Comstock's League Seizes It and Arrests Naughty Secretary.

NUDE PICTURES THE CAUSE

Studio Raided Because Catalogue Contains "Immoral" Illustrations—Will Prosecute Miss Robinson.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Upon a warrant sworn out by Anthony Comstock, secretary of the Society for the Suppression of Vice, the studios of the Art Students' League, one of the most noted art schools in America, were today searched and the bookkeeper, Miss Anna Robinson, was placed under arrest. It was charged by agents of the society that the reproductions of figures in the nude, contained in the Fall catalogue which the League was about to issue, were of an immoral character.

A patrol wagon load of the catalogue was secured and taken to the Police Court as evidence. Magistrate Mayo adjusted for a further hearing on August 7, the charges against Miss Robinson, the only person placed under arrest. Miss Robinson was arraigned as "Jane Doe," on the charge of violation of an act for the suppression of traffic in obscene literature, illustrations, pictures, etc.

The pamphlet seized by the society's agents is the one issued regularly each Fall to prospective students, and shows pictures of the work turned out by the students of the League. The issue is styled the American Student of Art, and specimens pictured are such as are seen in any art studio or museum. In the book there are but two pages devoted to the nude.

The Art Students' League maintains, at 215 West Fifty-seventh street, studios and apartments for instruction in fine art.
No question has ever been raised before as to the character of the pamphlets issued or of the art exhibited.

MUCKRAKER FILES SUIT

Says Porto Rican Officials Conspired to Ruin His Newspaper.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Hobart S. Bird, who once published a newspaper in San Juan, Porto Rico, has sued eight of the highest officials in the island, including the present Governor and his predecessor, for $100,000 damages in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn. He charges them with having wrecked his paper, ruined his reputation and forced him out of the island because he attempted to expose their misconduct and corruption in office. Bird is now practicing law in this city.
The defendants named in the complaint are, W. H. Hunt, former Governor, now a Federal Judge in Montana; William Sweet, Attorney-General; James Harlan, son of Justice Harlan of the Supreme Court of the United States, and former Attorney-General; Regis K. Post, of New York, secretary of the Colonial Board; J.
D. H. Luce, of Boston, head of the Spanish Bank of San Juan; James McLeary, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Porto Rico; J. K. Rossi, Prosecuting Attorney of the district of San Juan, and Beekman Winthrop, of New York, the present Governor of the island.

In the case of Luce, it is charged that a chance to recover $20,000 from the treasury of Porto Rico was offered to him as a further inducement to join the plot against Bird.
The efforts to injure Bird, the complaint relates, commenced with a number of criminal actions for libel and contempt. Bird edited and published the San Juan News.

Its tone was opposed to much of what took place in the Porto Rico government. It charged many officials with improprieties in office.

When shown the dispatch containing notice of the suit brought by Bird against the past and present officers of the Porto Rican government, Judge William H.
Hunt, former Governor of Porto Rico, who is presiding over the land-fraud trials in progress in the United States Circuit Court, said:

"Bird conducted a newspaper at San Juan, which he sold out about two and a half years ago. This suit evidently grew out of a proceeding taken by Luce some three years ago, foreclosing a lien upon the printing plant of Bird. Luce was a banker at San Juan. Neither I, nor any other American officer, had any interest in the proceedings. Bird was sued for libel by different persons at different times, but never by any American officer, so far as I recollect."
"He was fined in some contempt proceedings in court and appealed his case to the Supreme Court of the island, where he lost. There never was any official other combination whatsoever against him and his suit is wholly without merit.

ANOTHER STRIKE BREWING

United Railroads' Firemen and Oilers Demand Eight Hours.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—The Stationary Firemen and Oilers employed by the United Railroads have demanded an eight-hour work day from the company. Unless their demands are granted, it is said they will strike. Thornton Mullanley, of the United Railroads, will give the men an answer some time today, but at noon he refused to say what it would be.

When the United Railroads had its first difficulty with the Electrical Workers' Union, the engineers and firemen remained at work. They were then working ten hours. Mullanley gave the nine-hour workday. Now the men want eight hours.

Mullanley says that the Construction Workers' Union has tied up the company's work entirely, and the McAllister-street road will be in operation Saturday. He denies further the claim of the electrical workers that the company has more cars disabled in the yards than ever before.
Mullanley points out that the shopmen are working.
