

COULDS WIN GET-AWAY GAME

Umpire Knell and Catcher Donahue Nearly Come to Blows.

FIGHT IS BARELY AVERTED

Mitt Artist Barred From Contest. Fans Enjoy Snappy Game in Rain—Score Stands 4 to 1.

Oakland took the get-away game yesterday afternoon, carrying the locals down the line to the tune of 4 to 1. The big Sunday crowd that wasn't frightened by the rain saw some trimmings thrown into the matinee that were not on the programme and seemed rather to enjoy the diamond mass meeting that took place between Umpire Knell and Catcher Donahue. Knell has been making it uncomfortable for the alternated Portland catcher all week and the fans were not surprised when the "almost punching match" took place. One day last week Knell refused to allow Donahue a base after he had been hit a frightful belt on the hand. Donahue's hand has been in mourning ever since, but Knell wouldn't look or listen and when Donahue protested Knell plastered him with a $5 fine. Yesterday there was little excuse for Knell's driving the catcher out of the game. The row started over Knell's calling Van Halten safe at second, when he looked out by a city block. Donahue took off his mask and brisquet pad, but when he straightened up, he realized that Van Halten had been called safe. Donahue stood looking at Knell. The diamond officials must have considered Donahue's silence offensive and chased him out of the game. If it hadn't been for Henderson and a few more cool heads on the Portland team, blows would have been exchanged.

The break in the local lineup brought Mitchell in from left field. McLean from first, his old station, behind the bat, and Califf rambled into the garden.

Commuters Get First Blow.

The Commuters still kept up their habit of getting the first run. Henderson struck Van Halten out, but Knell wouldn't stand for it and the veteran finally sneaked in a safe single. Henderson's wild weave and Moore's miscue sent Van Halten home. In the third canto Portland tied the score on McLean's single. That was all for McCredie's hired men. Henderson and Bill Reidy shot them down the groove. The Portland twirler certainly lost a tough game, for he seemingly had everything. In the second inning Henderson slid them down the groove so slumily that the three men who faced him shattered the atmosphere. Then in the third inning he fanned Van Halten and Franks, making it five straight. Henderson's final act on record was eight. Reidy was also there with the foolisher, only he managed to keep the hits as far apart as Christmas and Fourth of July.

base on balls in the sixth and a sneaking, many two-base wallop which J. Hackett sent adrift in the right field gave the visitors a run. Jud Smith did the trick in the field and hit the ball for a larger total than the locals, but Franks worked on the bases and a bunching of hits at an opportune time gave Butte the game. Hoon was taken ill and was relieved by Doyle in the fifth. The score: Butte 4, Gray's Harbor 4.

BUTTE, Mont., June 3.—Butte won today's game through hard hitting in the fourth and the locals' lead was never overcome. Gray's Harbor put up a splendid game in the field and hit the ball for a larger total than the locals, but Franks worked on the bases and a bunching of hits at an opportune time gave Butte the game. Hoon was taken ill and was relieved by Doyle in the fifth. The score: Butte 4, Gray's Harbor 4.

Nails Game to Cross. Buck Franks opened the eighth chapter with a two-sacker, nailing the game to the cross. Kruger's attempt to sacrifice made Henderson woody and he missed the ball, saving Ome's run. Franks went down and T. Hackett again started things by hitting again to right. Franks scored on the hit and Kruger, who was almost telegraphing scores when Manager McCredie juggled the ball.

Portland never had a look-in to give the crowd a garrison finish, although McLean hit for two bags while the rain was falling hard. He was marooned at second, because two were down when he hit into the lot.

This afternoon Los Angeles will play off one of their postponed games. Judge McCredie, realizing that it was election day and that a great many of the places would be closed, wired Manager Frank Dillon asking him to return from Seattle in time to play. Los Angeles will finish the week.

Seals Take the Final Game. OAKLAND, June 3.—The Seals took the final game of the series from Fresno this afternoon by the score of 4 to 1. Randolph, the Alameda pitcher, did the trick. He allowed two hits, both doubles, in the first inning, and they brought in the only run, but thereafter only one safety was made off his delivery. Hain prevented the morning game. Tuesday Oakland supplies the Fresno team. Score: R H E San Fran. 3 4 Fresno 1 Batteries—Randolph and Wilson; Fitzgerald and Dashwood.

Cincinnati 4-0, St. Louis 2-3.

CINCINNATI, June 3.—Cincinnati and St. Louis played a double-header this afternoon. In the first game, errors by visitors contributed largely to the defeat. Pitcher Egan, of St. Louis, was put out of the game in the third inning of the first game for disputing a decision. The second game was called at the end of the seventh inning. Druhot held the locals down to one hit. Ewing was hit hard. The score: R H E Cincinnati 4 St. Louis 2-3 Batteries—Weimer and Livingston; Egan, Hoelskoetter and McCarty.

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE.

Spokane 9-4, Tacoma 3-0. SPOKANE, Wash., June 3.—Tacoma and Spokane broke even in two games here today. Spokane won the morning game by hitting Finney in spots, bunching eight of their nine safeties in two innings and scoring all their nine runs at those times. In the afternoon Spokane had the game well in hand till the seventh, when rain began falling heavily. Despite the protest of Manager Stanley, Umpire Dodd refused to call the game. Tacoma scored seven runs in the mud, which proved enough to win the game. Relay Race a Novelty.

The relay race, the annual novelty, is receiving careful attention from those who are to ride in it, and when June 9 comes the people will see something never before attempted, west of the Rocky mountains. The best riding club will constitute the two teams of four each, for it is a feat that calls for expert horsemanship. One little failure to control a horse for just a moment may mean the defeat of one team. Handsome cups have been donated for all the races and will be on display in a few days. BANG-TAILS WILL RUN FOR SOCIETY

Annual Race Meet of Portland Hunt Club Next Saturday.

FINE CARD IS ARRANGED

Lovers of the Thoroughbred Looking Forward to Day of Glorious Sport Gentlemen Jockeys to Ride in All the Entries.

Society has just paid its respects to the blue-blooded canines at the bench show Saturday it will show its love for the leet-footed, sleek-coated thoroughbred at the annual June meeting of the Portland Hunt Club, which gives promise of being the best in the history of the organization. For weeks past members of the club have had their mounts at the Irvington track under skilled trainers, getting their "preps" for the coming races. The riders also have been getting into condition themselves and only rain can spoil a day's good sport.

In all there will be eight races. Each race will have more starters than have ever before faced the tape in a Hunt Club event. John Boggs, owned by H. E. Herdman, and ridden by E. B. Tongue; Stimy, owned by Mr. Davis, and ridden by Charles Leadbetter; Mike Wladom, owned by Thomas and ridden by Mr. McGrath; Call Bond, owned by Mr. Nichol and ridden by Mr. Chapman; Jim Budd, owned and ridden by Mr. Howard—all of these are horses that have many good races to their credit, and that can carry the required 140 pounds and still negotiate the distance in fast time. In fact, this race is expected to be one of the fastest on the card.

Short Dash a Problem.

The three-eighths dash presents some difficulties to the club management. There are a great many entries, some of which far outclass the others. Bead, owned by Mr. Fazio, and ridden by Mr. Muehe; Joe Jewett, owned and ridden by Mr. Brooks; Cricket, owned and ridden by Mr. Metzger, and one or two others, really belong in a class by themselves. Considering this fact and the large number of entries, it would seem wise to divide the field into two classes and have two dashes. This would also simplify the handicapping which must be done for this race. The directors are talking of doing this, and the probabilities are that they will carry out the plan.

In the fat men's race, a quarter-mile dash, there are four entries. Mr. Fatulo, owned by Mr. Fazio, and ridden by Mr. Muehe; they are all good riders, and each has a horse which is absolutely certain to come under the wire a full length ahead of any of the others. Mr. Dowling, who has this race in charge, has based out on his guard by this bit of information, and he is on the lookout to see that no "bitter" are foisted upon the unsuspecting public.

LITTLE MONEY BET ON THE ELECTION

Less Than in Any Previous State Campaign of Past Twenty Years.

ODDS AGAINST TOM WORD

Stevens Favorite at Seven and a Half to Ten—Bourne Cash Goes at Two to One—Withycombe Two and One-Half to Two.

Less than $10,000 has been bet on today's election, and men who never wager a dollar except on elections say that there has been less money risked on today's outcome than upon any previous Oregon state election during the last 20 years. Two years ago Ed Schiller handled about $18,000. Up to last night the wagers placed with him amounted to $10,000. Every dollar there Spencer is perhaps the only man in the city who has wagered more than $1000. Of the others who have bet on the outcome of the election none have put up more than $500.

Before the primaries Democratic money was plentiful, both to bet on the re-election of Governor Chamberlain and on Tom Word. Many of the wise ones believed before the primaries that Governor Chamberlain could not be beaten unless some money was bet at that time. Many of the wagers placed on Word being returned to the Sheriff's office were hedged with the condition that if he receives the primary nomination, in Portland before the primaries there were many wise Republicans, and Democrats as well, who believed that if Word received the nomination he would be elected, and perhaps not less than $2000 would be bet on him.

All this, of course, took place before the big move to elect the entire Republican ticket was started. At that time Democrats and betting Republicans who wanted Tom Word for Sheriff for another two years had plenty of money and were willing to give odds. Since the fight for election of the entire Republican ticket has stirred up the voters there has been a switch in sentiment and also a decided shrinkage of Democratic wagers.

Democrats Are Afraid to Bet.

The fact of the matter is, taking the betting as a criterion, that while the Democrats are displaying a bold front and claiming a victory, they have hidden their money. Every dollar of Democratic money that has been "flushed" during the past few days has been gobbled up by men who are confident that Bob Stevens will defeat Word.

Most of the money bet during the past week in Portland has been wagered on the election of the Sheriff. Perhaps not more than $300 has been bet on the gubernatorial election. There has never been a great deal of Chamberlain money in sight. Tom Word for Sheriff for another two years, that is, not since the primaries.

Yesterday 2 and 3/4 to 1 was offered without takers that Withycombe would defeat Chamberlain. Two to 1 money that Bourne would be the next Senator also went begging. In some places 5 to 1 was offered on Bourne. Several hundred dollars worth of money was bet that that woman suffrage will carry the election.

Tom Word Backs Himself.

The fight for the Sheriff's office seems to be the best betting proposition. Most of the cash bet on this contest, perhaps $5000, has been at even money. Word, it is understood, has bet $500 himself that he will be returned to office. The battle between Word and Stevens has attracted the attention of Captain Spencer and up to last night it is said that he had wagered about $1000 on Stevens.

Fire Commissioners Make Awards.

The Fire Commissioners Saturday morning awarded to Lang & Muir, of Portland, the contract for three hose wagons at $20 each. The contract for $600 worth of fire alarm apparatus was awarded to the A. J. Coffey Company, of Seattle. Bids to furnish the city with four fire engines were also opened, but all of the figures were above the amount voted by the Council. A. G. Long submitted the lowest bid, $19,500, and it was referred to the Council. Bids for the improvement of the

The office was never so well managed as now, notwithstanding the opposition of County Judge Webster.

Dr. Hill Indorses Word.

Rev. E. P. Hill, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, addressed his congregation last night on the coming election. He said that although he did not want to engage in a political discussion, he thought that the election of a Sheriff directly concerned the moral interests of the city and urged all to vote for Tom Word. He concluded his address with the statement that if his own father were a candidate for the position he would nevertheless support Word.
