He Talks Politics With Bryan, Who Evades Discussion of Silver.

SILENT ABOUT PRESIDENCY

Oregon Senator Says Mrs. Longworth Took Europe by Storm-Will Return to Oregon Next Week From Washington.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 15.—Senator John M. Gea-rin arrived in Washington today on his return from Europe and after closing up odds and onds of departmental work will leave for Portland Saturday. The will leave for Portland Saturday, The Senator, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweeney, of Spokane, has been enjoying six weeks of automobiling through Eugland, France and Belgium and returns in splendid health, full of stories about the countries through which he traveled, Going entirely by automobile, he avoided the unpleasant-ness of railroad travel abroad, for he did not see a single had road.

Bryan Silent on Silver.

Mr. Gearin met William J. Bryan sev-erai times la London, first at the Fourth of July dinner given by the American Society, on which occasion Mr. Bryan delivered his notable speech. Ambassadelivered his notable speech. Ambassa-dor Reid, introducing Mr. Bryan, Jocu-larly remarked that Mr. Bryan would not now dare to say the United States had suffered on the gold basis. Mr. Bryan in roturn confessed thaf the country "had done well on one leg, but how much better would it have done on two?" he said. Aside from the one phrase, Mr. Gea-rin says he did not near Mr. Bryan mention sliver and at none of their taks was an intimation given as to what position Mr. Bryan would take on "16 to 1" if nominated in 1908. Mr. Bryan at none of their talks made any reference to his boom and expressed

Bryan at none of their talks made any reference to his boom and expressed no opinion whatever on the outlook for 1993. They did discuss politics, but not with any reference to the coming Pres-idential contest. On one occasion Mr. Bryan was a dinner guest of Mr. Gearin and Mr. Sweeney at the Hotel Charle-ton

Longworths Make Great Hit.

The Senator says that the London and Paris papers are devoting a great deal of space to Mr. Bryan and the opinion abroad seems to be universal that Mr. Bryan is sure to be the Demo-cratic nominee for President in 1908. Both in London and in Paris Mr. Gea-rin met the Longworths. Mrs. Long-worth, he says, took Europe by storm and made a great hit everywhere she worth, he snys, took Europe by storm and made a great hit everywhere she stopped, while Mr. Longworth himself was a very conspicuous figure and left a favorable impression behind. The Semator says he is out of touch with affairs in Oregon, but will go di-rectly home from here and take up the work where he left off.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 15.—At the official banquet given at the govern-ment house last evening by President Alcorta, in honor of Secretary Root, to which the diplomatic officers and offi-ers of state only were invited, the Sec-retary made what is considered the most important speech he has delivered while on his tour. Rising to tender the Secretary an official welcome, and proposing the health of Mr. Root, the President traced the similarity in the Constitutions, progress and success in overcoming obstacles of North and South America, and dwelt especially on the mutual advantage of closer friend-ship between the races. In replying, Mr. Root said:

Portland Secures Unclaimed Freight

This will be the greatest sale ever held in the city of Portland. The accumulations of the terminal points throughout the West has always been held once every year in San Francisco, but as everybody knows San Francisco is in such a state at the present time that it will be impossible for the Consolidated Merchandise Company to hold the sale in San Francisco. The storeroom at 104 First street has been secured and the entire first shipment will be sold in large or small quantities to the wholesale or retail at the price to satisfy the claims against it. This sale will positively last but ten days. The first shipment consists of everything of the wearing apparel, ladies, men and children. The next consignment consists of hardware, tools, machinery and kitchen utensils. Third consignment, dry and fancy groceries, sugar, canned vegetables and meats. Our great sale will be held for ten days only. If there is any merchandise left after ten days it will be cased and will be sold blind. This is an opportunity for every citizen in the states of Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Washington to secure merchandise at a figure that will pay them to store for years to come. Below will give you a short itemized list of what we will sell on Friday, August 17. Doors will be open at 9 A. M. sharp. Positively no goods will be sold before that time.
