

The Reason Why

The storekeeping which in this community has come to be known as peculiarly characteristic of Lipman, Wolfe & Co. is the result of certain simple, straightforward principles carried out in an earnest and thorough way.

The foundation is our determination to give to Portland the best we can do—and do better constantly. Every merchant will tell you his goods are best and his prices lowest. Naturally that does not make them so. It is the public that always decides; and the increasing volume of our sales and the growing reputation of this store for fair prices and square dealing prove eloquently that these methods—most characteristic of this store—meet with your approval.

DENY OREGON LAND FRAUDS

EXAMINATION OF WISCONSIN LUMBERMEN BEGUN.

James and Benjamin Doughty Say They Had Nothing to Do With Land Described in Indictment.

OSHKOSH, Wis., May 31.—(Special.)—The examination of Leander Choate, James Doughty, Benjamin Doughty, Thomas Doly and James M. Bray, charged with alleged land frauds in Oregon, took place in this city today, in the Federal Court. United States Officer McDonald is in charge, and Messrs. Reid and Henning, of Milwaukee, are present in the interest of the Government. The defense is being looked after by Judge C. D. Cleveland, of Oshkosh, assisted by A. E. Thompson.

Doughty were examined. Both of these lumbermen denied all charges contained in the indictment and stated that they had had no timber deals in Oregon since 1902, and that they have had nothing to do with the purchase or sale of lands described in the indictment.

Mr. Doughty stated that the company they represented had not employed Mr. Black, of Shawano, or any Oregon people, in the purchase or sale of lands, and that they had never intended to defraud the Government in any of their deals. All the men mentioned in the indictment were present in court, excepting James M. Bray, who is a paralytic, and is confined to his home.

Judge Cleveland explained to the court the absence of Mr. Bray, and it was agreed that it would be impossible to include him in the court examination. Attorney A. S. Larson, of Shawano, was present at the examination, in the interest of three Shawano men included in the indictment. Their examination will not occur for a week or so.

Deadly Effect of Wood Alcohol.

RAWLINS, Wyo., May 31.—William Wardlaw and Jesse Keating, convicts, died at the State penitentiary here yesterday from the effects of drinking wood alcohol. They were workers in the broom factory, where shellac varnish is used in finishing the handles. They secured the varnish bottle, and allowing the shellac to settle, drank the wood alcohol, which is used to cut the shellac. Both died in horrible convulsions, having first become totally blind from the effects of the drug. At death the entire surface of the body was as black as shoe leather. Two other convicts drank the alcohol also, but as they had indulged less freely, were saved.

DENY THEY BOUGHT TITLE

Mrs. Magee Paid Austrian Baron Nothing to Wed Niece.

PITTSBURG, May 31.—Because of a statement that has been published about the country that Baron Riedl, who is to marry Louise Magee, niece and ward of the late Senator Chris L. Magee, had demanded a dowry of $100,000, much unpleasant notoriety has resulted, and today the family of the late Senator caused to be given out a denial that any such demand was ever made. It was also stated that Mrs. Magee would under no circumstances consent to the payment of a marriage portion, were such a thing possible, as it would be at variance to her principles. The payment of a dowry, however, is made impossible for the reason that the Magee estate was left in trust by the Senator at Mrs. Magee's suggestion.

Miner Killed by Cave-In.

BAKER CITY, Or., May 31.—A special from Cable Cove Camp states that Ed

Leake, a miner working in the Mormon Boy mine, was killed this afternoon by a cave-in, which occurred while Foreman John Rizer had gone for power. On returning Rizer heard the crash and dug out the body of Leake, who must have died instantly. A few weeks ago Leake was married in this county. His father is editor of the Woodland, Cal., Democrat.
