SEATTLE, Wash., July 4 .- (Special.) tile and Portland broke even on a ble header today before a big boliday ad. Mike Mitchell broke up the first crowd. Mike Mitchell broke up the inst game with a home-run amash, rending Jimmy McHale in ahead of him, in the third inning. The bit was a line drive to center. Van Buren tried to check it with one hand, but failed to block, and big Mike made the circuit of the bases. Seattle made a bid for the game in the seventh, when Householder and Croll hit safely, and Householder scored on a fly to Mitchell. Essick disposed of Streib and Mott, however, and sulled out of a Mott, however, and pulled out of a. The fielding was sharp on both

He drow a throw from McLean and stole third. He secred on R. Hall's hit. Van Buren beat out a bunt, and Horseholder sacrificed. Croll and Streib Howseholder sacrificed. Croll and Streib hit safely and three runs were in. After that Califf held the Seattle men safe.

Oscar Jones would have scored a shutout, but Mott went to sleep with a simple double play in front of him, throwing to first when he should have tagged a base-runner, who almost ran him down. An infield out scored the run. Jones pitched awell ball, and was ably supported. Scores:
