

TURMOIL RULES ALL OVER RUSSIA

Strikes, Murder, Pillage, Riot and Mutiny on All Hands.

PEASANTS FIGHT TROOPS

While Czar Hesitates About New Cabinet, Empire Falls Into Anarchy and Governors Call for Troops in Vain.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 12.—(Special.)—With the expected announcement of the retirement of the old Cabinet and the make-up of the new again deferred, matters in the Russian Empire are becoming more and more critical, and the official classes, that have heretofore declared that there was no fear of a general uprising, are constrained to admit that further continuance of the present state of uncertainty must have a most dangerous effect. Strikes are spreading everywhere, and discontented workmen are murdering and pillaging, while even Cossacks, who have heretofore been loyal to the crown, are declared to have served notice on their officers in many instances that they will no longer act as police. In the Caucasus a state of civil war exists, and in several instances Cossacks have been defeated by peasants, after desperate fighting, in which both sides sustained heavy losses. So serious are conditions there that urgent appeals for more troops have been sent by the Governors to the authorities at St. Petersburg, but in every instance it has been necessary to send word that no more Cossacks could be spared for service in the Caucasus. At Saratov, there has been practically a continuous series of fights between the peasants and the troops, in which the latter have lost heavily. Because of the fierceness of the attacks by rioters, "dumdum" bullets have been served out by officers and are being used by the troops. It is estimated that 20 soldiers have been killed and twice that number wounded, while the loss to the rioters is declared to be three times these figures.

CABINET OFFERS RESIGNATION

Czar Proposes Coalition of Conservatives and Liberals.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 12.—Finance Minister Kokovsov is given authority for the statement that the resignation of the entire Cabinet is in the hands of the Emperor, so far as the Emperor is concerned, His Majesty is not yet ready to charge the Constitutional Democrats with the task of forming a Ministry, and is still seeking to compromise the issue by forming a coalition Cabinet composed of the more solid of the Conservative and Liberal elements in the lower and upper houses of Parliament, under the leadership of Count Heyden and M. Stakovich.

EXODUS OF WARSAW JEWS

Forty Thousand Flee Before Rumors of Massacre.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, July 12.—It is estimated that no less than 40,000 Jews, old men, women and children, fled from Warsaw yesterday. Most of the able-bodied male Jews remained to protect their property. Many of the Jewish shops are closed today, and the houses of the Jews are empty. Intense depression prevails in the Jewish quarter, where the inhabitants have organized a settlement of self-defense. Armed guards are posted at the gates of all the houses and patrol the streets. The authorities have taken precautions against an anti-Jewish outbreak and the police have authorized the newspapers to issue extra editions with the view of allaying the panic.

TARTARS ATTACK MONASTERY

Open Fire on Relief Force, but Flee Before Cossacks.

TIFLIS, July 12.—At Etchmiadzin, the ecclesiastical capital of Armenia, Tartars last night attacked the monastery and residence of the Armenian patriarch. The Tartars, who had hidden themselves in the surrounding hills, opened fire and charged the monastery after nightfall. They were repulsed, but formed for a second attempt, when a force of infantry and Cossacks arrived on the scene. The officers tried to persuade the Tartars to desist from their attack, but the latter opened fire on the troops, wounding several of them. The Cossacks thereupon charged and dispersed the Tartars, killing one and wounding several.

CHROUKIN DIES OF WOUNDS

Never Regains Senses After Bullet Strikes Him.

SEBASTOPOL, July 12.—Vice-Admiral Chroukin, commander of the Black Sea fleet, who was shot yesterday, supposedly by a sailor of the battleship Otchakov, died this morning, without having regained consciousness.

FIGHT POLICE EVERYWHERE

People Resist Authorities in Provinces, but Capital is Quiet.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 12.—Contrary to expectations no case of disorder in St. Petersburg has been reported up to late hour today. The streets throughout the day were heavily guarded with troops and the workmen's quarters were crowded

Lipman, Wolfe & Co. Good Merchandise Only—Quality Considered Our Prices Are Always the Lowest
