ROB GEO. W. HAZEN'S HOME

Burglars Steal Watches, Diamond Rings and Cuff Buttons.

Burglars looted the residence of George W. Hazen at 252 Twelfth street Monday night while he and his son, Todd, were After ransacking the house valuables of a saleable nature they made their escape with two gold watches, one silver watch, two costly diamond rings, the property of Mrs. Hazen; two revolvers and a pair of silver cuffbuttons.

The robbery was committed between the hours of 7:45 and 9:30 P. M. while the residence was in darkness. By obtaining a stepladder in the back yard the burglars placed it near the rear pantry window and gained entrance by prying it up. Valuable silverware was not stolen, although it was pulled from the sideboard. Mr. Hazen reported the theft to the police and detectives gave him the satisfaction of telling him that his valuables would probably be melted down and sold to

IRA S. SMITH'S MESSAGE

Will Tell His Home District That Merchants Deal Fairly Here, and Will Aid to Get Harbor Appropriation.

Portland will receive a most flattering report when Ira S. Smith, representing the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce, who has been in the city for the last few days, returns to Coos Bay. He is satisfied that there has been no movement on the part of the wholesalers of Portland to bleed the merchants of his locality, now that they are virtually obliged to do most of their purchasing here, and that the business men of this city will even their virtually controlled to the control of their purchasing here, and that the business men of this city will even their virtually controlled to the control of their controlled to the control of their controlled to the control of the control of their controlled to the control of their controlled to the control of their controlled to the controlled to t city will exert their utmost influence in obtaining a Congressional appropriation or the improvement of Coos Bay.

Smith last night. "But I find that I was mistaken, and when I return 10 Marshfield I will do what I can to allay

"I found that there has been an advance of prices on some articles but that is not confined to Portland, and that it is general. So far as I have been able to learn—and I have made a very careful and painstaking investigation of the sit-uation-Portland has not tried to take any undue advantage of Coos Bay, as some of us were inclined to believe. "In company with Tom Richardson, of the Commercial Club, I visited many of the most representative business men of Portland. Everywhere I received the most courteous treatment, and was assured by all that Portland was willing to assist the people of our part of the state in various matters of vital import to us I am greatly encouraged, and I believe that the people of Marshfield will feel about a better understanding between all concerned.

"Before I came to Portland I, in common with many other of the people of Coos Bay, thought there was a disposition on the part of the Portland wholesalers to raise their prices because we now have to do most of our buying here," said Mr.

Smith last night. "But I find that I

"We have our hearts set on securing an appropriation for the improvement of our harbor. We realize that to obtain this appropriation we must have the support of Portland. Residents along the bay feel that Portland has not worked hard for the appropriation. But the business men with whom I talked informed me that they would support the appropriation and I was told that the commercial organizations would do whatever they could. In short, I have been promised the support of Portland.

"We believe that $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 would be sufficient to improve our harbor. If we can get the harbor deepened we will get the railroads, and Coog Bay
