A FEAST OF NOVELTIES

Greater Norris & Rowe Circus Celebrates Its Eighteenth Birthday.

The present season marks the 18th annual tour of the new and greater Norris & Rowe Circus. That hard experience counts for something will be demonstrated when the show visits this section this season.

The Norris & Rowe circus has now reached the zenith of perfection. It is as large a circus as any person could wish and in its entirety it embodies every feature known to the circus world.

Everything is bright and new, from the tents to the performers, for among the latter it is doubtful if a face has ever been seen here before.

There are so many other acts and novelties that it is impossible to enumerate them all in the limits of one newspaper article.

The Y. M. C. A. Junior Field Meet. The Y. M. C. A. Junior athletic field meet will be held at the Irvington race track this afternoon, and a large list of entries has been registered for the contests.

RACE BETWEEN WARSHIPS

Missouri Defeats Maine, and Will Probably Win Target Trophy.

NEW YORK, May 4.—When the battleships Maine, Missouri, Kearsarge and Kentucky, the first squadron, first division of the North Atlantic fleet, under command of Rear-Admiral Evans, left Guantanamo at 2 P. M. last Saturday, it was known in advance, says today's Tribune, that the Maine and the Missouri would race to New York under natural and forced draft, and nearly every dollar the men had was wagered on the result.
