“Doing Things”

The way to do a thing these days is to do it—quick and right.

We've been working along serious lines of late trying to get you to see some of the crying needs of the day and how they can be met, and we've put into the struggle every pound of nerve and force we have.

For August, we have undertaken to get together the liveliest and best collection of stories ever seen in a magazine—not just as good, or only a little better, but 'way ahead the best.

We have interested in our plan such writers as Jack London, Lloyd Osbourne, O. Henry, Arthur McFarlane, William Bulfin, Roy Norton, and such artists as Philip Goodwin, George Gibbs, Dan Smith, Martin Justice, Will Crawford and Karl Anderson. They have caught the spirit most superbly, and have given us nine mighty good stories, any one of six (five anyway) good enough to be the "star" story of any fiction number ever published.

Just get this August fiction number of Everybody's and see what we mean by "doing things."

No; we haven't forgotten our serious work—we never lose sight of that. We are living for that. There's "Soldiers of the Common Good," Russell's fact-story on Japan, the Mystery Nation—the new force let loose upon the rest of the world, the great dominating trust-fighting and trust-absorbing government, so full of suggestions to us Americans. We hope you are reading Russell's series. Then there's Teague showing the inner workings of the Bucket Shop game with a terrible arraignment of the foul sneak-thieves who steal a hundred million dollars a year from those whom they profess to advise.

Everybody's for August—the great fiction magazine of the year. Always the great fact-story magazine. Get it.

MAKES PATRIOTIC ADDRESS

DR. LOCKE LECTURES TO OLD FRIENDS AT GLADSTONE PARK

Today Will Be Banner Day of Chautauqua Session—Business Meeting This Afternoon.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 20.—(Special.)

Eloquent and inspiring was the patriotic lecture, "A Pilgrimage to Shrines of American Heroism," delivered at Gladstone Park tonight by Dr. Charles Edward Locke, of Hanson Place M. E. Church, Brooklyn, N. Y. Dr. Locke is one of the founders of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association and was one of the most popular ministers who ever served in Oregon, having at one time been pastor of the Taylor Street Methodist Church, Portland. Hundreds of his old friends assembled at Chautauqua this evening to greet this able speaker, whose reception was one of the most cordial ever tendered a lecturer at Gladstone.

Dr. Locke will lecture again tomorrow afternoon, the subject being: "When Scarcerees Do Not Scare." Before the lecture Miss Evelyn Hurley, a contralto soloist, of Portland, sang "Restless Soldier," and responded to an encore.

Captain Jack Crawford was greeted by a record-breaking afternoon audience today, when he concluded his engagement with a second lecture that rivaled in interest that of last night. Interspersed with his remarks of genuine heart interest were recitations of a number of his poems.

Mrs. Walter Reed, of Portland, was the soloist for the afternoon, and although she gave three numbers, was not excused until she sang a fourth. Her three first selections were: "My Ain Country" (Lennox), "The Japanese Maiden" (Gaynor), "Traumeri" (Rogers).

Thanking the Chautauquans and his fellow-officers for the uniform courtesy that had been shown him as president of the association, he bespoke for his successor, Vice-President C. H. Dye, who becomes presiding officer in the absence of President Hawley, the same considerate treatment that had been accorded him by President Hawley and left tonight for Denver.

At the annual election of the officers of the association, which will be held tomorrow, it is more than probable that President Hawley will be asked to accept another term as president of the Chautauqua Association, if his Congressional duties will permit. The present large and promising dimensions of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association are the result, largely, of the efforts of President Hawley and the energetic and untiring work of the efficient secretary, Harvey E. Cross, who also will undoubtedly be elected to succeed him.

The Chautauqua management has quite properly designated tomorrow the "Banner Day" of the entire assembly. The offerings of Saturday's programme excel in interest those of any other one day of the session and there is every indication for a record-breaking attendance. In the afternoon there will be a lecture by Dr. Charles Edward Locke, a baseball game and a ballroom dancing in addition to the usual classes and round tables both morning and afternoon.

In the evening a rare musical treat has been arranged, when at the Auditorium, under the direction of W. Gifford Nash, there will be given Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" and Rossini's "Stabat Mater." The detailed programme for Saturday follows:

8:15 A. M.—Chimes.
11 P. M.—Round tables, "Practical Uses of Music." Dr. James Kirtley.
1 P. M.—Concert by Parsons' Orchestra.
2 P. M.—Solo, Mrs. Imogen Harding-Brodie. Lecture, "When Scarcerees Do Not Scare." Dr. Charles Edward Locke.
3:30 P. M.—Baseball. Ballroom session immediately after the ball game. W. C. Nash, "Hymn of Praise." Mrs. Jennie Homer, George H. Holmes and other speakers.
4 P. M.—Mothers' Congress, address by Dr. Charles Edward Locke. Annual meeting of stockholders at Auditorium.
7 P. M.—Concert by Parsons' Orchestra.
