

LOOK FOR ADVANCE

Stronger Tone of Eastern Sugar Market.

RAWS ARE MOVING UPWARD

All Indications Point to an Increase in Values, but That It May Be Limited is Inferred From the Statistical Position.

SUGAR—Eastern market decidedly strong. WHEAT—Weekly statistics. PROVISIONS—Hams higher and bacon lower.

A slight advance in the raw sugar market at New York Monday leads the trade to look for an upward movement in refined grades at any moment.

Stocks of raw sugar held in Cuba, according to the latest advices, were 27,000 tons, against 200,000 at the same time last year.

WEEKLY WHEAT STATISTICS. Visible supply and shipments from Exporters. The weekly wheat statistics, issued by the Merchants' Exchange, show the American supply to be as follows:

NEW YORK HOP CROP.

Hail Storm Causes Further Damage to Vines in That State.

Latest advices from New York State point to a hop crop considerably smaller than that of last year.

CANTALOUPE BY THE CARLOAD.

First Large Shipment Reached Portland Yesterday.

A car of cantaloupes arrived last evening. Half of it was left here and the remainder sent on to Seattle.

Changes in Hams and Bacon.

Hams were advanced and bacon lowered by a new local provisions price that issued yesterday.

found the capacity of the local trade to absorb them, and but for a shipping outlet, further abating would be necessary.
