TAKE REVENGE ON OLD CLUB MATES

Garvin and Van Buren Put Up Great Ball for the Seattle Team.

GIANTS NEARLY SHUT OUT

McHale, Released Last Year by the Siwashes, Was the Only One of the Visitors to Solve the Texan's Curves.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8.—(Special.)— Virgil Garvin took sweet revenge upon the club from which he was released by defeating them easily today. He would defeating them easily today. He would have scored a shut-out, but Johnnie Kane fumbled Mitchell's hard grounder just long enough to let McHale score, though he got Mitchell at first.

At no time after that did Portland threaten the plate. He walked only one man and fielded his position like the veteran that he is. Portland started the scoring first when McHale opened the fourth inning with a bard double over third. He was sacrificed to third and scored when Kane momentarily fumbled Mitchell's grounder.

Mitchell's grounder. Seattle came back with two runs in their half of the fourth, Moore losing control and walking Garvin with two control and walking Garvin with two men out, thus filling up the bases. Captain Kane made good with a clean hit to center and Seattle took the lead, never to lose it again. Kane scored again in the seventh, opening with a three-base drive and scoring on Van Euren's safe one to right. They took one more in the eighth on Moti's single and Isabell's hard slam to right for two bases.

who could hit Garvin. Both of his hits were clean. Coleman got a hit while trying to bunt. He popped the ball up, and as Mott was running in, it passed over his head.

was a great day for the cast-offs, as McHale, released last year by Seattle, scored Portland's only run. To add to Garvin's revenge. Van Buren made a spectacular catch of McLean's great drive and led his team in hitting. The

The thousand-odd fans who dropped their quarters in at the box office corner Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets ner Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets yesterday saw an exhibition of the noble art of baseball which had all the earmarks of a modern reproduction of 1960 untamed Sioux vs. ten unprotected pale-faces. In other words it was somewhat of a slaughter. The Schiller's were the slaughterers, the Brainard Maroons the victims and Trilby Rankin assistant butcher.

This game was advertised for blood

This game was advertised for blood This game was advertised for blood and the amateur championship of the city and state. Lots of people expected to witness a red hot go. It was red hot in a way but not at all as regards closenes of score, II-4 being the final dope. Big Goodell, the Maroon crack who has been stowing away amateur teams about the state with one and two hits, lasted exactly one and one-half innings. It was not exactly the big fellow's fault, however, His teammates seemed worried and not exactly the big fellows fault, how-ever. His teammates seemed worried and annoyed, and they had considerable trouble in hanging on to the leather orbit which was being bandled about. Cass Campbell succeeded Goodell and did fairly well but no better. The whole secret was that the cigarmakers are all hitters and further that they are all hitters and further that they are all older and more experienced than the Maroons. They know the game better and are steadler.

The crowd which attended this match the bear of the crowd which attended this match. The crowd which attended this match was indeed a surprise. The big grandstand fairly swayed under its load and every fan present was dyed in the wool, rabid, and partisan to the top notch. There was more old time rooting and kicking at the umpire than has been seen on the local field for many a day. As far as the game itself went it was ragged on all corners. Only at times was there a flash of speed or good play. The Schillers simply outclassed the Maroons and therein lies the whole tale. Rich Parrott proved himself a shifty twirler and it was largely through his good work that the victors had so little trouble getting away with the match and incidentally the gate receipts.

The hitting was good and in bunches as the score below will indicate:

Oregon Athlete Will Participate at Chicago.

PITTED AGAINST EXPERTS

Multnomah and the University of Oregon Have Faith in the Lad Who Broke the World's Sprinting Record.

There is a movement on foot among athletic enthusiasts to send Dan J. Kelly. Oregon's champion sprinter, to the big annual meet of the Amateur Athletic Union. The meet will be held in Chicago early in September, and if Kelly desires to participate he will be sent by the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club.

The University of Oregon Alumni and students of the University of Oregon made an effort to enter Kelly under the colors of that institution, but as the sneedy Baker City lad ran as a Multspeedy Baker City lad ran as a Mult-nomah man in the recent Spokane meet, the by-laws of the A. A. U. prevented his entrance under other colors within a year. By special dispensation, however, Kelly will be allowed to compete as a representative of both Multnomah and Oregon. This arrangement is satisfactory to the university people, as well as the club, and it is thought that Kelly him-self will be pleased to represent both institutions.

Hayward Will Go.

Kelly is the pride of the whole state of Oregon just at present, and when he goes to Chicago he will carry with him the confidence and good will of all who are interested in athletics in these parts. He will be accompanied by his trainer, "Dill" Margaret The is now in Engage.

In the Oregon-Corvallis meet, Kelly cleared 24 feet 2½ inches in the broad ump, thus establishing a new Pacific Coast record. It is said that this is the Coast record, it is said that this is the best jump recorded in the United States since 1961. In view of the fact that such records as these have been made by Ine fleet-footed Oregon boy, it is thought that he can win his three events from that he can win his three events from all comers at Chicago.

A committee consisting of C. N. Mc-Arthur and David M. Graham, of this city, and W. C. Winslow, of Salem, are raising funds among the Oregon alumni and students, who have agreed to raise half of the expenses of the entire undertaking. Members of the Multnomah Chib, say that they can raise their charadertaking. Members of the Multnomah Club say that they can raise their share of the expense money without much trouble and a committee will solicit funds some time this week. Lovers of athletics all over the Northwest are anxious to see Kelly participate in the big games, and P is generally believed that he is capable of showing his heels to all the crack sprinters of the East and Middle West.
