This will afford timely and opportune privilege to patrons to purchase liberally during these two great bargain days that put a fitting climax upon the most successful Summer season the store has ever known.

POSITIVELY THE LAST THIS YEAR!

TODAY ENDS THE SUMMER'S FAMOUS SEMI-DAY, DEMI-WEEK SALES. Final opportunity to secure desirable year-'round merchandise at the 'tween season's drastic reductions and clean-up prices.

"For what to shun will no great knowledge need,
But what to follow, were a task indeed."

The Summer seems indeed to be the "silly season" among many of the city's store advertisers. The extravagant and ridiculous claims of some may befuddle a few shoppers, but they disgust more, and they learn to shun the stores that give cry to absurd and impossible statements. Then what to believe is the question—and the public falls back upon the "Old Homestead Shops" that insist that "every word of the printed announcement must be backed up by the goods in the store."

WORK IS IMMENSE

Express Companies Ask Time to Complete Tariffs.

CANNOT COMPLY WITH LAW

Interstate Commerce Commission Learns What New Legislation Means to Carriers—Industrial Railroads Ask Leniency.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Every one of the carriers under the recently enacted rate law is seeking an extension of time in which to file with the Interstate Commerce Commission its schedule of rates provided for by the act, because they have not had the time necessary to complete their schedules of rates.

Representatives of nearly all of the 13 express companies doing business in the United States were present at today's hearing.

Frank C. Platt, of New York, of the United States Express Company, told the Commission that his company had thus far prepared about 400,000 rates, but that it was not through by any means. He said that the company had strained itself to the utmost in doing the work and now had 50 additional men at work on the schedules. He urged the Commission, in addition to granting an extension of time to do the work, not to insist upon a posting of the schedule of rates at every office, as that would be practically a physical impossibility.

In the course of Mr. Platt's statement it was developed that one-half, in round figures, of the cost of the transmission of express matter was paid to the railroads and one-half for cartage and other charges.

The commission was addressed by representatives of other express companies among them being John D. Ludlow, traffic manager of the Wells-Fargo Company. He informed the commission that most of the records of his company, particularly those relating to the Western division, were destroyed in the San Francisco conflagration and it was necessary to make all these schedules at the earliest possible date.

A brief hearing was accorded to representatives of what are known as industrial railroads—lines that have been established by large corporations for the purpose, primarily, of taking care of the switching of those concerns.

Inquiries relating to the position the industrial railroads were placed in by the new rate law were submitted, but the Commission declined to make an absolute order on any of them at this time.

PACKERS COMPLY WITH LAW

Wilson Says They Will Be Ready When Inspection Takes Effect.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Secretary Wilson returned today from an extended trip through the West and Northwest. He inspected personally many meat-packing plants in the various cities he visited, making it a point always to call at the plants in a given city without previous notice.

In the majority of instances the Secretary found the plants in good sanitary condition. The packers everywhere, he learned, were disposed to meet the requirements of the law without quibble or protest, and by October 1, when the inspection of domestic products will take effect, the Secretary believes that the majority of the packing plants of the country will have completed their arrangements for full observance of the provisions of the new law.

TARIFF TREATY WITH SPAIN

President Proclaims Reciprocity to Take Effect September 1.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The State Department tonight made public a proclamation by President Roosevelt declaring and putting into effect on September 1 next the new agreement as to reciprocal tariff concessions between this Government and Spain. Under the agreement, American goods are to pay duty according to Spain's second tariff schedule, the rate accorded favored nations, in return for American concessions in the way of tariff reductions on wines and other Spanish imports into the United States.

Roosevelt's First Phonetic Letter.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 29.—Secretary Taft received the first letter from President Roosevelt written in accordance with the rules of the reformed spelling board. The letter pertained to the business of the Government, which has rendered its publication impossible. Beginning last night, all of the executive correspondence will be spelled in accordance with the reformed spelling board decision.

Growth of Internal Revenue.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The monthly statement of the collections of internal revenue shows that the total receipts for July, 1906, were $33,399,867, an increase over July, 1905, of $2,905,420. The receipts from the several sources of revenue include the following: Spirits, $12,572,443, increase, $1,558,510; tobacco, $4,109,419, increase, $420,628; fermented liquors, $5,551,602, increase, $582,705.

Portland Firm Will Build Dam.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The Secretary of the Interior has awarded the contract for the construction of the lower Yellowstone dam, lower Yellowstone irrigation project, in North Dakota and Montana, to the Pacific Coast Construction Company, of Portland, for $142,825.

FUSION IN NEVADA

Democratic and Silver Parties in Feast of Love.

STRONG BID TO LABOR

Platform Declares a Democratic Congress Must Make New Laws for the Masses, While Enforcing Existing Statutes Justly.

RENO, Nev., Aug. 29.—The Democratic and Silver parties of the State of Nevada assembled in joint convention in this city today, and after the establishment of a permanent organization immediately proceeded to business. After the report of the committee on credentials was read to the convention the adoption of the platform for the coming campaign was formed.

It is regarded as the strongest platform ever drafted by a Nevada state convention, embodying a declaration of the necessity of a Democratic Congress justly to enforce existing laws, and for the enactment of new laws for the further betterment of the masses. It strongly indorses the administration of Governor John Sparks, especially in connection with the recent enactment of the eight-hour law, which is of far-reaching importance to the powerful labor element in the extensive mining districts throughout the state.

Mention is made of the pride with which the state has watched the course pursued by the senior United States Senator, Francis G. Newlands, regarding the famous irrigation bill with which his name will be forever identified, and of the beneficent results that must necessarily follow its proper enforcement. He is strongly indorsed for re-election in 1909.

The reports of the different offices will be taken up immediately upon the opening of tomorrow's session. It is rumored that notwithstanding Governor Sparks' declaration that he is not a candidate to succeed himself he will be prevailed upon to head the ticket.

Complete harmony characterized the entire proceedings and the fusion of the two parties was accomplished amidst enthusiastic applause.

QUINCY WANTS NONE OF MORAN

Massachusetts Chairman Will Resign if He Is Nominated.

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—Public utterances from various state leaders today developed new interest in the struggle for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts. District Attorney John B. Moran led off by sending a caustic letter to Josiah Quincy, chairman of the Democratic state committee, refusing the latter's suggestion to submit the nomination issue to William Jennings Bryan. The District Attorney forwarded one of his campaign buttons to Chairman Quincy, with the remark that the wearing of the same would be proof of Mr. Quincy's recognition of the Massachusetts people's right to govern themselves in defiance of dictation by self-constituted bosses.

Chairman Quincy replied by promising vigorous hostility to Mr. Moran's candidacy. He added, however, that he would cease his opposition to Moran after the latter had become satisfied that a majority of the Democrats wanted a candidate whose nomination, to his mind, spelled "humiliation and disaster." Mr. Quincy intimated that he would resign his position as chairman if Mr. Moran were nominated. Ex-Congressman J. R. Thayer announced that he would not be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor under any circumstances. H. M. Whitney recently made a similar announcement, and ex-Governor Douglas has declared his unwillingness to run unless he is nominated without opposition. The situation has apparently given new hope to the Moran forces, which are now hard at work in the state.

DICK ACCEPTS OHIO ISSUE.

Will Fight "Less Cordial" Indorsement of Senators.

AKRON, O., Aug. 29.—Following the statement given out by Senator Foraker Sunday night on the issue of indorsement of the Ohio Senators by the Republican convention and other matters, Senator Charles Dick gave out a statement yesterday. Both of the statements follow the address of Harry M. Daugherty, ex-chairman of the Republican State Committee, at Cleveland last Saturday, in which he urged the retirement of Senator Dick as chairman of the State Executive Committee, and a less cordial indorsement of Senators Foraker and Dick than of President Roosevelt by the state committee. Senator Dick in his statement says:

"Personally, no one can regret more than I the antagonism or opposition toward Ohio Senators and their friends. If the Ohio Senators were disposed, for any reason, to retire from the conflict, they could not do so now. They owe it to their friends over the entire state, as well as to themselves, to fight this matter to a finish. In this contest their friends will be found on one side, their enemies on the other. In the controversy, however, the National Administration is not involved, since no one opposes a strong and emphatic indorsement of the President. The whole situation has shifted to one of opposition to the Ohio Senators and the present party organization. The coming state convention must decide it."

Will Open Campaign in West.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Arrangements were practically completed last night for the opening of the Republican Fall campaign in the West with a "monster mass meeting," as it is called on the posters, at the auditorium on the night of September 22. Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, will be the chief speaker of that occasion. It is expected that Speaker Joseph G. Cannon and J. Adam Bede, Congressman from Minnesota, will also address the meeting. The "dollar dinner" idea has been abandoned.

Those who wish to practice economy should buy Carter's Little Liver Pills. Forty pills in a vial; only one pill a dose.
