Stewart Declines Nomination for Governor of Colorado.

HAS HORROR OF GABBERT

Republican Chairman Falls to Secure Declination of Chief Justice, Which Is Sole Alternative-May Reorganize.

DENVER, Sept. 17.—Philip B. Stew-art, recently nominated for Governor of Colorado on the Republican ticket, tonight sent a letter to the Republican state chairman, declining the nomina-tion. While the letter does not state it in so many words, the reason Mr. Stewart declined to run is the placing of Chief Justice William Gabbert on the ticket as candidate for re-election to the supreme bencil. Before the con-vention Mr. Stewart advised against the nomination of Gabbert. When the nomination was made, Stewart was not present, being ill at his hotel. He did not learn that Gabbert's name was on the ticket until Sunday, and it is said he declared to State Chairman Vivian that he would not run on the same ticket with a Populist.

Gabbert Will Not Withdraw.

a very diplomatic letter was sent to Gabbert, who was elected to the su-preme bench six years ago as a Popu-list. Gabbert is said to have declared he would not withdraw if the entire Republican ticket refused to run with him. Mr. Stewart then gave the Republican State Central Committee until 10 o'clock tonight to get Gabbert off the ticket. As no move was apparently made in that direction, he issued the following tenight to Vivian: I bes to inform you that I forwarded to be Secretary of State my declination of the unination recently tendered me by the State Republican Convention.

Quite Impossible to Run.

I very deeply regret that a sudden and severe attack of illness prevented, under di-rections of my physician, the report of the work of the convention being brought to my attention prior to its final adjournment on Saturday last.

A later account of the convention, however, makes it quite impossible for me to render to the state and to the party the service which I had confidently hoped to perform in the coming campaign. I wish to express through you to the Republicans of the state my sincere appreciation of the honor conferred by my nomination and of the many personal as-surances of regard and to assure that my efforts for the success of the party and its principles will be in no way relaxed.

Another Convention Likely.

It is reported tonight that Judge Charles F. Caswell, who was nominated with Gabbert for the supreme bench, will withdraw his name from the ticket tomorrow. There was also a report current to-night that the Republicans would call another convention and nominate an entirely new ticket.

FOR DIRECT PRIMARY LAW

Republican County Conventions Almost All Approve Such Legislation.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 17 .- (Special.)-Platforms adopted by the Republican county conventions of the state show clearly that the state convention will require the passage of a direct primary law by the next Legislature. It is significant of the various county platforms that most of them demand the direct primary for Congressional and Senatorial nomina-tions. Comparatively few of the counties specifically indorse any form of a prim-ary law, but most of those held since the State Primary League drafted its bill approve the act.

The unanimity with which the direct primary law is indersed is the most strik-ing feature of the county platforms. There is a general indersement of the National and state administrations, but an indersement of the state administra-tion is conspicuously absent in King County. In a few countles the conven-tions failed to inderse Series tions failed to indorse Senators Piles and Ankeny by name, but practically every convention referred to them in terms of ongressman Jones showed a big gain of strength in Central Washington. He is singled out, particularly in those counties where irrigation projects have been under way, for especial commendation, In view of the fact that Congressman Jones icoms large as a Senatorial possi-bility, in the event Senator Ankeny for any reason should not ask a renomina-tion, the special recognition of his Congressional work in Eastern Washington has a deep interest to politicians.

The East Side counties are still referring in political platforms to the railroad legislation of the state, and several took occasion to commend the Washington Senators for their stand with President Roosevelt on railway regulation. It is a rather striking fact that Spokane, the former hothed of railroad agitation, did not dip into political railroad legis. did not dip into political railroad legis-lation with its platform.

Douglas County asked the State Rail-road Commission for a lowering of grain rates, but that was the only East Side county which demanded specific action in railroad matters. Whitman County es-pecially commended the Railroad Com-mission, but this was to be expected for mission, but this was to be expected, for John C. Lawrence was named Commis-sioner from that county, Lincoln's rail-road plank is extended and congratulates the people upon the enactment of rall-road legislation, state and National. The fact that both Senators voted for the President's rallroad rate bill is com-mented upon favorably in Lincoln. Stev-ens draws attention to rallroad legisla-tion by the Democratic party.

Douglas was the only county in the state to demand a repeal of the present road law, but there is a strong undercurrent of feeling in Kitsap that indicates that county would stand with Douglas in such a fight. Whitman commended the present road law, but asked that the Sunervisco district by roads arreller. Supervisor district be made small

The opening of the Pend d'Oreille to navigation by Congressional appropriation was demanded by Stevens County, while Okanogan asks for more attention to the irrigation projects, in that county and asks for an extension of soldiers' rights to public lands. rights to public lands. Spokane took the lead in a demand for the division of the state into Congres-sional districts, but the keynote sounded there last June was not taken up by other counties. eigh-hour law for miners, and King County demands the enactment of a law which would permit parents to collect damages for the death of a child, over $1, upon whom they are dependent for support. This is practically the only labor legislation in the county platforms, but it is probable the railroad employes' organizations will ask for a state indorsement of laws limiting the hours of empert of laws limiting the hours of emment of laws limiting the hours of em-ployment for trainmen and that the labor organizations will go before the state onvention.

In the homes of the Congressmen the "stand pat" policy on tariff legislation a approved. President Roosevelt Is in-lorsed by every county in some form. Judged from the county resolutions, it is evident there will be no demand upon the state convention for a lengthy decthe state convention for a lengthy de aration of principles and that a general andorsement of Republican officials, a stand pat plank, a requirement for the direct primary and a review of Repub-lican results will be the principal fea-tures of the state document.

America's relations with Mo-rocco outside the Algedras protocol are clearly defined by treaty and the Sultan's intrigues with other powers will certainly not be accepted as an excuse for the infringement of these treaty rights.
