard Oil and Lawless Railroads.

HAS PROOF OF REBATING

Garfield's Report Deals With That Subject Alone and Forms Basis for Prosecution of Railroad and Oil Men.

WASHINGTON, May 1.-The statement is authoritatively made that the Department of Justice will immediately begin an investigation of the relations of the oil trust and a number of railroads with a view to determining whether there have been violations of the anti-rebate law. The basis for this investigation will be the information recently submitted to the Freshent in a report of Commissioner Garfield of the Bureau of Corporations which is soon to be made public. report, it is learned, deals only with the the question of violations of the anti-

If it is found that rebates have been given by the railroads and accepted by the oil trust, steps will be at once taken, it is asserted, to bring the matter before the grand juries in the localities where the alleged violations took place, with a view to prosecutions in the courts. It is not thought that the Department of Justico, in conducting its inquiries, will require the service of any one outside the department proper and the United States Attorneys and other officers under

It is said that Mr. Garfield, in conducting his investigation, traveled extensively and visited all important sections covered by the operations of the oil trust, from New England to California and the South, and that the evidence obtained is ment of Justice in taking the course de-

ASTOR-SHAW WEDDING.

Quiet Affair in London Church to Avoid Clerical Objection.

LONDON, May 3 .- Mrs. Nannie Langhorne Shaw, of Virginia, and Waldorf Astor, eldest son of William Waldorf Astor, were quietly married at All Souls Church, Langham Place, London, this afternoon, by the Rev. Francis Scott Web-ster, M. A., the vicar. Neither William Waldorf Astor nor r. Langborne, respectively the father the groom and of the bride, were pres-t, both being too ill to attend the cere-

Only immediate relatives and intimate Only immediate relatives and intimate friends of the couple knew of the arrangements, so the congregation was small it included Ambassador Reid and Mrs. Reid. Charles Dana Gibson led the bride to the altar, and the groom was supported by his brother, John Jacob Astor.

The newly married couple received The newly married couple received many handsome presents, including the beautiful Cliveden estate, which Mr. Astor presented to his son with all its contents as a wedding gift.

Mr. Astor also gave the bride a tiara is which is set the famous San Sancy diamond, weighing 53% karats and valued at $75,000.

at $75,000.

The groom's present to the bride was a necklace formed by three rows of superly pearls.

The object of the quietness of today's marriage was to prevent its possible interruption by certain of the ciergy of hondon, who object to the marriage of divorced persons in church, whether they are the aggrieved party or otherwise.

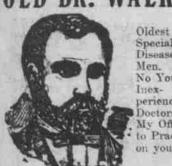

One of these clergy had threatened to interrupt the Astor-Shaw ceremony with an objection.

A SALE OF GREAT GOOD You can't take a step through the aisles to-

MOST NOTHING—that's the scope of the sale. You can't resist buying when you note the prices for the values offered—that's the ECONOMY of the sale. You can't make a mistake in anything you buy, no matter how small its price—that's the safety of the sale. SCOPE—ECONOMY—SAFETY—the three cardinal points of today's 157th Friday "Economy Sale." Note particularly:

STUNNING SUITS

FOR DRESSY WOMEN

REDUCED A FOURTH!

Special for Two Days-Friday and Saturday.

Second Floor.

The most important sale of High-Class Suits offered Portland buyers this year, perhaps the greatest values ever brought forward at this early season when wearing time is all ahead. All the newest and eleverest styles of famous master tailors employed in the foremost style houses of the East. They are simply wonderful values, the style, the tailoring and everything about them being of the highest class. At the regular prices—should we make comparisons with the general run of suits at same figures—we would have license to add a full fourth to the price we marked on them. Some are from their makers less than two weeks, a number came to the store last Saturday; every new and wanted material is embraced, including étamines, Panamas, broadcloths and smart mannish mixtures and handsome tweeds. Only about 200 in this collection, every favored color and shade. All charmingly trimmed in all the newest and daintiest effects. REDUCTIONS AS NOTED:

$40.00	SUITS-SALE	PRICE$30.00
$45.00	SUITS-SALE	PRICE$33.75
		PRICE$36.35
$50.00	SUITS-SALE	PRICE$37.50

And suits up to the value of $68.50 at proportionate reduction. Sale lasts two days.
