The funniest show of the year is to be seen at the Lyric this week, where the members of the popular stock company are covering themselves all over with glory with their magnificent performance of the famous farce-comedy success, "The Green-Eyed Monster." It is really a great show and no one can afford to miss it.

Pantage's New Offering.

There has been no better or stronger feature offered this season from the vaude-ville stage than the Metropolitan Singers, who render the bedroom scene from "Fra Diavolo" this week. It is an operatic treat and a class and quality of work which is arrely strained by works which is rarely attained by vaudeville workers. There is a host of other good acts.
