

GLOOM REPLACES GAIETY IN MADRID

Festivities Continue but With No Zest.

SUSPECTED ASSASSIN FOUND

Englishman Named Hamilton Held in Prison.

SPANISH PARTNER MISSING

King and Queen Show Confidence by Riding Through City—Movements of Bomb-Throwers—Blood Stains Queen's Dress.

MADRID, June 1.—The nervous tension of the populace of Madrid has been wrought up to the highest pitch by the terrible events of King Alfonso's wedding day. The period of the wedding fetes, while still officially proceeding, is filled with sinister forebodings. The King and Queen sought to reassure the public by appearing today in an open automobile unattended by a military guard.

ILLUMINATIONS CAN'T DISPEL GLOOM.—Tonight the heavens are red with illuminations from the Segovia bridge to the Atocha walk, and from the palace of the royal family and their guests watched the lurid play of rockets and roman candles, but the brightness fails to scatter the gloom that has fallen upon the community.

WILL CONTINUE FESTIVITIES.—King Alfonso wishes to postpone the royal ball for tomorrow night, but the ministers are seeking to persuade him that the programme should be carried out.

SUSPECTED ASSASSIN CAUGHT.—The police today arrested an elegantly-dressed Englishman as he was boarding a train as the person nearest to fitting the description of the author of the outrage, but a lengthy interrogation of this prisoner in the presence of the proprietor of the chamber from which the attempt was made gave no satisfactory results.

FUNERALS OF THE DEAD.—The funerals of eight officers and men, the Marquis of Tolosa and her daughter and the Countess of Ordesa took place in the presence of a vast concourse. At the cemetery military honors were rendered. The King and the government were represented.

ASSASSIN WAS WEALTHY.—The searches made by the police disclose the fact that the author of the outrage was a man of luxury and wealth. He left many valuables and fine clothes behind him in his hurried flight. He bought a bouquet of flowers before the attempt and concealed the bomb within it.

WELTER AMONG INJURED.—General Weyer was seriously wounded by the bomb explosion. Five of the wounded are dying. The magnitude of the affair increases. The number of killed is now given at 20 and the wounded at 90. During the night 30 arrests were made, but the person who actually threw the bomb is apparently still at large.

WILL SUPPRESS ANARCHISTS.—The Ministry is considering stringent measures for the suppression of anarchism, and bills will be presented in the Cortes to stamp out the movement. Arrests are being made of all anarchists without regard to their whereabouts at the time of the bomb explosion yesterday, and each suspect is required to establish his innocence of connection with the outrage.

SLIGHT THING CAUSES PANIC.—The bursting of an automobile tire today in the Puerta del Sol caused a panic which threatened to be serious. The nerves of the people are so tense that the explosion of the tire was believed to be another outrage. There was a mad rush, in which women were knocked down and trampled under foot and cafes were invaded and damaged.

FINDS WIFE AND CHILD DEAD.—In the apartment of the Duke of Ahumada, the Marchioness Tolosa and her daughter were killed. One body was jammed in the balcony railing and was removed with difficulty.

Count Romanos, Minister of the Interior, says the attempt on the lives of the King and Queen may be definitely ascribed to anarchism, both in its preparation and execution.

ASSASSIN EVIDENTLY NOVICE

Articles Left in Room Show This. Not Known as Anarchist.

MADRID, June 1.—At the time he threw the bomb the author of the outrage evidently suffered some injury or burn, as one of the garments he left behind showed bloodstains.

Hamilton was arrested, it now appears, as he was on the point of taking a train leaving Madrid. He was said to have arrived here from Catalonia, the hotbed of agitators, and to have first gone to Calle Arsenial, on the route of the wedding procession, where he engaged a room but, failing to secure a front balcony, gave up his room and went to Calle Mayor, where he offered to pay any price for a balcony.

They were all occupied, but a Catalonian artist was induced by the offer of a large sum of money to give up his apartment, in front of which was a stone balcony with an iron railing. This immediately faced one of the handsome arches under which the cortege was to pass.

The stranger who hired the artist's apartment gave the name of Manuel Morales. He lived on a lavish scale. A few minutes before he threw the bouquet containing the bomb, or, as some reports have it, an infernal machine which was fired by a storage battery, Morales summoned the wife of the proprietor of the house and asked her to bring him a glass of soda water, apparently to steady his nerves.

Among the many articles of luxury left by Morales in his room were a suitcase containing handsomely mounted reptiles, valued at $100; a light summer overcoat lined with silk, worth $60; several articles of linen having the initials cut out; a plan of Madrid with the route of the cortege traced upon it; a number of tins containing chemicals, evidently used as ingredients in the manufacture of the explosive with which the bomb was charged, and a white cloth with several blood spots on it.

At first this was a mystery to the police, but the theory of the chief of detectives accompanying the Prince of Wales is that the spots resulted from an accident while fixing the chemicals. The detective says this indicates that the perpetrator of the outrage was not skilled in the use of explosives and probably acted before No. 88 Mayor street, as otherwise the explosion would have occurred while their Majesties were on their way to the church instead of returning, as their route was through Mayor street both going and returning.

M. Jabini, chief of the Italian detectives accompanying the Duke of Genoa, says that the programme of Morales does not correspond with that of any of the known anarchists on the lists of the police.

The general theory of the police is that the author of the outrage had a larger political end than ordinary anarchists and was connected with some general policy.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S NUPTIALS MARKED BY EVIL OMEN.—MADRID, June 1.—As she stepped from the splintered royal mabogany carriage to the ground, just after the bomb hurled at King Alfonso yesterday had exploded, the 12-foot train of Queen Victoria swept across the blood pool on the pavement, and as she entered the new carriage, she bore with her a bloody imprint of the dreadful scene created a moment previously. On the superstitious Spaniards the remarkable incident has created a most profound impression.

MISCHANCE—Indeed, much more so than is generally known—was the escape of King Alfonso from the assassin. Only the chain of his Portuguese Order of Santiago saved his life. A fragment of the bomb struck his breast where the chain crossed. The chain was broken, but it stopped the piece of steel that otherwise would have struck the young sovereign's breast and probably left him lying on the Calle Mayor beside the bodies of over a score of his bravest soldiers.

SEARCHES MADE BY THE POLICE DISCLOSE the fact that the author of the outrage was a man of luxury and wealth. He left many valuables and fine clothes behind him in his hurried flight. He bought a bouquet of flowers before the attempt and concealed the bomb within it.

GENERAL Weyer was seriously wounded by the bomb explosion. Five of the wounded are dying. The magnitude of the affair increases. The number of killed is now given at 20 and the wounded at 90. During the night 30 arrests were made, but the person who actually threw the bomb is apparently still at large.

THE SEARCHES MADE BY THE POLICE DISCLOSE the fact that the author of the outrage was a man of luxury and wealth. He left many valuables and fine clothes behind him in his hurried flight. He bought a bouquet of flowers before the attempt and concealed the bomb within it.

THE SEARCHES MADE BY THE POLICE DISCLOSE the fact that the author of the outrage was a man of luxury and wealth. He left many valuables and fine clothes behind him in his hurried flight. He bought a bouquet of flowers before the attempt and concealed the bomb within it.

T. T. GEER FLAYS THE GOVERNOR

Effective Hit Made by Ex-Governor.

ROUSING REPUBLICAN RALLY

Democratic Nominee's Record Is Exposed.

FALSE CLAIMS DENOUNCED

Fallacy of Non-Partisanship Talk on the Part of the Democratic Candidates Is Clearly Shown in an Able Address.

No candidate for Governor ever received a more demonstrative reception in Portland than that accorded to Dr. James Withycombe when he addressed an audience that filled Burkhard Hall in East Portland, last night. When the Republican nominee for Governor entered the room he was greeted with an outburst of applause which continued until he reached the platform. As he rose to speak, prolonged applause and cheers gave expression to the admiration, confidence and good will which the people feel for the Republican leader.

Withycombe's speech was not the principal address of the evening, but in his brief remarks he made a most favorable impression upon his hearers by his earnestness and sincerity. All over the state he has been making addresses in which he has discussed the issues of the day in every detail. Last night he yielded the principal place on the programme to ex-Governor T. T. Geer, who exposed the unfounded claims that have been made by the Democratic Governor Geer's effective puncturing of Democratic campaign arguments was greeted with applause so frequent and so hearty that it is evident the people are not being successfully deceived by Chamberlain's self-praise.

CHAMBERLAIN'S LAW PARTNER.—Chamberlain's law partner acts as agent for the State Land Board in lending state funds, and draws compensation therefor. The corporation and inheritance tax bills, for the enactment of which Chamberlain claims credit, were drafted and introduced by Republican members of the Legislature before Chamberlain made any recommendations on the subject.

THE LOANING OF idle school funds was brought about by the reduction of the rate of interest on school district loans from 2 to 3 per cent, and not by any act of Chamberlain, as the latter claims.

THE OFFICIAL RECORDS DISPROVE Chamberlain's assertion that when he went into office ten lands were selling for $2.50 an acre and the price was raised to $7.50. Before Geer's term ended the board raised the price to $5 an acre.

THE DEMOCRATS WILL show their non-partisanship by voting the Democratic ticket straight. Let Republicans show their non-partisanship by voting the Republican ticket straight.

DR. WITHYCOMBE'S ADDRESS.—Dr. James Withycombe was introduced in a neat address, giving an account of his work in bringing order out of chaos at the State Agricultural College when it state funds, for which service he receives compensation in proportion to the amount of work done. The crowd saw the point when Geer remarked that of course the partnership had nothing to do with the agency.

THE MEETING WAS presided over by City Treasurer J. E. Werlein, who opened the meeting in a short address, in which he called attention to the great difference that exists in the Republican party now as compared with four years ago. Then the Republican party was divided upon factional lines because of dissatisfaction with nominations made by conventions.

THIS YEAR, as a result of direct primary nominations, the party is united and Republicans are working in harmony for the success of the ticket.

STONE INVADES TILLMAN'S FIELD

Missourian Makes Attack on Roosevelt.

SAYS HE YIELDED TO TRUSTS

Purchase of Canal Supplies Furnishes Text.

PUTS ONUS ON CONGRESS

Resolution Requiring Government to Give the Americans Preference Causes Outbreak of Oratory. Calls President Weak.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—When today Aldrich sought to secure the passage by the Senate of his resolution giving the President authority to go outside the United States to buy supplies for the Panama Canal in case bids in the United States are extortionate and unreasonable, Stone took the floor in opposition to the resolution. He based his opposition on the ground that it was useless to pass it.

"NO ONE can doubt," he said, "that the President will buy practically all canal materials in America, no matter what the difference in prices here and abroad may be. If we are to judge the future by the past, there is no room for questioning what course the President will adopt. The men who contributed the stupendous slash funds, aggregating millions upon millions of dollars, to carry the last three Presidential elections for the Republican candidates, almost of necessity have their grasp upon those who accepted their princely donations.

THE BENEFICIARIES OF those enormous corruption funds may sometimes wince and shrink from the task imposed upon them, and to hide the shame of it, may now and then perform some spectacular stunt in the limelight and before the galleries, but in the end the forces which operate behind the curtain and hold the strings will have their way.

CALLS IT FOOD FOR CREDULOUS.—"But there has been so much of this blustering, and it has attracted such wide attention, that something must be done to relieve the situation. Something must be provided for public credulity to feed upon. A door must be opened for escape, and a soft place must be made for the President to fall. The scheme for all this is wrapped up in this resolution."

STONE SAID THAT about a year ago announced that they would not be held in the purchase of materials for the canal to American manufacturers of AMERICAN SHIPOWNERS. This declaration, he said, was unexpected, but nevertheless approved generally by the American people as in the interest of the general welfare. But he declared that the special interests affected resisted and won.

PRESIDENT NOT IRON MAN.—"Promptly they organized their forces to resist and to discipline him. The 'standpatters' came swarming in from every direction and a storm of protest was raised in every available quarter. The President's courage was put to the test, and it, as usual, proved unequal to the strain. There was a great thundering by him in the index with the customary Rooseveltian flourish at the finish. The iron man at the White House' again proved himself to be no iron man at all, but only what History once declared Salisbury to be 'merely a fine, fat, palmed-off, coward of iron.' The President surrendered and, instead of buying canal materials, as he vowed he would and as he repeatedly asserted it was his duty to do, in the cheapest market, he bought practically everything he purchased—88 per cent of the whole—at protected trust prices in America."

PURCHASE OF TWO STEAMERS.—In support of this contention he cited the facts in connection with the purchase from the Ward line of two ships for the canal service. "The President," he said, "opened negotiations for the purchase of foreign ships, but at the same time the batteries of American shipbuilders were opened on the President. For awhile—a short while—it really looked as if the President, for once at least, would stand his ground. But alas, our hopes were in vain; he was not equal to the task. He hauled down his flag and surrendered, instead of buying the foreign ships of 6000 tons each for $750,000, he bought two American ships of 5700 tons each for $1,500,000."

THESE VESSELS, said the Senator, had cost originally not to exceed $600,000 each, and as they had been in service about eight years, were worth 40 per cent less. This he pronounced "a shameful instance of treasury looting." He declared the President's "weakness" to be a costly thing for the country.

STONE INVADES TILLMAN'S FIELD

Missourian Makes Attack on Roosevelt.

SAYS HE YIELDED TO TRUSTS

Purchase of Canal Supplies Furnishes Text.

PUTS ONUS ON CONGRESS

Resolution Requiring Government to Give the Americans Preference Causes Outbreak of Oratory. Calls President Weak.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—When today Aldrich sought to secure the passage by the Senate of his resolution giving the President authority to go outside the United States to buy supplies for the Panama Canal in case bids in the United States are extortionate and unreasonable, Stone took the floor in opposition to the resolution. He based his opposition on the ground that it was useless to pass it.

"NO ONE can doubt," he said, "that the President will buy practically all canal materials in America, no matter what the difference in prices here and abroad may be. If we are to judge the future by the past, there is no room for questioning what course the President will adopt. The men who contributed the stupendous slash funds, aggregating millions upon millions of dollars, to carry the last three Presidential elections for the Republican candidates, almost of necessity have their grasp upon those who accepted their princely donations.

THE BENEFICIARIES OF those enormous corruption funds may sometimes wince and shrink from the task imposed upon them, and to hide the shame of it, may now and then perform some spectacular stunt in the limelight and before the galleries, but in the end the forces which operate behind the curtain and hold the strings will have their way.

CALLS IT FOOD FOR CREDULOUS.—"But there has been so much of this blustering, and it has attracted such wide attention, that something must be done to relieve the situation. Something must be provided for public credulity to feed upon. A door must be opened for escape, and a soft place must be made for the President to fall. The scheme for all this is wrapped up in this resolution."

STONE SAID THAT about a year ago announced that they would not be held in the purchase of materials for the canal to American manufacturers of AMERICAN SHIPOWNERS. This declaration, he said, was unexpected, but nevertheless approved generally by the American people as in the interest of the general welfare. But he declared that the special interests affected resisted and won.

PRESIDENT NOT IRON MAN.—"Promptly they organized their forces to resist and to discipline him. The 'standpatters' came swarming in from every direction and a storm of protest was raised in every available quarter. The President's courage was put to the test, and it, as usual, proved unequal to the strain. There was a great thundering by him in the index with the customary Rooseveltian flourish at the finish. The iron man at the White House' again proved himself to be no iron man at all, but only what History once declared Salisbury to be 'merely a fine, fat, palmed-off, coward of iron.' The President surrendered and, instead of buying canal materials, as he vowed he would and as he repeatedly asserted it was his duty to do, in the cheapest market, he bought practically everything he purchased—88 per cent of the whole—at protected trust prices in America."

PURCHASE OF TWO STEAMERS.—In support of this contention he cited the facts in connection with the purchase from the Ward line of two ships for the canal service. "The President," he said, "opened negotiations for the purchase of foreign ships, but at the same time the batteries of American shipbuilders were opened on the President. For awhile—a short while—it really looked as if the President, for once at least, would stand his ground. But alas, our hopes were in vain; he was not equal to the task. He hauled down his flag and surrendered, instead of buying the foreign ships of 6000 tons each for $750,000, he bought two American ships of 5700 tons each for $1,500,000."

THESE VESSELS, said the Senator, had cost originally not to exceed $600,000 each, and as they had been in service about eight years, were worth 40 per cent less. This he pronounced "a shameful instance of treasury looting." He declared the President's "weakness" to be a costly thing for the country.

MEXICANS SLAY MANY AMERICANS

Anarchy Follows Strike at Mines.

SURVIVORS STANDING SIEGE

Infuriated Miners Use Bullets and Dynamite.

TROOPS HURRY TO RESCUE

Threat to Exterminate American Colony at Green's Mines at Cananea—Arizona Volunteers Help Brethren in Peril.

NACOG, Ariz., June 1.—Forty-five Americans and Mexicans were killed today at Cananea, Mexico, 40 miles south of here, where is located the great copper camp of Colonel W. C. Greene. The camp is on fire, and it is reported that the Mexicans are defying all authority. They are reported to be using dynamite in blowing up the great smelters and mills owned by the Greene Company.

THE TROUBLE AROSE at Cananea over the demand of the Mexicans for an increase in wages from $2.50 to $5 per day. Parties who left there at 1:30 this afternoon said that Colonel Greene was addressing practically the entire population of the camp in an effort to pacify the excited Mexicans. However, between 4 and 5 o'clock this afternoon the Mexicans opened fire on the Americans, and 40 or more were killed.

COLONEL GREENE WROTE at once to Bisbee for all the armed men that could be sent to protect the Americans and their property at Cananea. The population of Cananea is 23,000, of which 5000 are Americans. The family of Colonel Greene arrived here this afternoon, but the Colonel remains with his property. Two trains loaded with refugees are now on the way here from Cananea, and will go to Bisbee.

REFUGEES TELL OF RIOTS.—At 11:30 tonight a trainload of refugees arrived here from the scene of the trouble and confirmed the stories received earlier in the evening. It is known that at least a dozen Americans have been killed, and 40 or 50 Mexicans. George Metcalf, who was in charge of the large lumber business of the Greene company, was one of the first men to be killed.

THE MEXICAN LABORERS had gathered in a great crowd during the forenoon, and this afternoon about 1500 of them started from the vicinity of the Sonora Hotel toward the lumber-yard. On the way they stopped at a livery stable, and tried to persuade two Mexicans at work to join them, but they refused, and when the proprietor told them the stable was his individual property and was not connected with the mining company, they left. At the lumber-yard a large fire hose was brought out, and, as the crowd approached the office, water was turned on them. At the same time Metcalf advanced on the crowd with a rifle. The Mexicans closed on him, took the gun from his hands and beat him to death with it. William Metcalf rushed to the rescue of his uncle, and was shot by the Mexicans.

BATTLE WITH MEXICAN POLICE.—After killing the two Metcalfs, the Mexicans rushed into the office and lumber yard and set fire to the building, causing the destruction of property valued at $250,000. The general office of the Greene Company was also burned. They then left the lumber yard and dynamited a powder-house near the Sonora Hotel for the purpose of securing arms and ammunition.

HERE THE MEXICAN POLICE attacked the mob, and a fierce battle ensued, several officers and a dozen strikers being killed. A train carrying 300 men left here for Cananea. Twenty-five armed men came down from Bisbee and are guarding the American line here. There has been fighting between this party and Mexican customs officials.

THE PASSAGE STARTED to cross the line half a mile below Naco and was fired on by Mexicans in ambush. One man named Buckner was shot through the arm, and several are missing. Shots are frequently heard, and it is feared that others may be killed or hurt. It is not known whether any of the ambushed Mexicans were killed or not.

MAKE LAST STAND IN CHURCH.—When the last train left Cananea Colonel Greene's residence was being barricaded and all the remaining Americans were gathering there and arming for defense. The Presbyterian Church, which is near the Greene residence, is also filled with people and barricaded. The Americans are said to be seriously handicapped for lack of ammunition. The number of striking Mexicans is estimated at 5000, and they were making threats against all Americans when the last train pulled out from the camp. There are 50 to 75 Mexican police in Cananea, and they are doing what they can to quell the disturbance. Urgent messages have been sent to Washington for assistance.

CALL ON UNITED STATES FOR HELP.—It is said that United States Consul Galbraith wired to the State Department that his life and those of all Americans

THE CHIEF PASTIME OF THE OREGON DEMOCRACY. SOLILOQUY BY THE MULE.—I HEARD THAT THE OREGONIAN, ALONG ABOUT 1851, SAID SOMETHING NICE ABOUT ANDREW JACKSON OR THOMAS JEFFERSON, OR SOME OTHER OF US DEMOCRATS. I AM GOING TO FIND IT AND SPRING IT, AND HELP ELECT CHAMBERLAIN AND GEER."