

MOST TRUSTED TROOPS MUTINY

Cavalry Hold Barracks Against Czar After Killing
Two Assaultants.

COSSACKS REFUSE SERVICE

Will Not Join Colors for Police Duty, Cossack Company Will Not Attack Revolutionists—Answer to Trepoff's Boast.

TAMBOV, July 9.—A mutiny broke out Saturday in the Krasnov regiment of cavalry and during the consequent disorder an infantry officer and a soldier of the Nijna dragoons, who attacked the mutineers, was killed. The mutineers have barricaded themselves in their barracks.

UST-MEDVEDITSKA, July 9.—The Cossacks of the second reserve, who had been ordered mobilized for police service, have refused to join the colors.

USEVOKA, Russia, July 9.—A company of Cossacks, which had been garrisoning this town, has been sent away, owing to the soldiers refusing to fire on the manifestants.

MOST SERIOUS OF MUTINIES

Cavalry of Whose Loyalty Trepoff Boasted Loudly.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.—The news of the mutiny at Tambov, which apparently is the most serious of such affairs since the Sevastopol mutiny, is confined to the bare details of a censored agency dispatch, showing that the mutineers, when attacked by loyal troops, offered armed resistance before retreating to their barracks, where they are now barricaded.

Up to 120 o'clock this evening the newspapers have received no further particulars. In previous riots this year the disaffected troops have submitted when confronted by loyal detachments.

The outbreak is a quick commentary on General Trepoff's declaration, in the interview published July 7, that the cavalry could be more depended upon than the infantry because their officers were in closer touch with their men.

WILL PROVE HIS CHARGES

Urussoff Has Evidence Government
Provoked Jewish Massacres.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.—Smarting under General Trepoff's epithet of liar, applied in the interview published July 7, Prince Urussoff declared to the Associated Press today that he was in possession of full documentary evidence to prove his charges that anti-Jewish programmes and excesses throughout the country had been inspired from St. Petersburg, and that they were not, as General Trepoff asserted, due to the arbitrary action of embittered local officers. Prince Urussoff said the documents would be published within a fortnight, and that the public would then be able to judge whether he or General Trepoff was a liar.

FEARS LOSS OF COSSACK AID

Government Prevents Their Reading
Speeches Made in Duma.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.—Dispatches received here today from Nova Teherka, which is in the center of the Don Cossack district, show that the authorities are extremely apprehensive as to the effect of the speeches delivered in the lower House of Parliament in the recent debate on the Cossack question, which were plainly intended to undermine the loyalty of the Cossack levies engaged on police duty. Regular meetings of Constitutional Democrats, at which the report of the debate was read, have been dispersed and the papers have been torn into omitting reports of the speech.

RED FLAG WAVES IN CAPITAL

Demonstrators Fight Cossacks—Cabinets Recognizes Public Opinion.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.—Political demonstrations, during which the crowds carried red flags and sang revolutionary songs, occurred in many places in St. Petersburg yesterday afternoon and night, necessitating the interference of police and military troops. The demonstrators were held up and their occupants were compelled to uncover and salute the red flag.

The most serious affair happened near the Moscow Railroad, where an officer, later identified as Lieutenant Tom, made a revolutionary speech to a crowd of 300 people. A detachment of police attempted to disperse the assembly, but the people armed themselves with stones dug up from the streets and beat off the police and a squad of Cossacks. Eventually the Cossacks were reinforced and fired a blank volley in the air, whereupon the rioters fled to a neighboring court. Only a few persons were slightly injured. Lieutenant Tom was arrested and taken to the fortress.

A meeting, which was addressed by orators from a window of the Constitutional Democratic Club, was dispersed by mounted gendarmes, during which several persons were wounded with sabers. A performance at the People's Palace was broken up, the audience singing the "Marseillaise" as it dispersed.

The guards on the mail wagons are now armed with rifles owing to the increased number of attacks made upon these vehicles. Six newspapers of this city have been confiscated.

Landlords from the provinces where agrarian disorders are occurring are flocking into Moscow and St. Petersburg, appealing for troops to protect their property, without which they declare it is impossible for them to live on their estates.

Some of the papers regard General Trepoff's pronouncement in favor of a Ministry composed of Constitutional Democrats as a sham deathbed repentance, designed to give the Emperor and court a breathing spell, while others consider it to be a confirmation of the report that Trepoff has fallen from favor, and is trimming his sails to the prevailing breeze.

The Holy Synod has issued strict instructions forbidding the printing establishments of monasteries from publishing public tracts or in any way taking sides in the present struggle.

Emperor Nicholas and the Empress, on board the imperial yacht Polar Star, made a short visit to Oranienbaum yesterday, inspecting the marine hospital and barracks. This was the first time their majesties had been outside the grounds of the palace at Peterhof since they went to St. Petersburg to open Parliament, May 20. Oranienbaum is a seaside resort, opposite Cronstadt on the Gulf of Finland, 19 miles west of St. Petersburg.

Interior Minister Stolypin has sent to Ambassador Meyer and the representatives of other countries the government's official report of the Bialystok rioting, for transmission to their respective governments. While this unprecedented action on the part of the Russian government does not involve a recognition of the right of foreign countries to make representations regarding the internal affairs of the Empire, it is a distinct recognition of the power of public opinion abroad and indicates the solicitude of foreign countries toward the Russian side of the case. The report is practically identical with that submitted by Minister Stolypin to parliament.

CAMPAIGN OF MANIFESTO.

Parliament Will Appeal to Peasants Against Czar's Proclamation.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 9.—The initial steps toward the adoption of a direct address to the country to counteract the impression which the government's communication with regard to the settlement of the agrarian question is making among the peasantry were taken in the lower house of Parliament today, when an interpellation was introduced asking for an explanation of the dissemination of the governmental proclamation to the peasants July 7.

This proclamation accompanied the publication in the Official Messenger of the government's agrarian bill and set forth the Emperor's constant solicitude for the peasants' welfare and denied that the government was opposing expropriation in the interest of the landlords, concluding with an expression of the vital necessity of maintaining the rights of property as being the foundation of the state.

The interpellation was referred to a big committee, which is expected to recommend the issuance of a counter appeal setting forth the views and intentions of Parliament.

FORM DEMOCRATIC CABINET

Czar Makes Overtures to Mourmoutseff to Conduct Government.

LONDON, July 10.—According to the correspondent of the Times at St. Petersburg, it is the consensus of opinion there that the Constitutional Democrats will be invited to form a Ministry. One of their leaders said there had been indirect overtures with that end in view, and that they were awaiting the next movement from Peterhof.

Another leader said the Goremeykin Cabinet was certain to be replaced by a Mourmoutseff Cabinet.

JEWS STONE GRODNO POLICE

New Outbreak of Religious Fued Follows Conflict.

GRODNO, July 9.—In consequence of the arrest of a Jew in the Hebrew quarter today, a crowd of Jews attacked the arresting patrolman with stones. Several revolver shots were fired, and the policeman, in self-defense, killed one of the Jews. There is extreme irritation, both among the Jewish and the Christian population.

Fears to Shoot Mutineers.

TELAVI, Caucasus.—The military tribunal, realizing the tremendous fomentation in the garrison here, has let off with little punishment the 27 mutineers who had been sentenced to be shot because they refused to fire on the populace during the disturbances of last March, sentencing 12 of them to imprisonment for from six weeks to a year and acquitting the remainder.

Verdict on Naval Officers.

CRONSTADT, July 9.—The verdict of the courtmartial trial of Admiral Rojestvensky and the officers of the torpedo destroyer Bedovi, who surrendered to the Japanese during the battle of the Sea of Japan, is not expected until tomorrow.

Many Peasants Indicted.

NIZHNI NOVGOROD, July 9.—For participation in agrarian disorders in this province 46 peasants have been indicted. Among the accused is a member of the lower house of Parliament named Filatoff.

THE DAY'S DEATH RECORD

Congressman H. C. Adams, Wis.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Congressman H. C. Adams, of Wisconsin, died today in the Auditorium Hotel. He had been ill for several weeks, and for a week had been confined to his room in the hotel.

Henry Cullen Adams was born November 28, 1850, at Verona, Oneida County, N. Y., and removed to Wisconsin in 1881. He attended Abbot Academy for one year and the University of Wisconsin for three years. He then engaged in farming near Madison and did a profitable dairy and fruit business, but was recently a dealer in real estate. He was a member of the Assembly in 1885 and 1887, and engaged in farmers' institute work in 1887 to 1889. He was president of the State Dairyman's Association for three terms, secretary of the State Horticultural Society for two years and member of the State Board of Agriculture for many years. He was Superintendent of Public Property for Wisconsin in 1888-90, and Dairs and Food Commissioner from 1895 to 1900. He was elected to the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congress from the Second District, and was a member of the committee on agriculture, which drew the substitute for the Beveridge meat inspection bill. It was largely due to him that the House passed a bill acceptable to the President and was a delegate to the Republican National Convention in 1888 and chairman of the Republican State Convention in 1900.

The "DIFFERENT Store"

This Store Is Cooler
Than the Weather-Man's
Room at the Custom House:

And much cooler than the out-of-door atmosphere. The ventilation of the Olds, Wortman & King Store is the finest and most perfect in Portland. The air in the store is purer than that in the city streets. The great store is punctured with windows and crossed by a network of broad, cool thoroughfares that are veritable air-shafts through which pour cooling draughts of overhead air and delightful, refreshing breezes—and the bad air is forced out by the stronger, fresher, incoming, breezy zephyrs. These facts must be drilled into everybody—that the store is a safety spot on torrid days, and that if you can't get away to shore or mountains these July days, the next coolest place in which to spend your spare time is this store.
