ROY G. DURHAM IS DEAD

WELL-KNOWN YOUNG MAN SUC-
CUMBS TO HEART FAILURE.

Operated on for Appendicitis, He Is Seized With Fatal Illness When Nearly Recovered.

Roy Gault Durham, son of R. L. Durham, vice-president of the Merchants' National Bank, died last night at 10 o'clock at the home of his father at Riverdale. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of his death, which was probably aggravated by an attack of appendicitis for which he was operated upon a week ago Sunday.

Last night the attending physician, Dr. A. J. Giesy, called upon him and found him greatly improved. He had been feeling so well that his father and mother had come to Portland for a few hours, as they believed he was entirely out of danger.

Young Durham joked with Dr. Giesy and the latter stepped out of the room for a few minutes, leaving his patient in charge of the nurse. He had hardly left the room before he was called back with the information that the patient had become violently ill. Dr. Giesy recognized the symptoms of heart trouble and although everything possible was done to save the young man he expired not more than half an hour after he had taken the abrupt change from the worst of nature and consciousness to the last. Unfortunately Mr. and Mrs. Durham were not present at the death.

Roy Durham, who was only 25 years of age, was a man of splendid physique and until the recent attack of appendicitis looked the very picture of health. A few years ago he was frail of stature and had to spend several months in Arizona because of weak lungs. When he returned to Portland his health showed wonderful improvement.

No young man in Portland is better known than Roy Durham. Born and reared here and possessing a whole-souled and good-hearted personality, it seemed as though everyone in the city was acquainted with him.

Because of his natural brightness and wholesomeness he was much sought after for social events. He was a member of

GOOD PRICE IS EXPECTED

Rogue River Applegrowers Have Not Yet Marketed Their Fruit.

Few or no Rogue River apples have been sold yet by the growers, said John D. O'Connell, of Medford, yesterday, and when the market opens they expect to get from $2.50 to $3.00 a box for the best fruit. The export crop this year will amount to about 150 carloads, 30 per cent of which will be Spitzbergen and 30 per cent Newtowns. About 40 carloads of pears have been exported this year, to all parts of the East.

Within two or three years Rogue River's crop of Spitzbergen and Newtown apples and Bartlett and Winter pears will be considerably increased by new orchards coming into bearing. When Rogue River went into apple culture, some 15 years ago, the growers planted a number of varieties of apples, without knowing the special advantage of the Spitzbergen and Newtown varieties that have since taken the chief place in the apple culture of that place, and, indeed, in the last few years, the orchards of those varieties have been steadily increasing, and will continue to be augmented.

HOLOHAN IS A WONDER

TWIN FALLS GUNNER FIRST
AMONG THE AMATEURS.

Out of a Possible 425 in the Two Days' Pocatello Shoot
He Gets 395.

POCATELLO, Idaho, Aug. 28.—(Special.)—The first annual tournament of the Idaho-Utah Sportsmen's Association in this city closed today with W. B. Crosby, of O'Fallon, Ill., high gun among the professionals, and P. J. Holohan, of Twin Falls, winner of the high average for amateurs.

The shooting of Holohan was phenomenal. His score for the two days' shoot was 395 out of a possible 425. Counting the shoot-offs in two ties, he broke 466 out of a possible 500. Besides winning the high average medal, Holohan won the Confar challenge trophy after tying with Fred Mosely, of Idaho Falls, with 25 straight, and winning in the shoot-off by breaking 24. He also tied with A. F. Bigelow, of Ogdun, for the Browning medal, each breaking 22 straight. The shoot-off resulted in another 24 to 24. In the final shoot-off Bigelow won 24 to 23.

P. M. Eastman, of Boise, won the Idaho Falls trophy by scoring 49 out of a possible 50. The magnificent Breaker trophy was won by W. W. Shemwell, of Salt Lake, who broke 47 out of 50. Out of 45 targets Crosby, the world's champion, missed but 15. He was closely pressed in the second day of the shoot by Walter Huff, of Macon, Ga., whose score was 406 for the two days.

Thompson, "the Missouri farmer," closely contested with Holohan for high average honors, as did also O. N. Ford, of Centralia, Iowa, the latter carrying off second money in the high average event.

All the visiting professionals leave in the morning for Idaho Falls, to participate in a special shoot in that city, and tomorrow evening will start for Boise.

STOLE FOR WEDDING RING

PEATRO WAS CAPTURED AND IS IN SPOKANE JAIL.

Eloping With Pretty Sand Point
Girl, His Funds Gave Out Before They Reached Preacher.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 29.—(Special.)—The pretty common law wife of A. H. Peatro, captured in a Spokane street Tuesday, says that Peatro "went" burglar for that one night in order to obtain funds with which to purchase a marriage license and employ a minister to make the beautiful girl with whom he eloped 10 days ago his wife in name as well as in fact.

The pair came from Sand Point, Idaho, about 10 days ago, expecting to get married as soon as they reached Spokane. Peatro, according to the girl's story, spent most of their money for car fare and a meal and saved a little for their room.

Peatro is apparently a greenhorn at the burglar business, and the girl is of refined appearance and innocent.
