JAPAN STRIVING TO GET MONOPOLY

Many Devices to Exclude Foreigners From Trade of Manchuria.

FLOOD OF CHEAP GOODS

Government Guarantees Loan to Cotton Trust and Pays Half Its Freight—Foreign Goods Pay Duty, Japanese Free.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 19.—The steamer Empress of China brought advices of measures adopted by Japan to corral the Manchurian and Corean trade, which will handicap foreign merchants if not prevent them from competing with Japanese exporters in Manchuria and Corea. The programme includes the making of Dalny a free port in the sense that import duty will be remitted on Japanese goods for Manchuria though collected on foreign goods. By means of bounties and subsidies Japan will encourage her subjects to flood Corea and Manchuria with all kinds of goods at low prices, with which the foreign merchant can hardly hope to compete, especially under the new custom rates which go into effect next October.

Government Backing Trusts.

The Japanese Times, of Tokio, gives the first hint of the protective measures planned. This paper says a cotton trust has been formed by the largest exporters in Japan, who will work through the Mitsui Company, and the Government has agreed to guarantee a maximum loan of $3,000,000. The government will further assist by bearing half the marine freightage and remitting freight rates for one year on the Japanese section of the Chinese Eastern Railway in Manchuria. Similar arrangements will be made with other corporations formed to ship beer, cement, matches, marine products, timber and other exports of Japan.

Several Japanese newspapers point out that these measures will make the foreign merchants' chances of competing with the Japanese in Manchuria and Corea small indeed, and some papers speak of the arrangements as likely to provoke the animosity of foreign powers.

Brigands Hanged in Manchuria.

A Japanese who formed a brigade of mounted brigands in Manchuria has been captured by Yuan Shih Kai's troops and turned over to Japan for punishment. Eleven recognized brigand leaders captured at the same time were beheaded.

On June 2, Manchurian brigands seized a railway train of 16 trucks laden with 9000 German rifles, being sent to the Tartar Generals of Kirin and Amur from Mukden by order of Yuan Shih Kai.

EXPECTS CHINESE REVOLT.

Russian Army Officer Accuses Japan of Bad Faith in Manchuria.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 19.—General Dessimo, a noted Russian military officer, who was stationed at Shanghai in charge of the Russian Far Eastern intelligence bureau during the war, arrived here today on the steamer Empress of China, accompanied by his family and Lieutent-Colonel Bondareff, his aide de camp, on a tour of the United States before returning to St. Petersburg.

In an interview, General Dessimo said he expected another Chinese outbreak before long—a general patriotic movement to free China from foreign restrictions. Within the last two years there has been a growing movement to secure China for the Chinese without foreign interference and before he left Shanghai this movement was assuming an alarming phase.

The Russian evacuation of Manchuria, he said, was proceeding satisfactorily and affairs were peaceful in Manchuria and Siberia, the reported rioting at Harbin and Vladivostok being mainly due to socialistic propaganda and having been settled. Reports of brigandage in Manchuria and North China were circulated, he said, by the Japanese in order to furnish excuse for delay in leaving Manchuria. The Japanese were causing considerable annoyance to merchants in the Far East by their manner of restricting the trade of Manchuria to their own nation, although professing to open various cities to general trade.

COREAN REBELLION SPREADS

Japan Finds Rebels Armed With Obsolete Weapons Easy Prey.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 19.—The steamer Empress of China, which arrived today from Yokohama, brought further advices of the revolution in Corea, which was spreading. The insurgents lost heavily at Hongju. When the Japanese blew up the city gates, protracted street fighting took place, but the Coreans were helpless with their obsolete arms against the modern weapons of the Japanese. Two Japanese were killed and two wounded, and 85 insurgents killed and 175 made prisoners, including the wounded.

A number of influential and wealthy Coreans were among the prisoners, who were to be dealt with according to military law. The rebels numbered over 1000 under Ming Chyongsik, before reported killed, but it transpires that he escaped to Tokusan, where the rebels were in strength.

Some tragic occurrences took place at Hongju. A Japanese gendarme and some police taken by the rebels were executed upon the city wall in sight of the Japanese, who were investing the place. Sergeant Hijitaka, who was wounded during the assault, committed suicide because of his chagrin at not being able to take part in the entry to the city after the gates were blown up.

Major Tanaka, in charge of the Japanese, reported capturing 352 rifles, as many gun barrels, several hundred spears, lances and swords, a quantity of gunpowder and rice. The arms were obsolete and the ammunition of little value.

The rebellion has spread to four provinces, being most serious in ongwando, angnaeung, Uijin and Yongdaun, which were looted. At Uijin the Government offices were burned and at Yongchun four officials and the magistrate's wife were carried away, the local treasury looted of several thousand yen and a quantity of arms taken fro mthe military barracks.

In Kongwondo the rebels are posting proclamations that they will kill all Coreans who have cut off their top-knots or wear their hair in foreign style. Unrest is general throughout Corea and fugitives are flocking to defensible centers.

Frederick L. Power, Actor.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Frederick L. Power, 40 years old, stage director of the Bush Temple theater, whose tongue was cut out last December in order to check a cancerous growth, died yesterday at his old home in Dowager, Mich., the operation having failed to check the disease.

Mr. Power had been in the theatrical business for 27 years. He first played with John T. Raymond in "The Gilded Age," when he was 12 years old. He played in Richard Mansfield's and Walker Whiteside's companies and was leading man with Margaret Mather. He was best known in late years as a director of stock companies.

COMPANIES WOLF MAY SUE

Names Those Which Disobey Law and May Forfeit Licenses.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The following insurance companies, by reason of their failing to comply with Insurance Commissioner Wolf's demand that they either sign stipulations extending the time for filing proofs of loss to August 18 or furnish the Commissioner with their lists of policy-holders, have rendered themselves liable to forfeiture of their right to do business in the State of California:

Agricultural, American of Boston, American of Philadelphia, Concordia, Delaware of Philadelphia, Dutchess, Eagle, German of Peoria, Germania, Globe and Rutgers, Girard, New York of New York, Northwestern Fire & Marine, National Union, North German of New York, Spring Garden, Security of Baltimore, Traders, Union of Philadelphia, Westchester, Western Underwriters.

Commissioner Wolf intends to proceed against these companies without delay unless advised to the contrary by the Attorney-General of the State. He made this statement yesterday, and added:

"Furthermore, it will be my business to see that these companies are compelled to meet their just obligations. If any retire without paying, I shall ask that action be taken against them by the insurance commissioners of the State under whose laws they are incorporated."

DISHONEST MORTAR THE CAUSE

Japanese Tells How to Make Earthquake-Proof Buildings.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—"Dishonest mortar—a corrupt conglomeration of sea sand and lime—was responsible for nearly all of the earthquake damage in San Francisco," says Dr. T. Nakamura, professor of architecture of the Imperial University of Tokio and member of the committee dispatched to this city by the Japanese government to investigate the effects of the tremblore and fire. Dr. Nakamura will sail on the Korea Wednesday, to report to his government.

"I find," said Dr. Nakamura yesterday, "that much of the damage to San Francisco from the earthquake was due to poor mortar and faulty construction, and the greater portion of the damage to the class "A" buildings by fire was the result of misguided use of hollow tiling and so-called fire blocks instead of concrete.

"There has developed as a result of the earthquake in San Francisco, great prejudice against brick buildings. However, they are largely employed in Japan, where earthquakes of greater severity than the one experienced in this city are not uncommon. The secret of their success, however, lies in the fact that good mortar is used. The mortar should either be composed of one part cement to two parts of sand, or of one part cement, three of lime, and five of sand. The bricks should be thoroughly wet before being laid, and when the mortar has set under these conditions, a wall becomes practically one stone."

SHAW WILL MAKE BIG DEPOSIT

San Francisco Assured of $12,000,000 of Government Funds.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—A tacit agreement was reached today by the President, Secretary Shaw and the delegation of representative citizens of San Francisco by which substantial aid will be given San Francisco by the Government. It is proposed that the United States Treasury deposit with the San Francisco banks $12,000,000 of Government money, with bonds of the city as security, the money to remain in the banks until the Government shall call for it. This may not be for a number of years, so that the deposit will be of value in the reconstruction of the city.

Under the law the Secretary of the Treasury has authority to deposit Government funds in this way, but cannot bind his successor. It is hoped in California to organize a corporation with a capital of several millions of dollars, to issue bonds to guarantee the Government against loss through the banks.

Other plans have been suggested for the raising of money to enable the people of San Francisco to rebuild their homes and business houses, but thus far nothing has been proposed that will meet the ideas of Congress.

Denicke Committed No Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—Ernest H. Denicke, a prominent young clubman, son of E. A. Denicke, a millionaire banker, and graduate of the State University, who on April 20 killed an unknown man on the water front, was dismissed by Presiding Judge Shortall today, who told him he had done his duty and committed no crime under the law.

Denicke's defense was that the killing was justified, as the victim was a looter who had wrested a weapon from a marine on guard duty.

Land Fund for California.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The House today passed a bill granting to the State of California 5 per cent of the net proceeds of the sale of public lands.

Lax Food Inspection in Great Britain

CHELMSFORD, England, June 19.—At a meeting of the District Council today, Dr. Thresh, medical officer of the Health Board, reporting on the canned meat question, deprecated alarmist publications and said Britons should remove the beam from their own eyes before attempting to remove the moat from their brothers' eye.

It was notorious, he declared, that less attention was paid to food inspection in Great Britain than in any civilized country. No doubt some food was prepared under disgusting conditions; but the food most implicated did not come to England, and the danger arising from imported products has been enormously exaggerated.

East Side Improvement Association.

At the meeting of the East Side Improvement Association last evening, C. H. Meusdorffer, C. E. Fields and V. C. Dunning, committee, were instructed to ask the Portland Railway Company to expedite the repairs on Union avenue so that regular car service could be resumed over Burnside bridge. W. H. McMonies reported that three men had started on the improvement of Union avenue south from East Burnside, and he thought the street might be improved by Christmas. A special committee was appointed to wait on the County Court this morning and ask that the East Side Justice Court be not removed from Central East Portland as proposed by the Justice-elect. It was considered that the present location would best serve the general public. Messrs. Daley, Newhall and Buchtell were appointed a special committee to search out any business men who have come from San Francisco to start business on the East Side and make them welcome. H. H. Newhall reported that the elevated roadway on East Washington street, between Seventh and Eighth streets would be repaired and thrown open to the public at once.

ADD INCH TO SHIRT

Kansas Farmers Have Original Campaign Issue.

TO HELP COTTONGROWERS

"Down With the Shirt" the Farmers Cry in Unison, but Political Chieftains Stand Aghast at the Suggestion.

TOPEKA, Kans., June 19.—(Special).—"Down with the shirt" will be a campaign cry among the Kansas farmers this Fall. Not that the agriculturists wish to do away with that part of the male attire which is tucked within the trousers; not that they are favoring a return to Adamic simplicity in matter of dress—Oh, no, "down with the shirt" means rather a lengthening of that garment, an addition of one inch, front and rear to the tails that are never displayed to the public gaze except from the back yard line on washing day.

Behind the movement is a great altruistic purpose—a benefaction to a host of tillers of the soil. Unionism is rampant on the prairies of the Sunflower State and the farmers are being urged to form themselves into a league for the amelioration of the entire brotherhood, the raising of the mortgages, the selling of crops, etc. When a doubter asked skeptically: "How can a farmer help any one except himself?" one of the torchbearers of the new faith, the editor of a farming journal, covered him with shame by answering:

Origin of New Campaign Cry.

"Why, we could sell the whole cotton crop of the United States at a high rate simply by taking thought and adding an inch to the tail of our shirts."

The scoffer was covered with confusion and the slogan:

"Longer shirts and a Grand piano on every cotton ranch", is now ringing through the commonwealth.

The periodical has begun a vigorous campaign for an extension of the shirt-tail. If the movement takes root it is to be expected that walking delegates wearing their shirts outside their overalls, a la Chinois, in order to testify their good faith, will travel from farm to farm, bearing a yardstick and calling every Cincinnatus from the plow to be measured.

"Just step behind this tree, and let's see if you belong to the union, pardner," will replace: "How's crops?" as a greeting. And woe be unto him who refuses to disrobe.

Barred by Party Chairman.

The idea is being taken seriously in many localities, but the Republican and Democratic campaign committees steadfastly refuse to incorporate it into their platforms. Messrs. Ryan and Crummer, the respective state chairmen, argued today that the lengthening of the shirt might be a menace to the modesty of the entire Nation in the event of a light crop.

"The supply might be used up prematurely, and we would then have to wear shirts without any tails at all during the Winter," they declared with manifestations of fright.

Revision of the tariff was the issue which led to the flaunting of the shirt-tail throughout the state. Colonel W. A. Harris, Democratic candidate for Governor, favored tariff reform with vigor in his letter of acceptance. The editor of the Farmer's Advocate, in commenting upon Colonel Harris' words, calculated that the addition of one inch to the shirt-tails of the Nation would consume the entire cotton crop and prevent any exportation. The argument ran up and down the state like wild fire, and is now upon every farmer's lips. It has not, however, the sanction of Governor Hoch, whose private secretary, Charles Sessions, said for him:

"This issue of the shirt-tail seems to be about the limit."

IMMUNITY BILL CONFERENCE.

Each House Passes Different Measure to Abolish Both.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The recent failure to convict the beef packers in Chicago of conspiracy under the interstate commerce law, because of the claim of immunity set up by them and sustained by the court, has given Congress no end of anxious moments with a view to enacting some law that will remedy the defects from which the Government suffered by reason of Judge Humphrey's decision. The Senate passed a bill on the subject which the House also passed, inserting an entirely new bill after the enacting clause. It will now go to conference. The House bill follows the lines laid down by Attorney-General Moody in the packers' case.

Explaining the provisions of the House measure, Littlefield said:

"The House bill provides that immunity shall be granted only to natural persons who testify on oath in some proceeding authorized by the statutes or in obedience to a subpena to produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and establishes a definite legal standard, by virtue of which it can be determined by a public record when and to whom immunity has been granted. It also confines immunity to witnesses on the part of the Government. Under it the Government will know when it is conferring immunity and the witness will know just when he is protected in making an incriminating statement."
