An angel once rolled the stone away and yesterday afternoon it was that big finely built catcher Tom Carson, who rolled the ball and gloom left over from that double barreled affair of Sunday.

Professor Krohn expressed himself as highly pleased with the showing for it augurs well for the success of the athletic branch of the club during the coming year.

From the talent that has presented itself to Professor Krohn, he expects to develop some highly proficient athletes and amateur gymnasts. The various drills were cut short, for the instructor did not wish to tire his classes.

The ladies' gymnasium class will commence work this morning. Professor Krohn has been assured of a large attendance.
