TWENTY KILLED BY MOIST, TORRID AIR

Combination Proves Deadly to Dwellers in New York City.

ALL ATLANTIC CITIES ALIKE Sun Burns and Moisture Stews Life Out of Sufferers--Thousands Sleep in Parks and on Seashore--Hottest of Year.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.--New York and its environments sweltered all today and far into the evening, for this was the hottest day here this year. More than 20 persons in this city alone died from the heat, and the hospital and police ambulances were kept more than busy, so numerous were the cases of prostration. These numbered scores.

The Government thermometer registered 33 degrees at its highest this afternoon, which is a record for this year, and it was much hotter in the streets, and some thermometers recorded as high as 102 degrees.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.--Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon no diminution in the intensity of the heat wave for the past 36 hours was noticeable. At that hour the Weather Bureau reported the temperature as 92 and the humidity as 81. Only two prostrations have been reported. The maximum temperature here this afternoon, according to the official thermometer at the Weather Bureau, was 92 degrees, while thermometers on the street recorded 102.

Three Deaths at Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.--The extreme heat of yesterday and today has caused three deaths and a number of prostrations. The maximum for the day was 93 degrees.

Hottest of Year in Boston. BOSTON, Aug. 6.--The temperature reached 92 here today, the highest of the season. There was great suffering and several prostrations are reported.

DIES BY OWN HAND

Son of Late Lieutenant-General Scofield a Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO TRAGEDY Paymaster With Rank of Major Kills Himself in Fit of Despondency Over Ill Health--Leaves Young Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.--Major William B. Scofield, paymaster in the Army, son of the late Lieutenant-General Scofield, U. S. A., retired, killed himself in this city some time this afternoon. Major Scofield was on leave of absence on account of ill-health, and in explanation of his suicide it is said that he feared an attack of locomotor ataxia and that he would become a burden to his wife. Scofield shot himself in the left temple, the tragedy occurring at his home in Twenty-third street. He left a note addressed to "Whom It May Concern," reading: "This is deliberate suicide. No one is to blame but me."

Discovered by His Wife. The discovery was made by his wife, who, upon returning home at 6 o'clock this evening, went to her husband's room and found him lying dead on the floor with a pistol in his hand. Major Scofield contracted dysentery in the Philippines, and went to Japan early in the year. Not improving very rapidly, he came to San Francisco last April and entered the general hospital at the Presidio. Just before he sailed from Nagasaki he was informed of his father's death. After spending some time in the general hospital, he became somewhat improved, and was granted a three months' leave of absence and since has been residing with his wife.

Formerly a Bank Teller. Major Scofield was 46 years old and formerly was a teller in the Nevada National Bank in this city, and also for a time in the New York branch of the bank. He entered the service in 1888 as Major and paymaster of volunteers and served through the Philippines and Pekin campaigns. When the Army was reorganized in 1900

Thief Is Stopped by Robson's Look

Boy Drops Stolen Bicycle and Runs When His Eyes Meet Those of Honest Station Officer.

WHO ever heard of a face stopping a criminal? Faces have been said to stop clocks, break cameras and mirrors but never before to stop criminals. William Robson, station officer on the first night relief, is not so homely as to attract attention. In fact he says his wife maintains he is good looking. Be that as it may, one glance from Robson's steely eyes convinced a young bicycle thief that it was better traveling along the straight and narrow path. Robson was sitting on the veranda above the sidewalk at the station Sunday night. Presently there came along a boy leading a bicycle. Robson looked casually down, the boy looked guiltily up. Four eyes met, the boy dropped his wheel and made off on the run. Robson came down and took the wheel inside the station. Acting Detective Smith just then entered and at first glance identified the wheel as one which had been stolen the night before from Mitchell Allen, a colored newsboy. Robson is now picked by his fellow officers as Captain Bruin's most dangerous competitor at the next civil service examination.

LINE UP FOR BRYAN

Iowa Democrats to Make Conservative Platform.

HAVE TRIANGULAR CONTEST

Choice Among Three Men for Governor, Chances Favoring Porter. Strong Tariff Revision Proposed for Platform.

WATERLOO, Ia., Aug. 6.--The conservative element of the Democratic party, which in the past has opposed Bryan, will be in control of the Iowa Democratic Convention tomorrow, and will father a movement to assure the nomination of Bryan as a conservative. The state ticket and the platform will be conservative on the tariff.

A spirited contest for Governor is being waged among friends of George F. Ball, of Iowa City; Claude Porter, of Centerville, and John Denison, of Dubuque. During the day sentiment in favor of Porter gained rapidly, but the Democrats in the district are reluctant to permit the use of his name, as they want to run him for Congress. Opponents of Ball are making year on him because it is alleged his record in the State Senate indicated corruption leanings. The contest is entirely free from bitterness. Efforts are being made to have Denison give way to Porter or Ball and run for Secretary of State.

Other candidates being considered are: Secretary of State, Leon Berdston, Des Moines; Lieutenant-Governor, Donald MacRae, Council Bluffs; Attorney-General, Fred Townsend, Albia; Treasurer, J. B. Roman, Des Moines. Delegates from Des Moines are prepared to offer a plank strongly favoring municipal ownership of public utilities. The leaders have been in conference tonight working out the tariff plank, which it is expected will demand immediate revision and the placing of some articles on the free list. There are some who desire that a plank on railroad rate reduction shall contain a threat of Government ownership, but such a threat will be opposed. A plank in favor of a National conciliation board to deal with labor troubles is being drawn. Nearly everything done in the convention will have in view preparation for the National campaign two years hence. The conservative element will control the caucus and name the committee, thus retaining control of the party organization for the next two years.

A caucus of delegates from the eighth district was held tonight to consider a proposal that ex-Senator Porter become a candidate for Congress against Congressman Heppner, and to have him decline to run for Governor. It was said late tonight that Porter will consent to be a candidate for Governor.

TALK POLITICS AT LUNCH President Has Guests of Several Varieties at Sagamore Hill.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 6.--President Roosevelt entertained today the largest luncheon party that has gathered at Sagamore Hill this summer. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. William J. Youngs, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Smith, of Cold Springs Harbor; Representative W. W. Cook, of the First New York District; United States District Attorney Henry L. Stimson, of New York City, and John A. Slicher, editor of Leslie's Weekly. Mr. Youngs was secretary to Mr. Roosevelt when he was Governor of New York.

It is understood that Mr. Stimson discussed briefly with the President a number of important Federal cases pending in the Southern New York jurisdiction. Among these are what are generally known as the sugar-rebating cases. No statement regarding the matter was given out.

Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, today paid his second visit of the season to the President.

Postmasters May Go to Convention. WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.--A leave of absence extending to ten days has been granted to Postmasters of second and third-class offices by Acting Postmaster-General Harbock, chairman of the National Association of Postmasters of second and third-class offices to be held in Detroit on August 22, 23 and 24.

Northwest Postal Affairs. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 6.--Arthur Betts has been appointed regular and Joe Shamblin substitute rural carrier, route 1, at Rochester, Wash.

Enlarge Immigration Station. WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.--Tentative plans will be prepared by supervising architect of the Treasury Taylor for extensive improvements at the Ellis Island Immigration Station in New York Bay, which will be recommended to Congress next December. While the Ellis Island plant is large, it never was intended to accommodate 500 immigrants a day, and during the past two or three years that number has frequently arrived. The cost will aggregate about $100,000.

Railroad Into the Yosemite. MERCED, Cal., Aug. 6.--The Yosemite Valley Railroad, building from here, has been completed to Pleasant Valley, 35 miles from Merced, and train service will be commenced to that point next Sunday. The grading is done on the 80 miles of the road with the exception of about 15 miles and it is expected that the road will be completed by the end of the year. The railroad company is planning to put up a fine hotel at the terminus of the road, which will be at the Park Line, six miles below the entrance to the valley.
