

HEARST'S HOPES HANG ON MURPHY

Faction Fight in Tammany Favors His Chances of Nomination.

DEMANDS ON McCLELLAN

If Murphy is Not Granted Them, He Will Back Hearst—Democracy Doomed to Defeat Without Him.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—(Special.)—With the Independence League convention fixed for September 11 in this city, and the Democratic state convention called for September 24 at Buffalo, the chances for united opposition against the Republican candidate seems to be lost.

Had it not been for the mix-up due to the Hearst situation, the Democrats in this city would already have been lined up for the bitter kind of a factional fight. Murphy wanted to hold onto his job while the Mayor and his friends, including Big Tim, Little Tim and all the other Sullivan, were anxious to place Fire Commissioner John O'Brien in the seat of honor in the city.

Murphy's Ultimatum to McClellan. Nobody imagines for a moment that Murphy likes Hearst. But he hates him with the bitterest hatred, but Hearst can help him and Murphy is quick to realize it.

"Drop this fight against me, or I will declare for Hearst," is the message the Tammany leader sent to the Tammany Mayor.

The more Murphy thought over this plan the better he has liked it, and recently he has added conditions which the Mayor and his advisers have regarded as difficult to comply with.

Hearst's Barren Victory. The Hearst men claim a great victory in the choice of Buffalo for the Democratic State Convention, and there is no doubt that they really wanted the convention to meet there, owing to the fact that all the Buffalo papers are out for Hearst and the Independent League sentiment is strong in that section.

An Unexpected Turn in Children's Shoes for Vacation and School Wear

A lot of "Business-Building Bargains" ready this morning in the Shoe Store. All smart, dependable footwear, good styles and splendid lines. Some the overstocks of prominent manufacturers, others from our own regular lines. Last year's famine caused some makers to "plunge"—they wanted to be prepared this season for all possible demands—Result, more Shoes than orders; and now the overstocks come to us "for a song." The workmanship, lines and finish of the Shoes mark them at once as belonging to the higher grades of footwear. The leathers are all full seasoned and no detail, no matter how small, has been slighted. Nothing wrong with these Shoes, and we stand back of 'em, just as we stand back of all Shoes we sell.

ing for the Independence League candidate, and he is confident that in the final line up, the 135 representatives of Tammany Hall will be enrolled under the banner of municipal ownership.

But if they are not! Then, all political prophets agree, the Republican candidate, no matter who he may be, will walk in.

MRS. LE DOUX WILL HANG

Sentence Is Passed on Convicted Murderess at Stockton, Cal.

STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 7.—Mrs. Emma Le Doux was this morning sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Albert N. McVicar. Her attorneys presented affidavits intended to impeach the character of Juror Ritter, but Judge Ritter deemed them insufficient as a basis for the motion for a new trial.

TALK WILL NOT DOWN

Bryan opened his mouth, uttered the words "free silver," and the boom began to collapse. Will the collapse continue, or will Bryan retreat? Bryan wants to be President, but he has a stubborn disposition and hates to abandon issues once dear to him. At present he is not willing to forsake "free silver," but in the next two years, after he realizes the utter futility of a campaign on the silver issue, he may take the advice of his friends and decide to run on a safer and a saner platform than upheld him in 1896 and 1900. In that event the Republicans will need their strongest man.

HONOR COMES FIRST

Judge Denounces Trick in Catching Criminals.

BENEATH NATION'S DIGNITY

Customs Officer Extradited as Fugitive When Canada Refused to Give Him Up on Charge of Conspiracy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—That the honor of the United States is of more importance than the punishment of a million criminals was the statement made by Judge Hough in the United States Circuit Court here today, in the habeas corpus proceedings instituted on behalf of Charles C. Browne. Browne was formerly employed in the customs service in this city, and was extradited from Canada and taken to Sing Sing prison to begin a two years' term for conspiracy to defraud the Government.

W. M. K. Olcott, of counsel for Browne, denounced the action of the Federal authorities in extraditing Browne for an offense and incarcerating him for another as a trick beneath the dignity of the Government of this country, and in violation of the treaty with Canada.

In taking the papers in this case and reserving decision, Judge Hough commented on the Reuscher decision in the United States Supreme Court, in which the contentions now advanced in behalf of Browne were upheld, and it was in this connection that he spoke of the honor of the United States being of more importance than the conviction of criminals.

Browne was convicted of conspiring to defraud the Government and sentenced to two years in prison. He jumped $12,000 bail and fled to Canada. Extradition was refused on the conspiracy charge, but he finally was extradited on an amended charge of being a fugitive from justice.

SHEA WINS EASY VICTORY

Preliminary Votes in Teamsters' Convention Favor Him.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Delegates to the Teamsters' Convention opened the second day's session with policemen in citizens' clothes on the stairs leading to the hall, uniformed men in the street below, and reserves in the City Hall, across the street. This force was not to protect property or nonunion men, but to protect and preserve the drivers themselves in their own convention.

Ornelius P. Shea, who led the organized teamsters of Chicago in the great struggle here a year ago, scored a victory in the first skirmish of the convention, for control of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. Opposing factions, one headed by Shea and the other by his chief rival for the office of president, Albert Young, lined up on a preliminary issue of the election, and the vote showed that the Shea contingent numbered 133 as against 100 for Young. Several times in the succeeding few minutes votes were taken on factional issues, and in each instance the Shea crowd won easily.

It was decided that the election of officers shall take place Thursday. The exclusion of Patrick McMahon, over whose credentials delegates came to blows yesterday, was ratified in today's session. Forty-one New York delegates were excluded for arrears of dues. It was also decided to make the convention a closed affair.

Men Involved in Franchise Fraud

DEFY JUDGE, WHO ORDERS SHERIFF TO ORGANIZE POSSES AND USE FORCE IF NECESSARY.

DENVER, Aug. 7.—There may be serious trouble before tomorrow morning over the ballot-boxes containing the votes on the franchise case last May. This afternoon Judge Lindsey sent the Sheriff to seize the boxes, but he was met with a refusal on the part of the watchers. Later, when the Sheriff appeared with an imperative demand for the boxes, he found that a number of men had gathered, and he was told he could not have them without a fight. He reported this to Judge Lindsey, who tonight instructed him to form a posse and seize the boxes at any cost.

Judge Lindsey found six men guilty of contempt, four of them for refusing to be sworn, the other two being the watchers who refused to give up the boxes. The four who refused to be sworn are: J. Cook, Jr., who is said to have held the land on which alleged fraudulent tax receipts were issued as Fred Williams, ex-chairman of the Republican City Central Committee; H. L. Doherty, of the Gas Company; and J. N. Ordway, president of the Edison Commission.

WILL TELL HOW TO DO IT

Milwaukee's Youthful Mayor Will Lecture Here on Public Honesty.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 7.—(Special.)—Sherbie Becker, Milwaukee's youthful Mayor, though only 29 years of age, has served two terms as Supervisor and one as Alderman before becoming the city's chief executive, and has accepted an offer to go on the lecture platform. Portland will be one of the first cities in which he will deliver his address on "The Young Man in Politics."

In this lecture he tells of how he rooted out the city printing graft, netting $30,000 a year, and of how he sought and attained office.

The campaign of Mayor Becker last year, when he defeated Mayor David Rice, who had served four terms, made him famous, by reason of the spectacular methods employed.

Life Murderer Changes Plea.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Aug. 7.—William O. Wright, who recently shot his wife to death in a restaurant in this city, after declaring emphatically that he could not be hanged too speedily, today in the Superior Court pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder, and a lawyer was appointed to defend him.

Sells Valuable Timber Land.

OREGON CITY, Or., Aug. 7.—(Special)—W. M. Robinson, formerly owner of the St. Charles Hotel, Portland, and now living in the city, has just sold to the Oregon Lumber Company 480 acres of valuable timber land in the Hood River Valley for $12,000.

Four years ago Mr. Robinson refused an offer of $4800 for the same property. The company making the purchase has established on the newly-acquired land a sawmill having a capacity of 175,000 feet daily.

HARTJE CASE WITH JUDGE

Millionaire Listens Unmoved to Lawyer's Denunciation of Him.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 7.—The now famous divorce trial of Augustus Hartje has been closed. With a brief and impassioned address by J. Scott Ferguson, the curtain dropped today. Immediately Mrs. Hartje was surrounded by attorneys and foreign correspondents. She sat in the court today under a storm of biting, stinging criticism from Mr. Freeman, who made the closing argument for Mrs. Hartje.

As Judge Ferguson stepped down from the bench, he said: "I am going on my vacation now, and won't be back until the Saturday before the first of September. I will take up this case after that. My decision may not be given until late in the fall."

Herman Staub and John Anderson, the two detectives who were charged with having stolen papers and other articles from the trunk of Madine during their search for evidence prior to the Hartje divorce case, waived hearings today. Edward Hartje, who defended them, furnished bond in the sum of $300 for each man.

TRYING TO BREED ILL-WILL

Brazilian Minister Repudiates Interview in Argentine Paper.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 7.—An interview published by La Nacion, of Buenos Ayres, on June 8, in which certain statements were attributed to Baron Rio de Branco, the Brazilian Minister of Foreign Affairs, and which has found its way into newspapers of Latin America, has created much commotion. The correspondent here of this paper saw the Baron and attributed to him the following:

"Countries which cannot govern themselves and which do not possess sufficient strength to defend their own institutions have no right to exist and should give place to stronger nations."
