Twenty-five Women Can Buy Dresses for $29.98
Today—Worth up to $175—
Grand Salons—Second Floor.

The statement seems so unusual that, coming from some houses, it might appear preposterous—and the writer demented. The well-known reputation of the Olds, Wortman & King organization is assurance, however, of the absolute veracity of the news embodied in above terse and pointed heading. Fact is, we've just twenty-five

Women's Tailored Suits—High-Class Models—Worth up to $175, as Stated

All from makers of National repute in the fashion world—but, all made last season for special functions at the Exposition. Of course the suits are a year old—that's frank—but many stores are showing 'em as "this season's"—and they'd readily pass as such, but not here. Made for 1905—that's it. Handsome, high-class, jacket styles, in fancy and tight-fitting models, blouse, Etons, etc., in broadcloths, etamines, chevots and Panamas; colors light to dark in plain goods or figured. Suits are plain tailored and handsomely trimmed. Values $29.98 to $175.00 (only 25 of 'em)—today at.....$29.98

An Embroidery Sale Extraordinary!
THOUSANDS OF YARDS!

Remaining from the monster sale of Tuesday—which contained values up to $2.50 a yard—will be closed out today in the most remarkable bargain event of the season at

FIFTEEN CENTS THE YARD

Many of the very best values remain. At this writing 'tis impossible to say just what the embroideries average, but 'tis safe to say—and you know how conservative O. W. & K. are in their statements—that there's a plenty of handsome embroideries worth over a dollar a yard that will go in today's wonderful sale at 15¢. You'll find in the offering narrow, medium and wide cambric edges and insertions, also a lot of corset cover embroideries, now so much in demand. The embroideries will be sold by the strip only, each strip containing from 4 1/2 to 6 1/2 yards. Every yard shown in the windows Wednesday and Thursday will be placed on counters inside the store for sale to customers on the rule of first come, first served, regardless of values or personality. None reserved for anyone.
