DISPATCH IS SENT.—The telegram to President Roosevelt asking delay of proceedings in the appointment of St. John, W. Valentine as Postmaster of St. Johns, authorized at the meeting Tuesday evening, was sent by the committee yesterday morning. It is the purpose of the committee to follow this up by investigating the influence that brought about Mr. Valentine's appointment. The opponents of Mr. Valentine were called and transferred the matter to the police station. He gave his name as Carol Nelson, a Swede, 42 years old. Nelson was locked up on the charge of drunkenness. "That would be a poor way to get sobered up," commented Captain Moore as Nelson was being led to his cell in the City Jail.

LOCAL CELEBRATIONS.—At Escanada George C. Brownell delivered the address. Brown's band and orchestra furnished the music. There was a good crowd present, and amusements were had in the afternoon. At the center there was a display of fireworks. At Sandy in Meinig's Grove the events of the day took place. Miss Emily McElroy read the Declaration of Independence.
Eugene Hedges, of Oregon City, delivered the oration; Fox's vaudeville troupe was present. There was a programme by home talent. Music and dancing took up the afternoon. Music was furnished by Beer's and Lent's orchestra. J. M.
Thomas, F. E. McGugin, Alfred Bell and A. C. Thomas, delivered the oration.
Arrangements at Fairview Rev. A. C.
Nuttley delivered the invocation; Napoleon Davis, the address of welcome; a patriotic recitation, Jennie Zimmerman, reading Declaration of Independence, Janet McKay; oration, Rev. Thomas Maxwell; dinner concluded the programme. Baseball and tennis games took up the afternoon. Good music was furnished during the day, and there was a large crowd. The celebration was participated in largely by people from Gresham.

HAWTHORNE SPRINGS WATER.—Notices were posted in Hawthorne Park warning people not to drink the water from the springs, but these notices were not considered by the thirsty crowd, which found refuge in the park from the heat. The cool water proved too much of a temptation. These notices were posted by order of the City Board of Health after an examination of the water had been made by Ralph W. Watson, Assistant State Bacteriologist, who found the water containing impurities. There is no indication of any impurity in the water, and it is as clear and cold as Bull Run. The Hawthornes and others have doubt about the water containing impurities as it comes from the spring, and will have another careful made. For the great many years this water was used in East Portland exclusively by the East Portland Water Company, and it was considered absolutely pure. The matter can only be settled by another thorough examination.

COOKING SCHOOL AT CHAUTAUQUA.—Miss Lillian Tingle, whose papers on "The Making of a Good Cook" have been appearing in The Oregonian, will again be in charge of the domestic classes at Chautauqua. Her morning class hour will be from 11 to 12 o'clock, with demonstrations.
An afternoon class in food preparation will discuss what to cook, how to cook, and some special lessons will be given on candy-making, sandwiches and frozen desserts. The morning class will include all plain cooking, bread, cake, meats, etc.
APPLICATIONS FOR YELLOWSTONE RESER-VATIONS.—Applications for reservations in The Oregonian special train which will go to Yellowstone Park are coming in from all over the Northwest from friends of the successful candidates. Only a limited number will be accommodated under this special rate, and those who desire to make the trip can procure tickets from C. W.
Stinger, City Ticket Agent of the O. R.
& N., at office, Third and Wash. sts., or at the Northern Pacific.

FIVE CHINESE ARRESTED.—There was widespread sorrow in Chinatown yesterday, and the warty Celestials were greatly provoked at the strict orders issued by Chief Grismacher for the enforcement of the Fourth of July ordinances. Five Chinese were arrested yesterday for discharging Chinese bombs and plant crackers and were released on $10 bail for each offender.

Drunken Sailor Tries to Jump From Morrison-Street Bridge.

A big crowd assembled on the Morrison-street bridge early yesterday afternoon while an unknown man was divesting himself of his outer garments and attempted to jump into the cold waters of the river below.

Policeman Inskip telephoned to Captain Moore about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and said that a sailor who seemed to be under the influence of liquor informed him that he had made a bet he would jump off the Morrison-street bridge and swim to the Inman-Poulsen mill. As the man was not intoxicated enough to be arrested Inskip did not bring him to the headquarters, but when Captain Moore heard about the incident he promptly informed Inskip to bring the sailor to him.

Inskip hastily ran down toward the bridge, and when he saw the large crowd assembled there he decided that the sailor was endeavoring to win his bet. As he arrived on the scene he saw the man in his undergarments ready to make the
a poor way to get sobered up," comment-
to his cell in the City Jail.

Mr. Valentine was called and trans-
gave his name as Carol Nelson, a Swede,

to Judaism. Nevertheless, considerable opposition was manifested, and in order to prevent any acrimonious discussion the resolution was withdrawn. The purpose of the resolution, however, was served by the adoption of a motion giving the publication committee the right to indorse and subsidize such publications as it may deem deserving.
