SAGE'S MILLIONS TO GO TO CHARITY

Wall Street Believes That is Destiny of Bulk of His Fortune.

MRS. SAGE HIS EXECUTRIX

She Will Manage Disposal of Charitable Bequests, Being Still Vigorous—Affairs Left in Perfect Order by Aged Financier.

NEW YORK, July 23.—(Special).—Rumors that the bulk of the great fortune of Russell Sage, estimated at between $30,000,000 and $50,000,000, will go to charity were so persistently circulated in Wall street today that they were looked on as having a basis. In fact they were fathered by men who were associated in business with Mr. Sage for many years. So far as could be ascertained, however, the idea that charity would be extensively remembered in the distribution of the Sage millions rests absolutely upon the well-known charitable disposition of the widow. Mrs. Sage's charities, while unostentatious, have been wide and beneficial. It is believed that she interested her husband in many of the projects which she and Miss Helen Gould have helped. The generally accepted forecast of the Sage will was that Mrs. Sage will have the handling of the great sum to be expended in charitable donations, while other executors will be empowered to carry on the business, and attend to other bequests. Although the body of Mr. Sage reposed today in a darkened room at his country home at Lawrence, L. I., business at his office in Nassau street went on as usual. The death of the financier made no difference in the conducting of his affairs.

PROVIDED AGAINST HIS DEATH

Sage Put Special Clauses in Money-Lending Contracts.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The funeral of Russell Sage, who died at his Summer home in Lawrence, L. I., yesterday afternoon will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, at Far Rockaway, of which Rev. Robert G. Leitch is pastor, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The burial will be in Oakland Cemetery, Troy. Mr. Sage was for a long time a member of the West Side Presbyterian Church, of this city. The following have been selected as pallbearers: William P. Dixon, of Cedarhurst; Elbert A. Brinckerhoff, of Far Rockaway; George C. Rand, of Lawrence; Newbold L. Lawrence, of Lawrence; Albro J. Newton, of Far Rockaway; J. S. DeLavan, of Lawrence; Franklin B. Lord, of Lawrence, and Dr. J. Carl Schmuck. Financial disturbances which might possibly follow the removal from life of so important a factor in the great affairs of business have long been discounted, and every contract Mr. Sage has made in the lending of money in the last two years has, it is said, contained a clause that in the event of his death no payments of money lent should then be demanded in that account. For his death, as in his life, Russell Sage had provided against every possible contingency which might injuriously affect the enterprises in which he was so active for a lifetime extraordinary. Dr. DeLavan was the spokesman for the household. He said that the death of Mr. Sage would have no tendency to cause any uneasiness in the financial world, as his affairs had all been cared for in anticipation of his death. Many of Mr. Sage's loans had been called in, and such as are outstanding will be provided for with a little disturbance as possible to the money market. It was not likely that further loans would be made at present. Rev. Mr. Leitch announced the death of Mr. Sage at the evening services of the Far Rockaway Presbyterian Church last evening. Mr. Sage contributed to the erection of the church, and his wife gave it a bell. They attended services there every Sunday morning in the Summers. Mrs. Sage to Control Fortune. Mrs. Sage's will was drawn by the late Almon P. Goodwin, head of the law firm of Goodwin, Vandepel & Thompson. When Mr. Goodwin died the firm name was changed to Thompson, Vandepel & Freedman. Henry Thompson, of this firm, has had charge of the will. Mr. Thompson has gone to Spain, and Mr. Vandepel and Mr. Freedman and Mr. Vandepel were not communicative yesterday.

There are three executors, Mrs. Sage, Charles W. Osborne, for many years Mr. Sage's cashier and confidential man, and Dr. Munn. Pending a formal statement of the purport of the will, nothing is ascertainable about reports current in Mr. Sage's late years that he had devised some large benevolences under the advice of Mrs. Sage. But it is stated that Mrs. Sage is left in entire control of the fortune.

Surprises in the Will.

"Everybody will be very much surprised to learn what I have done with my money," Mr. Sage said a year or more ago to an intimate friend, "but they will never learn until I am dead."

Mrs. Sage Good Business Woman.

Although Mrs. Sage is 76 years old, she is wonderfully well preserved mentally and physically. Mr. Sage had often commented on this fact, and said that she would be quite capable of handling his property when he had gone. Dr. Schmuck said that Mr. Sage had been very feeble mentally for several months. The last word he uttered before he became unconscious was his wife's second name, "Olivia." He always addressed her by this name. There is probably no person in the financial world who was better acquainted with Mr. Sage than Henry Clews. The latter said last night:

Worth Perhaps $100,000,000.

"Mr. Sage was undoubtedly the wealthiest man in the street. His fortune can be conservatively estimated at from $70,000,000 to $100,000,000. As to the disposition of his wealth, I have no idea what provisions Mr. Sage made. I have no doubt, however, that there will be some charitable bequests. Mr. Sage was not a mean man, nor was he a miser. Like other wealthy men who have been taught the value of economy, Mr. Sage began by saving his pennies, and the policy had become a part of his nature."

Woman Is Freed by Verdict.

FULTON, Mo., July 23.—The jury in the murder case of Mrs. Edmund Bailey, charged with being an accessory to the killing of Jay Lawder, whom her husband shot, returned a verdict of acquittal today, after having been out 49 hours. Bailey was acquitted on Saturday. Bailey, an employe in Lawder's coal mine, shot Lawder dead upon learning of the intimacy existing between Lawder and Mrs. Bailey. The reading of sensational letters written to Lawder by Mrs. Bailey was a feature of the trial. In her lap Mrs. Bailey held an infant whose father, she testified in the trial, was Lawder.

Noted Guest Registers at Hotel Cameron

Mrs. Laura Coykendall, Third Cousin of the President, Will Spend Ten Days at $5.50 a Day.

MRS. LAURA COYKENDALL'S tongue has gotten her into trouble. Free and indiscriminate use of that subtle feminine weapon was responsible for a sentence to do a ten days' term in the City Jail. In addition she will have to pay $35 board for the term. This penalty was inflicted upon Mrs. Coykendall by Municipal Judge Cameron, yesterday morning. The charge against her was that of abusing Mrs. Belle Elliott. It was not the first time complaint had been made against her. In fact she had been in Police Court before for allowing her tongue too much leeway. She made a number of very ungentlemanly remarks concerning Mrs. Elliott, and in Mrs. Elliott's presence, it was charged. Judge Cameron, in passing on the case, said he thought the defendant should be impressed with the fact that she ought to be more choice in her selection of deprecating adjectives and less personal in her application of them. In view of the fact that she had been on hand before Judge Cameron sentenced her to do ten days and imposed the fine of $35. Mrs. Coykendall was not altogether pleased with the position taken by the court. She took occasion to reiterate that she is a third cousin of Theodore Roosevelt, at present a resident of Oyster Bay, L. I., and intimated that her relative, who is connected with the United States Government in the capacity of President, would see that she received justice. She did not appear to believe her distant relative, as she termed him, would stand by the court's decision.

Schooner Carries Record Cargo.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 23.—The schooner John Palmer, which sailed from this harbor today, carried the largest cargo of lumber ever taken out by any single vessel, the total being 1,310,000 feet. The record was held by the steamer Melville Dollar, which took 1,250,000 feet about a year ago. Melvillidite is now being exported to the United Kingdom from Norway, the deposits near Fiskefjord having, it is understood, been sold to a British company. The production in 1905 is about 29 tons.

S.S.S. EXPELS BLOOD HUMORS

Itching, disfiguring eruptions, rashes, boils, etc., as well as pimples, black-heads and rough, scaly skin, show the presence of some irritating humor in the blood. These acids and humors with which the blood is filled are being constantly thrown off through the pores and glands, and the skin is kept in a feverish, diseased and unsightly condition. Nothing applied externally can change the condition of the blood or prevent the outflow of poisons and acids; only constitutional treatment can do this. The countless washes, salves, lotions, etc., that are used cannot reach the humor-laden blood and are, therefore, useless, except for the temporary comfort and cleanliness they afford. The acid poison in the blood, which is the cause of the trouble, must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. is a real blood purifier, possessing all the requirements to neutralize and remove the humor from the circulation. It completely eradicates every trace of the poison and restores this vital fluid to its natural state of purity. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated blood so that instead of pouring out acid matter on the skin it feeds and nourishes it with health-sustaining properties, and the eruptions and diseases of the skin pass away.
