

THAW IS TARGET OF FIFTEEN GLASSES

Skyscrapers Around His Prison Courtyard Are Black With Spectators.

GAZE DRIVES TO COVER

Pittsburg Millionaire Gives Up Tramp Around Track With Forty Other Prisoners Taking Their Exercise in the Hot Sun.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Ex-Judge Olcott, counsel for Thaw, spent nearly the entire afternoon in the prison in consultation with his client. Much of the time was spent in going over letters which have been received by Thaw since his imprisonment. His mail is increasing in size daily, and many of the writers declare themselves ready to disclose certain information concerning Thaw's activities which they think may be of use to the defendant. More than half a hundred letters were received by the prisoner today and fully half of these were deemed to be of sufficient importance to demand consideration by his counsel.

For the first time since his imprisonment, a week ago, Thaw was permitted to exercise in the open air today. About 40 other prisoners he was taken to the courtyard of the prison, and together they walked around the elliptical track around the sides of the yard. The west side was shady and east side sunny. After two laps Thaw found the sun too hot and dropped out and sought a shady corner. Later he again entered the line and made a few more laps, but soon asked permission of the guards to stay in the shady spot for the rest of the exercise time.

It is likely Thaw's request was not so much due to the fatigue or disinclination to stay in the sun as to the fact that the windows of every skyscraper around the prison were filled from the fourth story up with people armed with cameras who were watching the walking prisoners. When he got into the shade of the wall he could not be seen by these curious oners.

With the return of District Attorney Jerome from his vacation in the country the investigation into the Thaw-White tragedy was given renewed impetus today. Attached to the District Attorney's office had been engaged in whipping into shape the information concerning the case already at hand, and everything was in preparation to be submitted to the chief upon his arrival.

The prisoner's wife called at the usual hour today and spent some time with him. When she left the prison she said she found her husband more cheerful than at any time since the tragedy.

Allen W. Everts, counsel for the White family, called at the District Attorney's office today and had a long conference with Mr. Jerome. This is the first occasion on which the White family has been in touch with the District Attorney's office in connection with the case. Mr. Everts called at the District Attorney's office with P. L. Bergoff, a private detective, who says he was employed by White for many months before the tragedy. Bergoff was accompanied by three assistants, who, he says, was actively engaged in watching both Mr. White and a corps of detectives who had been employed by Thaw.

William Bedford, Harry K. Thaw's valet, died in the Presbyterian Hospital today from complications following an operation for appendicitis. He was expected to be one of the most important witnesses at the trial of Thaw.

District Attorney Jerome said today that there would be no more trial of Thaw. During the Summer vacation there were only two parts in the General Sessions Court in session, and Mr. Jerome believes that to put a case on trial would probably last two or three weeks. In the calendar, would be unfair to at least 50 or 60 of the other prisoners who have a prior claim to his cases.

Identification of Dead. SALISBURY, England, July 2.—In the inquest today it was ascertained that W. H. Thompson was an English butler, that Josephine was a German commercial traveler and that Julius Keeler was a music hall entertainer of Brooklyn, N. Y.

This evening's bulletin from the inquest says the cases of R. S. Critchell of Chicago; Miss M. Risk, of Norfolk street, Park Lane, London, and Miss I. S. Griswold, of Borough Heath, England, are much more mysterious than that related for the recovery of Mr. Critchell.

Americans Received by Pope. ROME, July 2.—(Special.)—Notwithstanding the intense heat, the pope, wishing to prove his benevolence toward Americans, has been receiving a number of them within the last few days. They have been presented by Dr. Kennedy, director of the American College in Rome, and include Dr. Hanna, of Rochester, N. Y.; Judge Jones, of the United States Court, of Ohio, and Mrs. Jones. All have remarked that the pontiff looks vigorous, the heat having affected him little.

Kaiser's Letter Declared Forgery. PARIS, July 2.—At the resumption of the Dreyfus hearing today Prosecutor Baudais characterized the greater part of the evidence at the Rennes court-martial as the issue of false oaths, for which the witnesses received payment. Emperor William's alleged letter incriminating Dreyfus was also denounced as a forgery.

Longworths Dine at Blenheim. LONDON, July 2.—The Duke of Manchester gave a luncheon today at Blenheim House to Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, who after having visited Oxford and then went to London, accompanied by Ambassador and Mrs. Reid, to a dinner and dance given by the Lady Dartmouth.

Commercial Relations Broken Off. MADRID, July 2.—Premier Moret today confirmed the report of the rupture of commercial relations with Switzerland and France. Jules Camb, the French Ambassador at Madrid, is in communication with Premier Moret in the matter.

Jury men Convicted by Defense. BEATYVILLE, Ky., July 2.—The trial of ex-County Judge James Hargis, B. Fulton, French, an attorney, ex-Sheriff Ed Callahan and others, on the charge of assassination of Lawyer James Marcum, three years ago, was held today at Beatyville. Hargis and Callahan and their friends have made a personal canvass of all the men available for jury service.

San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—Two of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's boats, the State of California and the City of Pueblo, got away today with nonunion crews, despite the present strike and scarcity of seamen on the waterfront. Both vessels carried full lists of passengers and were heavily loaded with freight. No demonstration marked their departure, though the pickets of the Sailors' Union were steaming all along the front in their launch.

PALESTINE COMES FIRST

Settlement of Ancient Land Will Be Undertaken by Jews.

TANNERSVILLE, N. Y., July 2.—A letter from Dr. Max Nordau, of Paris, containing a strong appeal for the support of the already established Jewish institutions in Palestine, aroused much enthusiasm at today's session of the Federation of American Zionists here. Much interest also was shown in a communication from Professor Otto Warburg, head of the Palestine commission, which pointed out the political, industrial and agricultural possibilities of Palestine.

Particular stress was laid upon the favorable attitude now evinced toward Jewish colonization in Palestine by the Turkish Government. The commission recommended the organization of commissions for the study of the economic conditions of the country and the possibilities of the exploiting of the resources of Palestine.

Dr. H. Pierrera Mendes, president of the American branch of the Jewish Territory Association, started the convention by declaring that the report of the commission, which comes at a critical moment for Zionism, proved that there is no need for any other organization to undertake relief work for Jews or for other activities elsewhere. Palestine must come first, he said, and only when conditions are impossible in Palestine need activities or relief work be undertaken elsewhere.

This statement was regarded by the convention as a note for the early dissolution of the territorial movement, which is an offshoot of Zionism and aims to secure a grant of land for a Jewish autonomous state and a Jewish world government. It is right to establish such a state may be obtained.

WARM BRUSH WITH ZULUS

Reinforcements Turn British Peril Into Victory.

DURBAN, South Africa, July 2.—(Special.)—Despite the fact that known leaders of the Zulus, and a few places on a state of revolution still exists. The fighting tribes Monday clashed with a detachment of troops under Colonel Barker, and had it not been for the timely arrival of reinforcements the troops would have been annihilated. The situation was saved, however, and the Zulus were driven back to their camps before the onslaught of the reinforcements. It is stated 600 rebels were killed, while the British loss was small.

COURAGE AMAZES BRITISH

made up the Sentell party. The elder Mr. Sentell alone escaped death. Many times before the family had made European trips and there were few places on the Continent that they had not visited. Norway and Sweden, however, had been omitted from their former itineraries, and for a year the two brothers had been up on these countries and had made most complete preparations for the trip.

On the day of sailing a large crowd of young persons, friends of the family, went to the pier. Among them were something like a score of teachers and as many pupils, to say nothing of a large group of acquaintances of the elder Sentella. Some time before the cry "All for the shore" sounded, a singular lull came over the laughing friends, and the same thought seemed to be in the minds of all. That thought was:

"What if something awful should happen?" Usually the silence was broken, and the common thought found expression when one of the Misses Sentell, with ill-forgotten carelessness: "Well, good friends, if anything awful does happen we will all go together. It will be a family affair this time, surely."

Talk of the premonition was kept up for some minutes, during one of which the family told a friend that each of them had made his or her will only a few hours before. The Sentells are devoted to the cause of the aged and infirm, and when their acquaintances learned last night of the horror at Salisbury the conversation was vividly recalled.

GUARDS FIRED INTO REFUGE

Women Who Fled From Murderer's Fire Hid in Cellar of Store.

STUEBENVILLE, Ohio, July 2.—(Special.)—Prosecuting Attorney Alban issued warrants today to Sheriff Voorhees to serve on a large number of mine guards and strikers at Bradley for participating in the Sunday afternoon warfare in which one miner was killed, a number wounded and a half dozen guards injured. The captain of the mine guards is included in the list. There is said to be evidence that the guards started the firing without reason, and it is alleged their continuance during the mine warfare was a menace to life and property.

Miner Man Badly Wounded. OROVILLE, Cal., July 2.—The body of R. H. Brown, a mining man and draughtsman of San Francisco and Alaska, was found yesterday lying in a dredging pool of water with a gaping revolver wound in the forehead. The fact that the authorities have not as yet been able to find the weapon has aroused suspicion that foul play may have been responsible for the man's death.

Plan to Reopen Mines. CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 2.—The Ohio operators of the Pittsburg vein coal district met here today and decided upon plans to reopen all mines in the district immediately following July 4. It was decided to offer the scale now in effect in the Hocking district and to give preference to their former employees if they desire to return to work. If the old men do not return new men will be put to work under guard.

GAMBLERS OFF TO GOTHAM

Nevada Gold Fields Deserted by Expats of the Green Cloth.

MANHATTAN, Nev., July 2.—It is reported here that gambling is wide open in New York and that many gambling houses are running full blast there, and fifteen gamblers left Tonopah for the East this morning, ten from Manhattan and five from Goldfield. All of them are said to be expert roulette and faro men and claim that they have been guaranteed steady employment in the Eastern metropolises.

New York Valuations Increased. NEW YORK, July 2.—The total assessed valuation of the real and personal estates in this city was reported by the Tax Department today as $6,265,794,182. This is an increase of $28,848,958, as compared with the valuation reported one year ago.

Band's Repertoire Was Limited. WASHINGTON, July 2.—"Always in the Way" is the title of a piece of music played at the funeral of Private C. W. Anderson, of the Marine Corps, at Olongapo, P. I., and it resulted in severe newspaper criticism and finally an investigation by officers of the corps. The report of the board has been received at the department, and its findings say that the music played, while being an inappropriate name, was suited to the occasion and the best the band could play, its repertoire being limited. The newspaper which published the article in Manila is severely condemned in the report.

Adobe House Crumbles in Toront. IMPERIAL, Cal., July 2.—At Mexicali a total of 26 buildings, mainly adobe, have tumbled into the New River to date. The river is steadily reaching on to Calexico, and Merchants are beginning to leave. The Southern Pacific today began building a road from Pilot Knob to the break in the river. San Joaquin River Rising. STOCKTON, Cal., July 2.—The San Joaquin River has risen an inch at Paradise during the past 24 hours, due to the warm spell melting the snow, and danger of further inundation of the delta lands west of Stockton is feared. Cotton Operatives' Wages Increased. BOSTON, July 2.—Upward of 20,000 cotton mill operatives in New England are working today under an increase in wages, which places them on a schedule like that which prevailed prior to July 1, 1905, when a general reduction of 15 1/2 per cent was imposed.

PROCTOR GIVEN SENTENCE

Senator Lodge Meets District Attorney Instead of Grand Jury.

BOSTON, July 2.—United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who was summoned to appear before the grand jury of Suffolk County, in an investigation into campaign contributions by District Attorney John B. Moran, came to the Courthouse today. The Senator has been called to appear tomorrow, but arrangements were made to meet the District Attorney today instead.

The investigation is a development of the case of Robert G. Proctor, who last week was convicted of the larceny of $25, which John C. Bestgen, officially claimed he had given Proctor, who was Senator Lodge's secretary, as a contribution to the Republican state campaign fund in 1904. Several prominent Republicans, including officers of the state committee, were summoned to appear before the grand jury tomorrow.

Judge De Courcy of the Superior Court, before whom Proctor was tried, announced this afternoon that he would not grant a new trial for Proctor, which had been asked for on the ground that the verdict was against the evidence. Later Judge De Courcy sentenced Proctor to serve 10 months in the House of Correction. It is understood the case will be carried to the Supreme Court.
