Rockefeller Interests Must Pay.

SEATTLE, June 28 .- Fred W. Wilmans

one of the best-known mining men in the Pacific Northwest, yesterday received tel-egraphic advices from New York to the effect that the Supreme Court of that state has handed down a decision in the famous case involving the mining property known as the Pride of the Mountains, located in the Monte Cristo district, Snohomish County, which has been before the courts for 14 years. The decision of the court finds for the plaintings, of whom Mr. Wilmans is one in the sun.

of whom Mr. Wilmans is one, in the sum of $175,000.

The decision is against the Rockefeller interests, who paid only one-half of the $350,000 purchase price on the mine.

Springfield May Be Terminus.

Portland won a 4 to 3 10-inning scramble Portland won a 4 to 3 10-inning scramble from Mique Fisher's finest yesterday. The announcement is merely made in passing so that the butcher, the baker and candle-stick maker may be "wised up" on what really happened to the Brown Dog. The weather man got his taps crossed yesterday, much to the disgust of Mr. Higgins and Mique Fisher. The disgust of Messes. Fisher and Higgins et al, was due to the fact that it rained down town while the sun shone at Twenty-fourth due to the fact that it rained down town while the sun shone at Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets, and those who grease the turnstiles with scapine kept their filtby lucre in their pockets. It was different with the Brown Dog. He dug into his pockets and yielded his. Not more than a corporal's guard and John Sainpolls took a gamble on the Washington weather and hiked to the ball park, where Bill Essick, Larry McLean and fluster-headed Coleman and the rest of the McCredle household perform. Mr. Sainpolis took a seat in the Douma row behind Portland's perch and viewed the game from underneath a hat spread at game from underneath a hat spread at rogulsh angles. George Baker's heavy actor man, when the game ran into extra innings, telephoned home that he was at the bedside of a sick friend—no, he did not have in mind Mique Fisher—and told the folks at home to cut out his soup and fish. He was glad that he stayed, for he left the grounds smiling underneath his dome covering.

Essick and McGregor.

Essick and McGregor.

Bill Essick and Fisher's pet progeny McGregor were the stem artists. Bill was there with his oxone market and when the curtain fell on the final scene 13 of the visitors hit holes in the atmosphere. Bill's performance was gilt-edge but for two spots. In the fifth spasm Fresno clustered three bingles off him and these bunched with a tight-fit decision at first base which counted for the aliens, tied up the game. After this Bill and his right stem was pretty much the whole show. In the tenth Smith wanged one safe-and Lister walked. Larry McLean, who caught a whirlwind game and banged the ball four safe times, one a two-bagger, attempted to sacrifice. He dumped the ball down and messed up Fresno's bagger, attempted to sacrifice. He dumped the ball down and messed up Fresno's inner works so that he reached the initial sack safe. This left the winning of the game to Coleman. The kid had worked like an old machine and he waited until it stood two to three, then he finally grew weary and smashed one between third and short, scoring Smith with the winning run. This helped the Brown Dog loose.

McLean Starts the Scoring.

McLean's two-bagger started the scorone to Eagan that "Truck" falled to stop and McLean came on home. In the third Smith drew a blanket policy and so did Lister. McLean joited one into deep cen-ter that Dole almost grappled. The ball alid through his fingers and Smith scored. Fresno made one in its half. Jimmy Mc-Hale, who got three swats in four times up, hit for two sacks in the fourth. Sweeney sacrificed him, but Mitcheil's infield poke got Jimmy into trouble. While Fresno's infield and a part of the outfield was trying to morgue McHale between home and third Mitchell took the switch at third. Mike scored on McCredia's hit at third. Mike scored on McCredie's hit The tie up came in the fifth. McGregor famed and Doyle singled. Wolters hit safe and was forced at second by Casey. Casey stole second and when Knell called Eagan safe at first Doyle and Casey scored. This is the last you will hear of Fresno in this game.

BROWNSVILLE, Or., June 25.—(Special.)—One of the features of the Linn County Pioneers' gathering, which was BROWNSVILLE, Or., June 25.—(Special.)—One of the leatures of the Lana County Ploneers' gathering, which held here June 20, 21 and 23, was the Brownsville Boys' Band. The music at the Pioneers' celebration was furnished by the boys, whose ages average from 2 to 15 years. Every youngster in the band is a native son and was born in Linn County. About 18 months ago W. J. Moore, the leader, began gathering his youthful band together. It has taken a great deal of patience to teach the young musicians, but those who heard them play during the Pioneers' meeting declared they Moore, Andy Elswick, Wayne Willson.
