Portland, 1. Looks like a donation party, doesn't Looks like a donation party, doesn't it? Well, it wasn't. Lightning hit those McCredie hired men in two spots yester-day afternoon. The first volt caused Manager McCredie's young men, himself included, to have dropsy, and the other -Roy Hitt-scattered a barrel of pulver-bad alum all over the home ident, cause ized alum all over the home latent, caus-ing a great shrinkage in batting aver-

After the opening canto Parke Wilson and his Seals ran over the Rose City athletes with all the mad abandon of a French red devil increasing the death rate. Manager Mc, Judd Smith and hand-some Bill Essick made those errors of commission which were heaved into the engagement. There was also a wild toss by Moore that helped materially in pll-ing up the runs for the refugees from the earthquake belt.

Locals in Bad Way.

Just why the locals get into that wretched habit of drop 'em and boot 'em is hard to fathom. Might it he the presence of those new cushions that adorn the stations? Was it the presence of the German band that regaled the occathe German band that regaled the occa-sion with their noise or was it the presence of the grandstand of beauty that graced ladies' day? The jinks were there and have been for two days. It might have been the curse of the fellow whose hat blew out of the car window and through the crown of which a bony nag thrust his iron-shod hoof. But no matter! Mr. Wilson's Scals put in a large afternoon singing "I Always Likes My Chicken" while they were rip-ping the feathers off of Bill Eastch's slants, which on previous occasions have gone down in the records as lallapalslants, which on previous occasions have gone down in the records as lallapal-loosas. Essick had been saved in the furnace of endeavor, because Manager Mc wanted to make it three straight. The visitors had something to say about welding the victory, and before the cur-tain fell on the final scene they sent Bill Essick back to the scrap heap.

Hitt's Brilliant Work.

The game, with the exception of the brilliant hox work of Roy Hitt, and the Swat Bund that his fellow Seals held, was buff around the corners and yellow all over. Hildebrand popped up & fly in the sixth that fell unmolested between McLean and Except. By the time Smith the sixth that fell unmolested between McLean and Essick. By the time Smith had gathered it in, Hildebrand was roost-ing on second, making a two-bagger and the ball not hit out of the lot. Then in the seventh inning, with two down. MEADE WILL MANAGE ANGELS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.-(Special)-When the Los Angeles Pacific Coast League team returns home early in July its business interests will be looked after by Glibert Meade. Just now Meade is better known in business circles in the South than in baseball, but there was a south than in basebalt, out there was a time when he was identified with the national game. At the time Jim Morley was running a laundry wagon and scor-ing for the Los Angeles club, Meade was one of the stockholders.
