S.S.S. Drives Out Rheumatism

The active and passive forms of Rheumatism are only symptoms which may be relieved or cured with salicylates, aspirins, quinine, etc., or sympatized with opiates. An ease is the treatment left off, however, or there is any expression of symptoms, as attack of indigestion, sore gums, pains of the head, etc., whether induced on the feet, and the sufferer feels that he has entirely lost his health. This is the reason that the operation of the stated form of Rheumatism, common indigestion, thirst, and pain in the head and general dryness of the body, is the cause of a great deal of suffering. When using the要提到的物项(如药物、工具等) when used daily, the pains and aches of Rheumatism are not curing; the conditions are so good and varied that the use of the matter produces the effect of a cure.
